PREFACE

The Constitution of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church consists of the Book of Order (comprised of The Book of Government, The Book of Discipline, and The Book of Worship), the Westminster Confession of Faith (including the Larger and Shorter Catechisms), and the document Essentials of Our Faith.¹ All these documents are subordinate to the Scripture, which is “the supreme and final authority on all matters on which it speaks.”²

The 1st General Assembly (1981) adopted The Book of Government and The Book of Worship, and succeeding Assemblies adopted numerous amendments. The Book of Discipline in its present form was ratified by the 36th General Assembly (2016), substantially revising the version approved by the 17th General Assembly (1997). The 34th General Assembly (2014) ratified a revision of the Book of Government, and the 35th General Assembly (2015) ratified a revision of the Book of Worship. Recent revisions include standardized terminology, and numerous footnotes with references to Scripture and cross references to relevant Acts of Assembly and Rules for Assembly so the connections between these documents are more apparent to readers. These footnotes are not part of the text of the Book of Order proper and therefore are not subject to the amendment process described in Book of Government chapter 23. They may be updated in the editorial process or at the direction of the General Assembly.

Cross references in the text and footnotes to the Book of Order are designated with the appropriate capital letter (G-Book of Government; D-Book of Discipline; W-Book of Worship).

Prior to 2008, the Book of Order was published in a small three-ring binder. In addition to the Book of Order proper (The Books of Government, Worship, and Discipline), it also contained Rules for Assembly, Acts of Assembly, Forms for Discipline, and Service Forms for convenience and because of their importance to the connectional life of our denomination. The EPC governing documents are now available as:

The Constitution: Volume 1 – The Book of Order (including Rules for Assembly, Acts of Assembly, and Forms for Discipline.)

The Constitution: Volume 2 – The Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms
(EPC Modern Language Version)

Volume 1 is reprinted annually and available both in print and online at www.epc.org.

This volume includes amendments to the Book of Order and Rules for Assembly ratified by the 40th General Assembly (2020), as well as Acts of the 40th General Assembly.

STATUS OF FOOTNOTES

Footnotes in this edition are intended to aid the user by referencing relevant Scripture and applicable sections of the Book of Order, the Westminster Confession and Catechisms, and Acts of Assembly. Footnotes are not part of the Constitution and are not subject to the amending provisions stipulated in the Book of Government. They may be changed by an action of the General Assembly or in the editorial process. The same principle applies to indices and tables of contents.

ESSENTIALS OF OUR FAITH

All Scripture is self-attesting and being Truth, requires our unreserved submission in all areas of life. The infallible Word of God, the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments, is a complete and unified witness to God's redemptive acts culminating in the incarnation of the Living Word, the Lord Jesus Christ. The Bible, uniquely and fully inspired by the Holy Spirit, is the supreme and final authority on all matters on which it speaks. On this sure foundation we affirm these additional essentials of our faith.

1. We believe in one God, the sovereign Creator and Sustainer of all things, infinitely perfect and eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. To Him be all honor, glory, and praise forever!
2. Jesus Christ, the living Word, became flesh through His miraculous conception by the Holy Spirit and His virgin birth. He who is true God became true man united in one Person forever. He died on the cross a sacrifice for our sins according to the Scriptures. On the third day He arose bodily from the dead, ascended into heaven where, at the right hand of the Majesty on High, He now is our High Priest and Mediator.
3. The Holy Spirit has come to glorify Christ and to apply the saving work of Christ to our hearts. He convicts us of sin and draws us to the Savior, indwelling our hearts. He gives new life to us, empowers and imparts gifts to us for service. He instructs and guides us into all truth, and seals us for the day of redemption.
4. Being estranged from God and condemned by our sinfulness, our salvation is wholly dependent upon the work of God's free grace. God credits His righteousness to those who put their faith in Christ alone for their salvation, and thereby justifies them in His sight. Only such as are born of the Holy Spirit and receive Jesus Christ become children of God and heirs of eternal life.
5. The true Church is composed of all persons who through saving faith in Jesus Christ and the sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit are united together in the body of Christ. The Church finds her visible, yet imperfect, expression in local congregations where the Word of God is preached in its purity and the sacraments are administered in their integrity, where scriptural discipline is practiced, and where loving fellowship is maintained. For her perfecting she awaits the return of her Lord.
6. Jesus Christ will come again to the earth personally, visibly, and bodily—to judge the living and the dead, and to consummate history and the eternal plan of God. “Even so, come, Lord Jesus.” (Rev. 22:20)
7. The Lord Jesus Christ commands all believers to proclaim the gospel throughout the world and to make disciples of all nations. Obedience to the Great Commission requires total commitment to “Him who loved us and gave Himself for us.” He calls us to a life of self-denying love and service. “For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them.” (Ephesians 2:10)

The Essentials are set forth in greater detail in the Westminster Confession of Faith.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT TO “ESSENTIALS OF OUR FAITH”³

The Westminster Confession of Faith is a confessional statement of orthodox Presbyterianism. The Westminster Confession of Faith is our standard of doctrine as found in Scripture. It is a positive statement of the Reformed Faith. The Westminster Confession of Faith constitutes a system of biblical truth that an officer of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church is required to believe, acknowledging that each individual court has the freedom to allow exceptions which do not infringe upon the system of the doctrine in the Westminster Confession of Faith.

“Essentials of Our Faith” is an irenic statement of historic evangelicalism. The purpose of “Essentials of Our Faith” is to define core beliefs of the Christian Faith. It expresses historic Christian beliefs common to all true believers and churches throughout the world. “Essentials of Our Faith” is not intended to be the exclusive test of orthodoxy for ordination. It is not intended to be used as an explicit standard for minimal core beliefs for candidates, ordination or ministerial examinations. It is not to be construed as a substitute for the Westminster Confession of Faith.

Both the Westminster Confession of Faith and “Essentials of Our Faith” are important documents in the Evangelical Presbyterian Church. The Westminster Confession of Faith and “Essentials of Our Faith” are not alternative statements of truth, nor are they competitive statements of truth. They each serve important and harmonious purposes within the Evangelical Presbyterian Church. The Westminster Confession of Faith preserves our commitment to the historic orthodoxy of the Reformed Faith. “Essential of Our Faith” preserves our commitment to historic evangelicalism.

