

Evangelical Presbyterian Church
403(b)(9) Plan (#89560)

Invest in your retirement—and yourself—today, with help from the EPC 403(b)(9) Plan and Fidelity.

YOUR GUIDE TO GETTING STARTED

Invest some of what you earn today for what you plan to accomplish tomorrow.

Dear employee:

Your Employer offers outstanding convenience and a variety of investment options. Take a look and see what a difference enrolling in the Plan could make in achieving your goals.

Benefit from:

Convenience. Your contributions are automatically deducted regularly from your paycheck.

Tax savings now. Your pretax contributions are deducted from your pay before income taxes are taken out. This means that you can actually lower the amount of current income taxes you pay each period. It could mean more money in your take-home pay versus saving money in a taxable account.

Tax-deferred savings opportunities. You pay no taxes on any pretax earnings until you withdraw them from your account, enabling you to keep more of your money working for you now.

Portability. You can roll over eligible savings from a previous employer into this Plan. You can also take your plan vested account balance with you if you leave the company.

Investment options. You have the flexibility to select from investment options that range from more conservative to more aggressive, making it easy for you to develop a well-diversified investment portfolio.

Online beneficiary. With Fidelity's Online Beneficiaries Service, you can designate your beneficiaries, receive instant online confirmation, and check your beneficiary information virtually any time.

To learn more about what your plan offers, see "Frequently asked questions about your plan" later in this guide.

Enroll in your plan and invest in yourself today.

Frequently asked questions about your plan.

Here are answers to questions you may have about the key features, benefits, and rules of your plan.

When can I enroll in the Plan?

There is no waiting period. You can enroll in the Plan at any time.

How do I enroll in the Plan?

Go to www.netbenefits.com/ready2enroll to setup your EPC 403(b)(9) Plan account.

Have your EPC 403(b)(9) Plan ID Number 89560 ready to set up your account. This ID number is the EPC plan's identification number and is required to set-up your account.

Follow the prompts to enroll. Once your account is set up you will be led to Fidelity Netbenefits® www.netbenefits.com/atwork to create a Password and choose an investment mix for your contributions.

When you've completed your enrollment, you will receive an online confirmation. It is required that you print the confirmation and provide it, along with the Salary Reduction Agreement to your church administrator/treasurer. A Salary Reduction Agreement can be obtained from the EPC website or your church administrator. A completed form must be returned to your church administrator/treasurer to deduct your contributions from your paycheck.

How much can I contribute?

Through automatic payroll deduction, you may contribute up to 100% of your eligible pay on a pretax or Roth after-tax basis, up to the annual IRS dollar limits. You may customize your contributions to include pre-tax, Roth or both. You may also be eligible to make catch-up contributions. You can update your contribution amount by completing a Salary Reduction Agreement. You can obtain a Salary

Reduction Form from the EPC website or your church administrator. A completed form must be returned to your church administrator/treasurer to deduct your contributions from your paycheck.

What is the Roth contribution option?

A Roth contribution to your retirement savings plan allows you to make after-tax contributions and take any associated earnings completely tax free at retirement - as long as the distribution is a qualified one. A qualified distribution, in this case, is one that is taken at least five tax years after your first Roth 403(b) contribution and after you have attained age 59½, or become disabled or die. Through automatic payroll deduction, you can contribute between 1% and 100% of your eligible pay as designated Roth contributions, up to the annual IRS dollar limits.

Find more information online within the "Learn" section of NetBenefits®.

What is the IRS contribution limit?

The IRS contribution limit for 2022 is $20,500.

How do I designate my beneficiary?

If you have not already selected your beneficiaries, or if you have experienced a life-changing event such as a marriage, divorce, birth of a child, or a death in the family, it's time to consider your beneficiary designations. Fidelity's Online Beneficiaries Service offers a straightforward, convenient process that takes just minutes. To make your elections, click on the "Profile" link, then select "Beneficiaries" and follow the online instructions.

What are my investment options?

To help you meet your investment goals, the Plan offers you a range of options. You can select a mix of investment options that best suits your goals, time horizon, and risk tolerance. The many investment options available through the Plan include conservative, moderately conservative, and aggressive funds. A complete description of the Plan's investment options and their performance, as well as planning tools to help you choose an appropriate mix, are available online.

What if I don't make an investment election?