BOOK OF GOVERNMENT

*Ratified by the 34th General Assembly (2014)*⁴

CHAPTER 1

THE CHURCH DEFINED

- 1-1 The true Universal Church is described by the two terms, invisible and visible.
- 1-2 The Invisible Church “consists of all the elect who have been, are, or ever will be gathered into one under Christ, the head.”⁵
- 1-3 The Visible Church is the Church on earth established by Jesus, its Lord, for the gathering and perfecting of His saints, and to fulfill His mission of reconciling the world to Himself.⁶
- A. This visible Kingdom of God is one and the same in all ages. The Visible Church is “not confined to one nation, as previously under the Mosaic Law. It consists of everyone in the world who professes [true faith in Christ] together with their children.”⁷
- B. The Visible Church is not defined by, nor limited to, particular forms of government or denominational structures. While such divisions may more or less obscure the true Church in its visible form, nevertheless, such uniformity is not essential to its existence. The Visible Church, though more or less divided and obscured, is bound together in its essential unity where the Word is rightly proclaimed, where the sacraments are properly observed, where scriptural discipline is practiced, and where loving fellowship is maintained.⁸ Such groups who demonstrate this fundamental integrity of the Church shall be recognized as true parts of the Church, the Body of the Lord Jesus Christ on earth.

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE CHURCH

2-1 The government of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church shall be Presbyterian inform.

This is government by Teaching Elders⁹ and Ruling Elders meeting in representative assemblies called Church Courts.

- A. These Church Courts, in their ascending order, are the Session, the Presbytery, and the General Assembly.¹⁰
- B. Churches may also elect Deacons,¹¹ but the Board of Deacons is not a Church Court.¹²

2-2 While this Presbyterian form of government is biblical, it is not essential to the existence of the true Church. However, the order of the Visible Church is best established where the Presbyterian form of government is practiced.

2-3 The governing units of the Church are distinct from the civil government. Their jurisdiction is spiritual and moral with no civil jurisdiction or power to inflict civil penalties. Church government is established for the purpose of exercising spiritual discipline and giving proper order to the Church. In the exercise of its jurisdiction, the Church has one unchanging limitation. For the Christian, the Scriptures are the ultimate rule of faith and practice. Thus, the Church may create no laws that will bind the conscience.¹³

2-4 Review and Control

- A. For orderly process of Review and Control, each organizational unit shall submit its minutes to the Church Court above.¹⁴ The Board of Deacons shall submit its minutes at least semi-annually to the Session; the Session shall submit its minutes to the Presbytery annually; the Presbytery shall submit its minutes to the General Assembly annually.¹⁵
- B. Each court shall review the minutes submitted to it to ensure that the lower body has faithfully and diligently fulfilled all duties and responsibilities assigned to each court. It may refer matters back for reconsideration, call attention to omissions, require amendment of actions out of conformity with the Constitution, or otherwise exercise proper review and control of the lower body.
- C. In judicial proceedings against a lower court, the trial shall be conducted according to the rules provided for judicial proceedings against individuals (see Book of Discipline), as far as they may be applicable.

⁹ The office of Teaching Elder is designated by many titles, such as Bishop, Pastor, Minister, Presbyter, Elder, Ambassador, Evangelist, Preacher, and Teacher, all of which refer to various aspects of the whole ministry

THE AUTHORITY OF THE CHURCH

3-1 The authority given to the Church by Christ is moral and spiritual only, thus distinguishing the government of the Church from civil government. The authority of Church Courts is limited to the expressed provisions of the Constitution and is exercised in its Church Courts, not by individuals. The authority given to the Church is for the purpose of proclamation, administration, and enforcement¹⁶ of the commands of Jesus Christ as revealed in Scripture. Exercise of this authority must always be in conformity with the Scripture.

3-2 The Responsibility of Order

Christ's law of love¹⁷ is incumbent upon each Christian, but shall be discharged by officers as an official duty as they serve, proclaim, and minister in the name of Christ as under-shepherds. The officers' Responsibility of Order includes especially the sharing of the gospel, reproving the erring, visiting the sick, and otherwise exhibiting to the world the fruit of the Spirit.

3-3 The Authority of Jurisdiction

The Authority of Jurisdiction is the authority to rule and is exercised jointly in ascending Church Courts.¹⁸ The Authority of Jurisdiction is always to be exercised in accordance with Scripture, the Confession and Catechisms, and the Book of Order. Specific authority and responsibilities of the Church Courts are enumerated in chapters 18, 19, and 20.¹⁹ The exercise of such authority shall always reflect the essential unity of the Church.

3-4 The responsibilities and authority given to the Church by Jesus Christ are not ends in themselves, but are given to edify God's people, to promote the faith of the Church, and to evangelize the whole world to the end that all might know Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.²⁰

THE LOCAL CHURCH

4-1 Local churches consist of all those professing Christians who, along with their children, covenant to live out their faith together by worshiping and serving the Lord in their words and deeds, submitting themselves to the government and discipline of the Church, and promising to promote its unity, purity, and peace.²¹

4-2 It is the privilege and primary responsibility of the local church to worship God regularly.²²

Out of the experience of worship, the church renews her faith and clarifies her understanding of obedient service to God.

4-3 It is the primary mission of the local church to evangelize, making disciples by extending the gospel both at home and abroad, leading others to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, providing for the nurture of that faith that all might worship the true God and grow in grace and in sanctification.²³ It is to be remembered that good deeds in ministry and service to others, offering relief to those in need, is the fruit of the gospel. Without the clear evidence of such fruit, all else is brought into question. However, the Church must never confuse²⁴ its primary mission of evangelism (the gospel) with the fruit of faith (good works).

4-4 Principal responsibilities of the local church

A. To promote true religion in the home

The spiritual nurture, instruction, and training of the children of the church are committed by God primarily to their parents.²⁵ They are responsible to the church for the faithful discharge of their obligations.²⁶ The home and the church should also make special provision for instructing the children in the Bible and in the Church Catechisms.²⁷ The church should maintain constant and sympathetic relations with the children. It also should encourage them, on coming to years of discretion, to make confession of the Lord Jesus Christ and to enter upon all privileges of full church membership. If they are way ward, they should be cherished by the church and every means used to reclaim them.

B. To provide for the nurture of its members

To promote the welfare of the whole Church, to provide the sacraments, to teach the faith, to observe special days, including times of prayer and fasting, and to otherwise further its common life together as hereafter set forth in the Book of Worship.