We encourage you to take an active role in the EPC 403(b)(9) Plan and choose investment options that best suit your goals, time horizon, and risk tolerance. If you do not select specific investment options in the Plan, your contributions will be invested in the Fidelity Freedom® Index Fund - Institutional Premium Class with the target retirement date closest to the year you might retire, based on your current age and assuming a retirement age of 65, at the direction of Evangelical Presbyterian Church.

If no date of birth or an invalid date of birth is on file at Fidelity, your contributions may be invested in the Fidelity Freedom® Index Income Fund - Institutional Premium Class. More information about the Fidelity Freedom® Index Fund - Institutional Premium Class options can be found online.

Target Date Funds are an asset mix of stocks, bonds and other investments that automatically becomes more conservative as the fund approaches its target retirement date and beyond. Principal invested is not guaranteed.

When am I vested?

You are always 100% vested in your own contributions to the EPC 403(b)(9) Plan.

Can I take a loan from my account?

Loans are not available in this Plan.

Can I make withdrawals?

Withdrawals from the Plan are generally permitted when you terminate your employment, retire, reach age 59½, become permanently disabled, have severe financial hardship, as defined by your plan.

If your withdrawal is used for housing allowance, it may be tax free. Withdrawals of Roth after-tax contributions and earnings are tax-free as long as you are 59½ or older (or disabled) and your withdrawal satisfies the five-year Roth holding requirement.

Learn more about and/or request a withdrawal online, or by calling the Fidelity Retirement Benefits Line at 1-800-343-0860.

The plan document and current tax laws and regulations will govern in case of a discrepancy. Be sure you understand the tax consequences and your plan's rules for distributions before you initiate a distribution. You may want to consult a professional tax adviser about your situation.

How much should I save for retirement?

Fidelity's planning tools are designed to help you manage your assets as you plan for retirement. Simply log on to Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.netbenefits.com/atwork to access these tools.

Can I move money from another retirement plan into my account in the EPC 403(b)(9) Plan?

You are permitted to roll over eligible pre-tax and Roth contributions from another 401(k) plan, 403(b) plan or a governmental 457(b) retirement plan account or eligible pretax contributions from conduit or non-conduit individual retirement accounts (IRAs). A conduit IRA is one that contains only money rolled over from an employer-sponsored retirement plan that has not been mixed with regular IRA contributions.

To begin the process, complete the transfer of assets form located in this guide. You can also call the Fidelity Retirement Benefits Line at 1-800-343-0860 or log on to Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.netbenefits.com/atwork for details.

Be sure to consider all your available options and the applicable fees and features of each before moving your retirement assets.

Where can I find information about exchanges and other plan features?

Find information about your account and learn about exchanges, withdrawals, and more online. In particular, you can access a withdrawal modeling tool, which shows the amount of federal income taxes and early withdrawal penalties you might pay, along with the amount of earnings you could potentially lose by taking a withdrawal. Additional information can be obtained by calling the Fidelity Retirement Benefits Line at 1-800-343-0860.

Target date investments are generally designed for investors expecting to retire around the year indicated in each investment's name. The investments are managed to gradually become more conservative over time. The investment risks of each target date investment change over time as its asset allocation changes. They are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high yield, small cap and foreign securities. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after their target dates.

This spectrum, with the exception of the Domestic Equity category, is based on Fidelity's analysis of the characteristics of the general investment categories and not on the actual investment options and their holdings, which can change frequently. Investment options in the Domestic Equity category are based on the options' Morningstar categories as of 08/31/2022. There may be a number of funds in each category and each may have a significantly different risk profile as compared to other funds within that category as well as compared to funds in other categories on the spectrum. Morningstar categories are based on a fund's style as measured by its underlying portfolio holdings over the past three years and may change at any time. These style calculations do not represent the investment options' objectives and do not predict the investment options' future styles. Investment options are listed in alphabetical order within each investment category. Risk associated with the investment options can vary significantly within each particular investment category and the relative risk of categories may change under certain economic conditions. For a more complete discussion of risk associated with the mutual fund options, please read the prospectuses before making your investment decisions. Investment Options

Before investing in any mutual fund, consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses. Contact Fidelity for a mutual fund prospectus or, if available, a summary prospectus containing this information. Read it carefully.

Baird Core Plus Bond Fund Class Institutional

VRS Code: 889366

Fund Objective: The investment seeks an annual rate of total return, before fund expenses, greater than the annual rate of total return of the Bloomberg U.S. Universal Bond Index.