CHAPTER 5

THE CONSTITUTION, ESTABLISHMENT, DISSOLUTION, DISMISSAL, OR RECEPTION OF A LOCAL CHURCH

- 5-1 Presbytery has the exclusive ecclesiastical right to constitute mission churches, establish, dissolve, or dismiss local churches, or to receive local churches from some other body.
- 5-2 While a Session has the responsibility and right to initiate missions, mission churches, or extensions of the congregation, but not to constitute or establish congregations, they should always do this in consultation with the presbytery.
- 5-3 A mission group is the first stage in the development of a mission church. A mission group may be initiated by a Church Court or by groups from outside the denomination recognized by a presbytery. Mission groups fall under the oversight of an appropriate committee or commission of a Church Court.
- 5-4 A mission church is constituted by the presbytery and is distinguished from a local church in that it has no permanent governing body and must be governed or supervised by others as defined below. Its goal is to be established as a local church as soon as this can be done in good order. Mission churches enjoy the same status as local churches in relation to civil government.

A. Governance

Presbytery shall provide for governance of mission churches in one of the following ways:

1. Presbytery may appoint an Evangelist²⁸ or a Commissioned Pastor.²⁹
2. A session may serve as a temporary governing body of the mission church.
3. A presbytery or a session may appoint an administrative commission³⁰ to serve as a temporary governing body of the mission church.

B. Membership

1. Receiving members.

The temporary governing body³¹ shall receive members into the mission church as prescribed in chapter 8. Mission churches shall maintain membership rolls in the same manner as, but separate from, other local churches.

2. Discipline.

Members of mission churches are entitled and subject to the benefits of discipline as described in the Book of Discipline.

C. Minutes

The temporary governing body of the mission church³² shall record and submit its minutes to the Presbytery for review in the same manner as a local church.³³

³¹ G.5-4A

³² G.5-4A

³³ G.2-4B; G.18-2B.2

5-5 Establishing a mission church as a local church

- A. A petition to be established as a local church signed by members of the mission church shall be presented to the presbytery to initiate its establishment. The Petition represents a covenant among those desiring to be charter members of the established local church indicating their willingness and commitment, in reliance upon God, to walk together as a local church, based on the faith and government of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, to be faithful to one another, to the Lordship of Christ, to the support of the whole Church, to be obedient to the order and doctrines of our faith, submitting themselves to the government and discipline of the Church, and promising to promote its purity and peace.
- B. The Presbytery may establish a local church directly or through an administrative commission formed for that purpose³⁴ following the guidelines in manuals developed by the General Assembly and/or the Presbytery.

5-6 The reception of a local church from another body or from independency

- A. When a non-EPC congregation desires to become a part of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, it shall petition the Presbytery in which it is located to be received (see exception in G.5-8). Such petition should indicate that the congregation and its governing body have concurred in the request, and have agreed to walk together as a church, based upon the faith and government of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, to be faithful to one another, to the Lordship of Christ, to the support of the whole Church, to be obedient to the order and doctrines of our faith, submitting themselves to the government and discipline of the Church, and promising to promote its purity and peace.³⁵
- B. The Petition shall include a list of the membership and a list of elected officers. Upon approval of the request, either the Presbytery or a duly appointed commission shall meet with the petitioning congregation and, depending on the particular situation:
 - 1. Arrange for the election of Ruling Elders.³⁶
 - 2. Require and arrange for training of existing officers.³⁷
 - 3. If the congregation is from a body with a similar form of government, declare the officers of that congregation to be duly installed.
- C. If the petitioning congregation is served by a Pastor(s) and if said Pastor(s) has been duly received by the Presbytery,³⁸ the receiving body may declare the Pastor(s) duly installed.

5-7 Transfer of an EPC church to another presbytery

Only in the case where: 1) a local church desires to call a woman Teaching Elder, or 2) the Session of a local church desires to endorse or has endorsed a woman who seeks to become a Candidate Under Care, and the local church is located in a Presbytery that by a majority vote refuses to receive or ordain a woman as a Teaching Elder or as a Candidate Under Care, that local church may petition for membership in a Presbytery sharing a common boundary (i.e., a bordering Presbytery) that will receive or ordain a woman as a Teaching Elder or Candidate Under Care. The local church petitioning for membership in a bordering Presbytery will be transferred to the requested Presbytery upon the fulfillment of all of the following requirements:

³⁵ (Deleted)

³⁶ G.10-10

³⁸ G.12-3

- A. The Session of the local church seeking transfer petitions its current geographic Presbytery for permission to petition the bordering Presbytery for membership, setting forth as reasons either the prohibition of the ordination and/or the reception of women as Teaching Elders or as Candidates Under Care.
- B. The bordering Presbytery petitioned by the Session of the local church seeking transfer receives the local church pending “C” below.
- C. The current geographic Presbytery of the local church seeking transfer approves the dismissal of the local church to the bordering Presbytery.
- D. No complaint against the above process of transfer may be made by any person or entity except for procedural defects. Any complaint of procedural defects must be made in writing to the next higher court within 15 days of the completion of the above G.5-7 requirements and set forth the details of the procedural defects in accordance with Book of Discipline, chapter 13.

5-8 Reception of a church from outside the EPC into a bordering presbytery

If a church that is not a member of the EPC and is seeking membership in the EPC, and it is the case that it: (1) has a woman Teaching Elder, (2) desires to call a woman Teaching Elder, or (3) has a woman who seeks to become a Candidate Under Care, then that church may petition for membership in a Presbytery sharing a common boundary (i.e., a bordering Presbytery) that will receive or ordain women as Teaching Elders or as Candidates Under Care instead of its geographic Presbytery. The church petitioning for membership in a bordering Presbytery may be received by the requested bordering Presbytery instead of its geographic Presbytery upon the fulfillment of all of the following requirements:

- A. The church requesting reception in a bordering Presbytery consults with the Presbytery Ministerial Committee of its geographic Presbytery concerning the potential for reception of women as Teaching Elders or as Candidates Under Care.
- B. The Ministerial Committee of the geographic Presbytery for the church requesting reception into the EPC discerns the need for the church to be received by a bordering Presbytery on the basis set forth in this section G.5-7. The Ministerial Committee of the geographic Presbytery contacts the requested bordering Presbytery and refers to it the issue of reception of the church.
- C. The bordering Presbytery that receives the referral receives the church seeking membership.
- D. No complaint against the above process of reception by a bordering Presbytery may be made by any person or entity except for procedural defects. Any complaint of procedural defects must be made in writing to the next higher court within 15 days of the completion of the above G.5-8 requirements and set forth the details of the procedural defects in accordance with Book of Discipline, chapter 13.