Fund Strategy: The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets in the following types of U.S. dollar-denominated debt obligations: U.S. government and other public-sector entities; asset-backed and mortgage-backed obligations of U.S. and foreign issuers; corporate debt of U.S. and foreign issuers. It invests primarily in investment-grade debt obligations, but may invest up to 20% of its net assets in non-investment grade debt obligations (sometimes referred to as "high yield" or "junk" bonds).

Fund Risk: In general the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. The fund may invest in lower-quality debt securities that involve greater risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. Foreign securities are subject to interest-rate, currency-exchange-rate, economic, and political risks, all of which may be magnified in emerging markets. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking potential returns primarily in the form of interest dividends rather than through an increase in share price.
- Someone who is seeking to diversify an equity portfolio with a more conservative investment option.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
- The Bloomberg U.S. Universal Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted performance benchmark for the U.S. dollar-denominated bond market, which includes investment-grade, high yield, and emerging market debt securities with maturities of one year or more.

Fidelity Freedom® Index 2015 Fund Institutional Premium Class

VRS Code: 002767

Fund Objective: Seeks high total return until its target retirement date. Thereafter, the fund's objective will be to seek high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation.

Fund Strategy: Designed for investors who anticipate retiring in or within a few years of the fund's target retirement year at or around age 65. Investing primarily in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds), each of which (excluding any money market fund) seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return of a specific index. Allocating assets among underlying Fidelity funds according to a "neutral" asset allocation strategy that adjusts over time until it reaches an allocation similar to that of the Freedom Index Income Fund approximately 10 to 19 years after the target year. Ultimately, the fund may merge with the Freedom Index Income Fund. Fidelity Management & Research Company LLC (the Adviser) may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of shareholders. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation.

Fund Risk: The investment risk of each Fidelity Freedom Index Fund changes over time as its asset allocation changes. These risks are subject to the asset allocation decisions of the Investment Adviser. The funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad, and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high-yield, small-cap, commodity-linked, and foreign securities. The funds are subject to the risks associated with investing in a passively managed underlying fund in which the passively managed underlying fund's performance could be lower than an actively managed fund that shifts its portfolio assets to take advantage of market opportunities or lessen the impact of a market decline or a decline in the value of one or more issuers. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. No target date fund is considered a complete retirement program and there is no guarantee any single fund will provide sufficient retirement income at or through retirement. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after the funds' target dates.

Fidelity Freedom® Index 2040 Fund Institutional Premium Class

Fund Objective: Seeks high total return until its target retirement date. Thereafter, the fund's objective will be to seek high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation.

Fund Strategy: Designed for investors who anticipate retiring in or within a few years of the fund's target retirement year at or around age 65. Investing primarily in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds), each of which (excluding any money market fund) seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return of a specific index. Allocating assets among underlying Fidelity funds according to a "neutral" asset allocation strategy that adjusts over time until it reaches an allocation similar to that of the Freedom Index Income Fund approximately 10 to 19 years after the target year. Ultimately, the fund may merge with the Freedom Index Income Fund. Fidelity Management & Research Company LLC (the Adviser) may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of shareholders. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation.

Fund Risk: The investment risk of each Fidelity Freedom Index Fund changes over time as its asset allocation changes. These risks are subject to the asset allocation decisions of the Investment Adviser. The funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad, and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high-yield, small-cap, commodity-linked, and foreign securities. The funds are subject to the risks associated with investing in a passively managed underlying fund in which the passively managed underlying fund's performance could be lower than an actively managed fund that shifts its portfolio assets to take advantage of market opportunities or lessen the impact of a market decline or a decline in the value of one or more issuers. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. No target date fund is considered a complete retirement program and there is no guarantee any single fund will provide sufficient retirement income at or through retirement. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after the funds' target dates.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Fund Objective: Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the aggregate price and interest performance of the debt securities in the Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Aggregate Bond Index.

Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of the fund's assets in bonds included in the Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Aggregate Bond Index. Using statistical sampling techniques based on duration, maturity, interest rate sensitivity, security structure, and credit quality to attempt to replicate the returns of the Index using a smaller number of securities. Engaging in transactions that have a leveraging effect on the fund, including investments in derivatives - such as swaps (interest rate, total return, and credit default) and futures contracts - and forward-settling securities, to adjust the fund's risk exposure. Investing in Fidelity's central funds (specialized investment vehicles used by Fidelity funds to invest in particular security types or investment disciplines).