5-9 The dissolution of a local church or mission church

When a congregation ceases to exist or is dissolved by Presbytery, the property, both real and personal, that may remain shall be delivered, transferred, and conveyed to the Presbytery by those holding title. The disposition of the remaining property shall be at the discretion of the Presbytery. However, in no case shall Presbytery dissolve a local church which can be reasonably deemed viable. This paragraph shall not be construed to constitute a trust or implied trust of any church property enforceable by the Presbytery (see also G.25-2C).³⁹ The Presbytery shall hold the membership of any remaining members until such time as the individual members request transfer to another Christian church, following the stipulations of G.8-4.

5-10 The dismissal of a local church to another body or to independence

- A. The Church Session shall notify the Presbytery of its desire to be dismissed. Once a Church Session has notified Presbytery of its desire under this section, Presbytery shall take no action to dismiss, dissolve or divide the local church and its elders until all proceedings under this section 5-10 are fully completed. This provision shall not be construed to prohibit the Presbytery from reasonable means of access to the Session or church members in order to present its position. Nor shall this provision be construed to prohibit the presbytery from taking action under the Book of Discipline on matters unrelated to the request for dismissal.
- B. At a duly called meeting of the congregation, with representatives from the Presbytery present and having the privilege of the floor, the motion to request dismissal shall be put and discussed. The meeting shall recess for no less than three months and no more than six months, to a date determined at the meeting.
- C. At the time set, the congregation shall reconvene, with representatives from the Presbytery present and having the privilege of the floor, and the request to dismiss shall again be put to the congregation and the floor opened for discussion. The congregation shall then vote on the motion by written ballot. If it passes by a two-thirds majority,⁴⁰ the Presbytery shall dismiss the congregation as requested with all of its property and assets. Those not desiring to participate in the dismissal shall notify the Presbytery which will assign them to other congregations of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church.
- D. If a request for dismissal fails to achieve the required two-thirds majority,⁴¹ the process of dismissal (G.5-10) may not be repeated until at least 12 months have elapsed following the vote.

CHAPTER 6

RIGHTS RESERVED TO A LOCAL CHURCH

- 6-1 The rights and privileges enumerated below are irrevocably reserved to a local church and its members.⁴²
- 6-2 The local church has the right to elect its own officers.
- 6-3 The local church has the right to determine how many officers it will have, whether or not a system of rotation will be used, and the length of terms if rotation is chosen, subject to the limitations in G.9-15.
- 6-4 The local church has the right to determine whether or not it shall have a Board of Deacons.
- 6-5 The local church has ownership of its own property. It may buy, sell, lease, rent or otherwise determine the use of its property. It may incur debt and other legal obligations. However, care should be exercised that the good name and the reputation of the Church not be harmed through unwise and imprudent management.
- 6-6 The local church has the right to call its own pastor(s), provided the Presbytery concurs by receiving such pastor(s) into its membership.
- 6-7 The local church has the right to withdraw from the Evangelical Presbyterian Church with its property following the process described in G.5-10 and in accord with applicable constitutional and civil law.
- 6-8 The local church has the right to elect Trustees from within its membership who have demonstrated a consistent Christian life.
- A. Trustees shall have the power, upon authorization from the local church, to buy, sell, and mortgage real property, accept and execute deeds, to hold and defend titles to the same, and to assume other such related duties as may be assigned to them.
 - B. The responsibilities of the Trustees shall not infringe upon the duties or powers of the Church Session or the Board of Deacons, and their authority is always subject to the instruction of the local church.
 - C. All personal property is under the authority of the Session. If the local church does not elect a Board of Trustees, the responsibilities above are retained by the Session.
 - D. If a local church does not elect Trustees (or if Deacons have not been given the responsibility of property), the Session, or a designated portion of the Court, shall serve as the Trustees of the local church.
- 6-9 When a mission church or local church is legally incorporated, its Articles of Incorporation shall be consistent with the Constitution of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church in establishing its Charter and By-laws.

CHAPTER 7

MEETINGS OF A CONGREGATION

7-1 Calling a meeting

The Session may call a congregational meeting when deemed necessary. Also, when at least one fifth of the active membership shall request a meeting in writing, the Session shall do so without delay. Further, the Session shall call a meeting when instructed to do so by the Presbytery.

7-2 Notice of meeting

At least two Sundays notice shall be given. The meeting may be conducted on the same day the second notice is given. The purpose of the meeting must be stated in the call.

7-3 Agenda of meeting

Only those matters stated in the call may be presented and handled.

7-4 Moderator of meeting

- A. Ordinarily, the Pastor will be the Moderator.
- B. In the case of sickness or temporary absence of the Pastor or if it is deemed impractical or unwise by the Session for the Pastor to moderate a congregational meeting, the Session shall either:
 - 1. Appoint one of its members, with the concurrence of the Pastor, to call the meeting to order and to preside, or
 - 2. Request the Moderator of the Presbytery to appoint another Teaching Elder from outside the congregation to call the meeting to order and to preside.

7-5 Quorum

For congregations of less than 100 members, a quorum shall be one-fifth of the active membership. For congregations larger than 100, a quorum shall be one-tenth of the membership, but not less than 20.

7-6 Clerk for the meeting

- A. Ordinarily the Clerk of the Session shall serve as Clerk for the congregational meetings.
- B. In the absence of the Clerk, the Moderator shall appoint a temporary Clerk.
- C. The Clerk shall keep a permanent record⁴³ of the proceedings and business transacted. After approval by the Moderator of the meeting, the record shall be transmitted to the Church Session for insertion in the minutes of that body.

7-7 Eligibility to vote

Those persons who are active members of the congregation as determined by the Session⁴⁴ and who are present at the meeting are eligible to vote. The Moderator of the congregational meeting may not vote.

⁴³ Minutes on pre-numbered pages in a bound book, which are the property of the church, satisfy the requirement for a "permanent record"

⁴⁴ G.8-3

7-8 Majority vote

Unless stipulated otherwise, any majority vote specified in this Book of Government means a majority of those present and voting.

7-9 Tie votes

When a matter has been put to the congregation and the vote results in a tie, the Moderator shall put the question a second time. If there is still a tie, the matter shall be declared defeated.

7-10 Robert's Rules of Order shall be the standard in parliamentary procedure unless stipulated otherwise in a church's bylaws.

CHAPTER 8

THE AUTHORITY OF THE SESSION OVER CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

8-1 Authority to receive members

The Session of a local church shall be responsible for receiving, dismissing, retiring to the inactive roll or otherwise determining membership in the local church.

8-2 Receiving members

- A. The Session should provide a suitable course of instruction in faith, worship, and the mission of the Church, as well as instruction for participating in the governing and decision-making life of the congregation.
- B. The person(s) seeking membership shall meet with the Session and indicate their readiness.
- C. The Session shall satisfy itself that each applicant for membership demonstrates evidence of true commitment to Jesus Christ as Lord and determination to live as becomes a follower of Christ. It is appropriate for the Session to ask for testimonials of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and a sharing of one's growth in faith.
- D. The Session may not deny membership for any reason not related to profession of faith and obedience.
- E. If not previously baptized, each applicant shall be baptized in accordance with the Book of Worship.⁴⁵
- F. The Session shall seek to notify in writing the churches to which individuals formerly belonged of their reception into active membership.

8-3 Membership rolls

A. Baptized Roll

- 1. This roll shall include the names of those infants and children baptized in the local church, and the names of those baptized children of confirmed members received from other churches.
- 2. Those on the baptized roll are members of the covenant by right of birth and adoption. As such, they are entitled to pastoral oversight, instruction, nurture, and should be encouraged to embrace Jesus as Lord and Savior. Their rights and privileges under the Covenant of Grace should be frequently and fully explained, and they should be warned of the sin and danger of neglecting their covenant obligations. All those baptized are entitled to this pastoral care even though they are adults and have not made a profession of faith in Christ.
- 3. The Session shall remove a person from the baptized roll upon enrolling that person as a confirmed member (G.8-3B.1) or upon receiving credible information that the person has become a member of another church.

B. Active Roll

- 1. This roll includes confirmed members, that is, those who have been baptized, made a public profession of faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, have had their membership confirmed

⁴⁵ W.3-2

- by the Session, and are entitled to participate in the governing of the Church by voting in meetings of the congregation.⁴⁶ Only this Active Roll shall be reported to Presbytery for membership purposes.
2. Persons may be received into active membership in the following manner:
 - a. By profession of faith

Ordinarily the person(s) being received on profession of faith shall make that profession in a public service of worship in the presence of the congregation. If not previously baptized, each person shall be baptized in accordance with the Book of Worship as it deals with adult baptism.⁴⁷ If already on the baptized roll,⁴⁸ the person shall be transferred to the active roll.
 - b. By reaffirmation of faith

Persons who have previously made a profession of faith who apply for active membership may be unable to secure a certificate of membership or may wish to reaffirm their faith.
 - c. By transfer of membership

Persons may be received by a transfer of membership from another Evangelical Presbyterian Church or from some other body recognized as a part of the true Church.⁴⁹ The Session may not deny membership for any reason not related to profession of faith and obedience.
 3. Those being received by profession or reaffirmation of faith shall answer the following or like questions before the Session:
 - a. Do you acknowledge yourselves to be sinners in the sight of God and without hope for your salvation except in His sovereign mercy?
 - b. Do you believe in the Lord Jesus Christ as the Son of God and the Savior of sinners, and do you receive and depend upon Him alone for your salvation as He is offered in the gospel?
 - c. Do you now promise and resolve, in humble reliance upon the grace of the Holy Spirit, that you will endeavor to live as becomes the followers of Christ?
 - d. Do you promise to serve Christ in His Church by supporting and participating with this congregation in its service of God and its ministry to others to the best of your ability?
 - e. Do you submit yourself to the government and discipline of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church and to the spiritual oversight of this Church Session, and do you promise to promote the unity, purity, and peace of the Church?
 4. Persons coming from bodies other than the Evangelical Presbyterian Church shall be asked the following questions:
 - a. Do you promise to serve Christ in His Church by supporting and participating in this congregation in its service of God and its ministry to others to the best of your ability?

⁴⁶ See Book of Worship 3-3I and Act of Assembly 93-08 (p. 183) for provisions for Session admitting a child to the Lord's Table prior to being placed on the Active Roll and participation in the governance of the church

⁴⁷ W.3-2

⁴⁸ G.8-3A

⁴⁹ See G.1-3B

- b. Do you submit yourself to the government and discipline of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, and to the spiritual oversight of this Church Session, and promise to further the unity, purity, and peace of the Church?
5. The Session shall announce to the congregation the names of those received into active membership and commend them to the congregation for their Christian confidence and affection.⁵⁰

C. Affiliate Roll

1. This roll shall include those believers temporarily residing in locations other than their permanent homes. Such believers may be received as affiliate members of a local church without ceasing to be members of their home churches.
2. An affiliate member shall have all the rights and privileges of the Church, with the exception of voting in a congregational or corporate meeting, and holding an elected office in the Church. The procedure for receiving affiliate members shall be the same as that for receiving members by transfer of membership. An affiliate membership is effective for one year and is renewable.

D. Inactive Roll

1. This roll shall include those who have failed to actively participate in the life of the local church for a period of one year (or six months in the case of changing residence) and have been moved by the Session to this roll.
2. To place a person on the inactive roll not only reflects on the commitments made to Christ by that individual, but it may also reflect on the failure of the Session to be diligent in its pastoral duties. For that reason, certain requirements are placed on the Session before it may place a person on inactive status.
 - a. The Session must earnestly seek to discover the causes of the failure to participate and seek to encourage the person to resume active involvement in the life of the congregation.
 - b. When a member changes residence so that it is no longer possible or practical to participate actively in the life of the local church, the Session shall encourage that person to establish a relationship to a church where participation is possible. After six months, the Session may then move that person's name to the inactive roll. In any event, the Session should notify a church in the area of the member's residence and suggest that pastoral oversight be given.
 - c. A person placed on the inactive roll may be restored to the active roll upon request to the Session and when the individual has resumed active participation in the life of the church. The Session shall satisfy itself of the intention of renewed commitment.
 - d. If a person remains on the inactive roll for a period of at least one year and has not resumed active participation in the life of the church despite the diligent efforts of the Session in its pastoral duties, that individual may be removed from membership of the local church upon written notification from the Session.
 - e. If a member of the Session or Deacon Board is placed on the inactive roll that active officer relationship is automatically dissolved. This fact shall be reported to the congregation by the Session.
 - f. Members on the inactive roll remain under the government and discipline of the Session.