Fund Risk: In general the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. Foreign securities are subject to interest rate, currency exchange rate, economic, and political risks. The fund can invest in securities that may have a leveraging effect (such as derivatives and forward-settling securities) which may increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking potential returns primarily in the form of interest dividends rather than through an increase in share price.
- Someone who is seeking to diversify an equity portfolio with a more conservative investment option.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
- The Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index is an unmanaged market value-weighted index for U.S. dollar denominated investment-grade fixed-rate debt issues, including government, corporate, asset-backed, and mortgage-backed securities with maturities of at least one year.
- Returns prior to May 4, 2011 are those of the Premium Class and reflect the Premium Class' expense ratio. Had the Institutional Premium Class' expense ratio been reflected, total returns would have been higher.

JPMorgan Equity Income Fund Class R6

VRS Code: 826649

Fund Objective: The investment seeks capital appreciation and current income.

Fund Strategy: Under normal circumstances, at least 80% of the fund's assets will be invested in the equity securities of corporations that regularly pay dividends, including common stocks and debt securities and preferred stock convertible to common stock. "Assets" means net assets, plus the amount of borrowings for investment purposes. Although the fund invests primarily in securities of large cap companies, it may invest in equity investments of companies across all market capitalizations.

Fund Risk: Value stocks can perform differently than other types of stocks and can continue to be undervalued by the market for long periods of time. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. These risks may be magnified in foreign markets. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation and, secondarily, dividend income.
- Someone who is comfortable with the volatility of large-cap stocks and value-style investments.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
- The analysis on these pages may be based, in part, on adjusted historical returns for periods prior to the class's actual inception of 01/31/2012. These calculated returns reflect the historical performance of the oldest share class of the fund, with an inception date of 07/02/1987, adjusted to reflect the fees and expenses of this share class (when this share class's fees and expenses are higher.) Please refer to a fund's prospectus for information regarding fees and expenses. These adjusted historical returns are not actual returns. Calculation methodologies utilized by Morningstar may differ from those applied by other entities, including the fund itself.

T. Rowe Price Blue Chip Growth Fund

VRS Code: 893386

Fund Objective: The investment seeks long-term capital growth; income is a secondary objective.

Fund Strategy: The fund will normally invest at least 80% of its net assets (including any borrowings for investment purposes) in the common stocks of large and medium-sized blue chip growth companies. It focuses on companies with leading market positions, seasoned management, and strong financial fundamentals. The fund is non-diversified.

Fund Risk: Growth stocks can perform differently from the market as a whole and can be more volatile than other types of stocks. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. These risks may be magnified in foreign markets. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation.
- Someone who is willing to accept the generally greater price volatility associated with growth-oriented stocks.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.

What is the Roth 403(b) Contribution Option?

A Roth contribution is available to employees who participate in the 403(b) plan. For payroll purposes, Roth contributions are treated as after tax. This feature will allow participants to make Roth contributions to their plan while taking their earnings completely tax-free at retirement—as long as the withdrawal is a qualified one. A qualified withdrawal is one that can be taken five tax years after the year of the first Roth contribution and after the participant has attained age 59½, has become disabled, or has died.

If you qualify to make traditional 403(b) contributions, you are eligible for a Roth 403(b) contribution.

How does a Roth 403(b) contribution option work?

You elect an amount of your salary that you wish to contribute to the Roth source, just as you would for your traditional 403(b). The contribution is based on your eligible compensation, not on your net pay—for example, if your total annual eligible compensation is $40,000 per year and you elect a 6% deferral amount, then $2,400 per year would go into your Roth 403(b) account.

Unlike your traditional 403(b) pretax contribution, with a Roth 403(b) contribution, you pay the taxes now on the contributions you make—but later your earnings are all tax-free, if you meet certain criteria.

Example: Sally earns $40,000 and has elected to put 6% toward her Roth 403(b) contributions and 6% toward her traditional 403(b) pretax contributions on a monthly basis.

	ROTH 403(b)*	TRADITIONAL 403(b)*
Sally's monthly contribution into each account	$200	$200
Sally's reduction in take-home pay	$200	$156

*This hypothetical example is based solely on an assumed federal income tax rate of 22%. No other payroll deductions are taken into account. Your own results will be based on your individual tax situation.

Your combined Roth and traditional pretax 403(b) contributions cannot exceed the IRS limits for the year.

Would a Roth 403(b) contribution option benefit me?

The potential benefits of Roth 403(b) contributions really depend on your personal situation, but are mainly focused on your existing tax rate and your anticipated tax rate at the time of retirement. If you are contributing to a Roth, you are giving up a tax break today for a tax break in the future.

Therefore, a Roth contribution might benefit you if your tax rate in retirement were higher than it had been during the years you contributed.

If your tax rate were lower in retirement, then a traditional 403(b) might be more beneficial to you than the Roth option. Talk with a tax professional for more information on how to determine if Roth 403(b) contributions are right for you.

Is a traditional pretax 403(b) still beneficial?

Yes. For many participants, a traditional pretax 403(b) will still be the most beneficial type of retirement savings plan. We do not know what the future holds regarding tax rates. Therefore, it is not possible to predict with certainty which type of 403(b) savings will be most beneficial to a participant.

Remember, because Roth 403(b) contributions are made after tax, you may take home less money in your paycheck than you would if you contributed to a traditional pretax 403(b).

403(b) Beneficiary Designation

1. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Please complete this form and sign it on the back. In the future, you may revoke the beneficiary designation and designate a different beneficiary by submitting a new Beneficiary Designation form to Fidelity.

Mailing instructions: Return this form in the enclosed postage-paid envelope or to Fidelity Investments, P.O. Box 770002, Cincinnati, OH 45277-0090

Questions? Call Fidelity Investments at 1-800-343-0860 Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to midnight Eastern time, or visit us at www.netbenefits.com/atwork.

2. DESIGNATING YOUR BENEFICIARY(IES)

You are not limited to three primary and three contingent beneficiaries. To assign additional beneficiaries, or to designate a more complex beneficiary designation, please attach, sign, and date a separate piece of paper.

When designating primary and contingent beneficiaries, please use whole percentages and be sure that the percentages for each group of beneficiaries total 100%. Your primary beneficiary cannot be your contingent beneficiary. If you designate a trust as a beneficiary, please include the date the trust was created, and the trustee's name.

Unless otherwise specified by your plan, if more than one person is named and no percentages are indicated, payment will be made in equal shares to your primary beneficiary(ies) who survives you. If a percentage is indicated and a primary beneficiary(ies) does not survive you, the percentage of that beneficiary's designated share shall be divided among the surviving primary beneficiary(ies) in proportion to the percentage selected for them.

Naming an estate: Letters of appointment issued by the court naming the executor or administrator of the estate must be provided when a claim is filed. Please consult your attorney for advice on the effect of this designation. No additional legal documentation is required at this time.

Naming a trust: Provide the name, date, and tax identification number of the trust (if available). If there has not been a tax identification number assigned to the trust, provide your Social Security number. The trust must be established prior to the date this form is submitted.

Do not send a copy of the trust agreement. If available, provide the name and address of one trustee.

Naming a charity: Please list name, address, and tax identification number. Please select "Estate/Charity" as the beneficiary type.

What happens if you designate a minor, a person who is not legally competent, or an estate as beneficiary? If you should choose a minor, a person who is not legally competent, or an estate as beneficiary, it may be necessary to have a guardian or administrator appointed before any proceeds can be paid. This may mean delay of payment and additional expense for your beneficiary.

What effect does divorce have on beneficiary designations? If a Beneficiary Designation form was completed leaving benefits to a spouse prior to divorce, this designation is not automatically revoked by your divorce from the former spouse. Unless otherwise required by applicable federal or state law, or the terms of your retirement plan document, your former spouse will remain your beneficiary until you designate a new one. This is the case even if you remarry, unless the terms of the retirement plan document require a different beneficiary. If you remarry, your new spouse will automatically be your beneficiary for at least 50% of your account unless (1) you designate another beneficiary (which could be your former spouse) and your new spouse consents to the designation, or (2) the death benefit has been assigned to your former spouse under a qualified domestic relations order (QDRO).

3. SPOUSAL CONSENT

Spousal Consent: If you are married, your plan requires that you designate your spouse as primary beneficiary for 100% of your vested account balance. If you are married and you do not designate your spouse as your primary beneficiary for your account balances as described above, your spouse must sign the Spousal Consent portion of this form in the presence of a notary public or a representative of the plan.

Age 35 Requirement: Your spouse must be the primary beneficiary of your account as described above unless your spouse consents to a different primary beneficiary. If this designation occurs prior to the first day of the plan year in which you attain age 35, this designation is void on the earlier of (a) the first day of the plan year in which you attain age 35, or (b) the date of separation from service. When this designation is voided, your spouse will become the beneficiary for the amount described above. If you wish to designate a different primary beneficiary at that time you will need to complete a new Beneficiary Designation form.