⁵⁰ A suggested service for receiving members will be incorporated in the Manual of Services, currently under development

8-4 Dismissing Members

- A. The request of any member in good standing to be dismissed to any church considered to be part of the true Church must be honored.
- B. Letters of dismissal are always to the governing body of another church.
- C. The request of an inactive member to be dismissed to any church considered to be a part of the true Church must be honored; but the dismissal shall note the inactive status.
- D. The request of any member, active or inactive, for a certificate of membership with the view to establishing an affiliate membership in another congregation shall be honored, provided the body with which application is made is considered to be a part of the true Church. The person requesting such an affiliate membership shall be maintained on the roll where currently inscribed.
- E. The Session, upon notification from a presbytery, shall remove the name of any member who has been ordained to the ministry from its rolls and record in its minutes the removal due to ordination.

8-5 Review of rolls

The Session shall review its four rolls⁵¹ annually, ordinarily at a meeting in February. It shall review its ministry to those on each roll, giving special care to examine its ministry to those on the baptized roll, and its continuing efforts to restore to active participation those on the inactive roll.

8-6 Record of rolls

The Clerk of Session shall record all deaths, births, adoptions, baptisms, marriages, reception of members, transfers to the inactive roll, dismissals, and other records required regarding members.

⁵¹ G.8-3

CHAPTER 9

OFFICERS OF THE CHURCH

9-1 Offices

The Lord of the Church, Jesus Christ, has given three offices to the Church. These are: Teaching Elders, Ruling Elders, and Deacons. In higher courts, Teaching and Ruling Elders are also known as Presbyters or Commissioners and share in the governing of the Church. These offices are not indications of special pre-eminence by those who hold them, but rather indicate a call to service, to ministry, to special discipleship, and the evidencing of the fruit of the Spirit in every part of life.

9-2 Ordination of women

The Evangelical Presbyterian Church believes that the issue of the ordination of women is not an essential of the faith. Since people of good faith who equally love the Lord and hold to the infallibility of Scripture differ on this issue, and since uniformity of view and practice is not essential to the existence of the visible church, the Evangelical Presbyterian Church has chosen to leave this decision to the Spirit-guided consciences of local churches concerning the ordination of women as Ruling Elders and Deacons, and to the presbyteries concerning the ordination of women as Teaching Elders.

9-3 Life and character of officers

- A. According to Scripture, those who bear office in the Church should exhibit certain characteristics of life. This includes being above reproach, sound in the faith, wise in the things of God, and discreet in all things. Persons who fill this office should exhibit a lifestyle that is an example to all, both in and outside the Church. A congregation preparing to elect persons to this holy office should carefully study appropriate passages of Scripture relating to the Ruling Elder and be very prayerful in selecting persons to this office.⁵²
- B. As the law of love places certain duties upon each Christian, Church Officers are especially bound by their calling to fulfill them and to be an example to all.

9-4 Qualifications of officers

- A. Those that fill these offices should be mature in the faith, should be people of wisdom and discretion, and should have adequate training to equip them for their calling. Elders, especially those called to the office of Teaching Elder, should have an aptitude for teaching.⁵³
- B. A local church should prayerfully search the Scriptures and choose for officers those who are best qualified.

9-5 The office of Teaching Elder

Within the office of Teaching Elder there are a variety of callings that require ordination. God distributes to each gifts according to the common needs of the Church. These include:

- A. Pastor
 - 1. Titles

⁵² Examples are 1 Timothy 3:1-7; Titus 1:5-9

⁵³ 1 Timothy 5:17

A Teaching Elder may be called by a congregation to be a Pastor or Associate Pastor. Sessions may call a Teaching Elder as Assistant Pastor, Transitional Pastor, or invite a Teaching Elder as Stated Supply Pastor, or Occasional Supply Pastor. Presbytery must approve all such positions. These are the only recognized callings for Teaching Elders in a congregational setting.⁵⁴ The office of the “co-pastor” is not a constitutionally recognized calling in a local church. Except as otherwise provided in the Book of Government, the Pastor of the church shall be the Moderator of Session.

2. Authority and Responsibilities.

Pastors shall preach and expound the Word, to be God’s prophet to the people and to be the people’s priest before God.⁵⁵ Pastors shall lead the people in worship, celebrate the sacraments, and oversee the education, nurture, and mission of the church. The Pastors with the Ruling Elders shall exercise joint ministry to the needs of the flock and to all those who have need of a Pastor’s care, love, and compassion. With the active Ruling Elders, the Pastor and Associate Pastor(s) shall exercise the joint responsibility of jurisdiction.⁵⁶ Teaching Elders shall be diligent to serve actively in the courts of which they are members.

B. Teacher

A Teaching Elder may be called to teach in an institution deemed appropriate by presbytery that has as a primary purpose the preparation of people for ministry or entrance into seminary. Such calling shall ordinarily include the responsibility for preaching the Word and administration of the Sacraments. As a Teacher, the Teaching Elder is also to serve as a pastor, caring for the spiritual wellbeing of others.

C. Evangelist

A Teaching Elder may be called by a court of the church or by some organization approved by the Presbytery to serve as an Evangelist. Evangelists may serve as missionaries, church planters, or in an itinerant ministry.

1. An Evangelist serving as missionary has as a primary duty the preaching of the gospel. The Presbytery may authorize the Teaching Elder to administer the sacraments in that role. When a Teaching Elder is called by the General Assembly as an Evangelist⁵⁷ the Presbytery may also empower the Evangelist to ordain and install Ruling Elders and Deacons to serve in emerging national churches that are not part of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church in accordance with applicable rules and regulations established by the General Assembly.
2. An Evangelist serving as church planter may be entrusted by the calling court to develop churches, to conduct preparational meetings of such churches, and to oversee the required preparation of Elders and Deacons.
3. An Evangelist serving in an itinerant ministry. Teaching Elders may be called to serve in a ministry of itinerant evangelism that does not involve churchplanting.
4. Those powers given to the Evangelist, including the power to receive and dismiss members, shall be specified by the Presbytery in writing.

D. Administrator

A court of the Church or one of its agencies may call a Teaching Elder to serve in some administrative capacity. An organization deemed proper by the Presbytery may also issue a

⁵⁴ While it is common practice for local churches to use titles such as “Senior Pastor” or “Executive Pastor,” these titles are not constitutionally recognized

⁵⁵ “Prophet” highlights the Pastor’s special responsibility to proclaim the truth and call God’s people to commitment to His will as revealed in the Scripture. “Priest” highlights the Pastor’s special responsibility to pray for the needs of the congregation and regularly administer the means of grace through the ministry of the Word and Sacraments similar call. In such cases, it is always the responsibility of the Administrator to seek opportunity to preach the Word and administer the Sacraments.

⁵⁶ G.3-3; G.18-1; G.19-2

⁵⁷ Ordinarily this would be an EPC World Outreach worker

E. Chaplain

A court of the Church, a hospital, the military, institutions, universities, or other appropriate fields of service may call a Teaching Elder as Chaplain if the Presbytery deems it appropriate. In such cases, the Chaplain shall always have as a primary responsibility the sharing of the Good News of God in Jesus Christ. The Presbytery may authorize the Chaplain to administer the sacraments in that role.

9-6 Teaching Elders serving outside of presbytery bounds

- A. Whenever a Teaching Elder is called to one of the positions provided for under G.9-5 by an agency that is outside the jurisdiction of a court of the Church and after being fully satisfied that the ministry is consistent with the calling to the ministry of the Word, the Presbytery may grant permission for the Minister to labor outside of its jurisdictional bounds for a term of up to three years. After the expiration of that time Minister must receive further Presbytery approval to continue. The Teaching Elder shall make an annual report to the Presbytery of faithfulness to the gospel. The Teaching Elder serving out of bounds shall be diligent to serve actively in the Court. If the particular call prohibits such service, the Teaching Elder should seek Associate Member status.⁵⁸
- B. In the event that the outside of bounds ministry falls within the geographic boundaries of a Presbytery in which the Teaching Elder is not a member, the Teaching Elder shall seek the advice and obtain the approval of both Presbyteries.

9-7 The life of the Teaching Elder

According to Scripture, those who bear the office of Teaching Elder should be mature believers, led by the Holy Spirit, who exhibit a manner of life that conforms to the biblical description of an officer in Christ's Church.⁵⁹

9-8 The office of Ruling Elder

In the Old Testament, the office of Elder was established for the oversight of the Church. In the New Testament, this office is continued. Those who fill this office today for governing the Church are called Ruling Elders. Chosen by the people of a local church,⁶⁰ these Ruling Elders are to watch over the spiritual welfare of that congregation. When appointed to participate in Presbytery or General Assembly, they shall watch over the spiritual welfare and participate diligently in the workings of that portion of the Church to which they are commissioned, recognizing that the Evangelical Presbyterian Church is a connectional church. The Ruling Elder shares authority with the Teaching Elder in all of the courts of the Church, in both rights and duties. It is the first duty of the Ruling Elder to represent the mind of Christ, as that person understands it, in the various courts of the Church.

9-9 The life of the Ruling Elder

According to Scripture, those who bear the office of Ruling Elder should be mature believers, led by the Holy Spirit, who exhibit a manner of life that conforms to the biblical description of an officer in Christ's Church.⁶¹

9-10 The Ruling Elder and the Responsibility of Order

The authority to govern is exercised jointly by church courts in ascending gradation. Each Ruling Elder, by virtue of ordination, individually exercises the responsibility of order.

- A. Ruling Elders should study and learn the Word. They should become equipped to teach the Word, lead worship and prayer, and may be invited or commissioned to supply the ministry of the Word where none is available.⁶²
- B. Ruling Elders, as Undershepherds,⁶³ should visit the sick, the bereaved, the lonely, the aged, the shut-in, and all those who have a pastoral need. In cases where there is a special need, the Ruling Elder shall be careful to inform the Pastor.
- C. Ruling Elders have a special responsibility to see to the development of the children of the congregation, to inquire after the inactive members, to encourage new members in spiritual development, and to otherwise show care for those whom they serve.
- D. Ruling Elders should be attentive to themselves and church members, guarding against dangers to the faith and to dangers to the moral life of believers. They are also responsible to warn, admonish, and reclaim those who stray. Where it is deemed necessary, such situations should be brought to the attention of the Session for appropriate action in accordance with the Book of Discipline.

9-11 The Ruling Elder as a Commissioned Pastor

A Ruling Elder may be temporarily authorized by Presbytery as a Commissioned Pastor for a congregation without a Pastor to preach the Word, evangelize, moderate a Session, administer the sacraments, perform marriages (if civil law allows), preside at funerals, and provide pastoral care. Presbyteries may also approve and give appropriate powers to a Ruling Elder to serve as a Commissioned Pastor in mission churches, church planting and church revitalization works, or in chaplaincy positions in hospitals, hospices, prisons, or other institutions.

- A. Authorization shall be for a term up to three years and may be renewed. Such authorization shall specify those powers granted and shall stipulate in which church(es) or ministry contexts those powers are authorized. Such powers shall be exercised only in those contexts.
- B. Potential Commissioned Pastors shall be examined by Presbytery and found to have sufficient knowledge in the areas in which they will be serving.
- C. A Ruling Elder previously commissioned as a lay pastor by another Reformed body may become a Commissioned Pastor as deemed appropriate by the Presbytery and subject to the same requirements of the EPC Commissioned Pastor.⁶⁴
- D. Presbytery shall assign a Teaching Elder to each Commissioned Pastor as supervisor to act as mentor and to assist the Commissioned Pastor in writing an annual report to Presbytery.
- E. Presbytery may terminate the authorization to serve as a Commissioned Pastor at any time prior to the expiration of the commission.
- F. Upon authorization of a Commissioned Pastor, Presbytery shall administer the vows of commissioning below either immediately or through an administrative commission at a designated time.
 1. Do you now reaffirm the vows you took upon your ordination as a Ruling Elder and do you recommit yourself to them in the discharge of your obligations as a Commissioned Pastor?

⁶² 1 Timothy 3:2; G.9-11

2. Do you promise to be zealous and faithful in promoting the truths of the gospel and the purity and peace of the Church, whatever persecution or opposition may arise to you on that account?
3. Will you seek to be faithful and diligent in the exercise of all your duties as Commissioned Pastor whether personal or relative, private or public; and to endeavor by the grace of God to adorn the profession of the gospel in your manner of life, and to walk with exemplary piety before this congregation of which God will make you an officer?
4. Are you now willing to take responsibility in the life of this congregation/in this ministry as a Commissioned Pastor, and will you seek to discharge your duties relying upon the grace of God, in such a way that the entire Church of Jesus Christ will be blessed?

9-12 The office of Deacon

The office of Deacon as set forth in Scripture is one of compassion, concern for needs, and of serving others. Therefore, the first duty of the Deacon is sympathy and service. Historically, to this office has been given the duty of being the Church's instrument for the ministry of compassion.⁶⁵

9-13 The life of the Deacon

According to Scripture, those who bear the office of Deacon should be mature believers, led by the Holy Spirit, who exhibit a manner of life that conforms to the biblical description of an officer in Christ's Church.⁶⁶

9-14 The responsibilities of the Deacon

Since the Board of Deacons is not a court of the Church,⁶⁷ and since it is under the authority of the Session,⁶⁸ the Session may assign special duties appropriate to that office. Such duties may include the care, maintenance, and preparation of the church and its facilities.

9-15 Term of service of Ruling Elders and Deacons

While ordination is for life, active service on a church Session or Board of Deacons may be for a specified term. A local church, at a duly constituted congregational meeting,⁶⁹ may elect to establish limited terms of service for either or both Ruling Elders and Deacons. If so, the following stipulations apply:

- A. Terms shall be for no less than three years except to initiate the system or to fill vacancies.
- B. There must be at least three classes; and an officer who has served all or part of two consecutive full terms shall be ineligible for reelection for one year.

9-16 Ruling Elders not currently serving on the Session

Ruling Elders who are not in a current term of service on the Session may be elected by the Session to be a commissioner to the Presbytery or General Assembly. The person so elected shall report to the Session immediately following the meeting of the higher Court.

9-17 Recognizing the ordination of Elders and Deacons from other congregations

A Session may recognize the ordination of a person being received by transfer from another EPC or Reformed congregation. Such recognition gives the person the status of an officer not currently serving on the Session or Board of Deacons. The Session should assure itself by adequate training and examination that such a person affirms the vows of office within the EPC. Under no circumstances should the Session recognize the ordination of a person who has been removed from office.

CALLING TO OFFICE

- 10-1 It is God through the Holy Spirit who calls persons to office in the Church. This calling to office consists of three parts: first, the inward call to individuals where they bear testimony of that calling; second, the call of a local church, Church Court, or other appropriate agency to them to fill that office; third, the approval by an appropriate court of the Church.
- 10-2 The right of calling may never be taken away or conditioned for non-Scriptural reasons. This right is inalienable and may not be changed. At the same time, a Church Court also has the inalienable right not to approve an individual for reasons the Court determines to be proper and in keeping with Scripture.
- 10-3 Calling must always be to a specific task. A local church must call a Ruling Elder or Deacon from within its membership to office in that church. A Teaching Elder must be called by a local church, Church Court, or some specific agency to a particular task deemed appropriate by the ordaining, installing, or approving Presbytery. Retired Teaching Elders may be received from other Reformed denominations as Associate Members without a call.⁷⁰
- 10-4 The call of a Pastor by a local church
- When a local church desires to call a Pastor, the procedure shall be as follows
- A. The Session shall call a congregational meeting⁷¹ for the purpose of electing a Search Committee. The Session may nominate a Search Committee to the congregation, although the floor must also be opened for other nominations. The congregation shall proceed to determine how many persons are to serve and to select them.
 - B. The Search Committee shall carry on its work in regular consultation with the Ministerial Committee of the Presbytery.
 - C. Upon agreeing on a person, they feel led of God to nominate, the Search Committee shall secure the consent of the Ministerial Committee. Should that Committee decline to consent, the Search Committee may persist with the nomination, recognizing the Presbytery has the right to reject the call.⁷²
 - D. Ordinarily, an Associate Pastor is not eligible to succeed the Pastor. However, should a Search Committee desire to consider an Associate Pastor as Pastor, approval by a three-fourths vote of Session and a three-fourths vote of the Ministerial Committee shall be required for the Search Committee to proceed.
 - E. A person serving as Assistant Pastor on the same church staff at the time the pastor position becomes vacant shall not be called to fill that position in the same church, by any means.
 - F. After consulting with the Ministerial Committee, the Search Committee shall notify the Session in writing of its nominee and the Session shall call a congregational meeting.
 - G. When the congregational meeting has been convened, the Search Committee shall make its report and recommendations to call a Pastor. This recommendation shall include the details for remuneration, including all benefits. The congregation shall conduct a counted vote in a fashion it deems appropriate. A majority favoring the recommendation is required to elect a Pastor. The exact vote must be recorded in the minutes and the person being elected notified of the count. The congregation shall appoint representatives to advocate the call at a meeting of the Presbytery.

- H. The call of the congregation shall always conform with the Acts of the General Assembly and follow the form approved by an appropriate committee of the General Assembly.⁷³

10-5 The call of an Associate Pastor by a local church

A congregation may call an Associate Pastor by means of a Search Committee in the same fashion as indicated above, with the exception that the call of the congregation shall stipulate the primary responsibilities to be exercised by the Associate.⁷⁴

10-6 The call of an Assistant Pastor by a Session⁷⁵

- A. A Session, in consultation with the Ministerial Committee of Presbytery, may call an Assistant Pastor. The call of the Session shall be for a definite period of time and is renewable. The call of an Assistant Pastor may be terminated by the Session prior to that time only with the consent and approval of the Presbytery. The call shall stipulate the primary responsibilities to be exercised by the Assistant. The call of the Session shall always conform with the Acts of the General Assembly and follow the form approved by an appropriate committee of the General Assembly.⁷⁶
- B. A Session, by a three-fourths vote and with the approval of Presbytery's Ministerial Committee, may recommend to the congregation that an Assistant Pastor of the local church be called as an Associate Pastor without a Search Committee being elected. The call as Associate Pastor must be approved by Presbytery and an installation service shall be conducted by the Presbytery or by its appointed Commission.⁷⁷

10-7 Temporary Pastoral Relationships

- A. Temporary Pastoral Relationships may be established with lawfully ordained Ministers or Commissioned Pastors when a church is without a pastor.
1. Transitional Pastor
 - a. A Transitional Pastor is called by the Session to serve during the period a congregation is seeking a Pastor. The Transitional Pastor intentionally leads the congregation toward greater health and readiness for their next pastor and will ordinarily be appointed by the Presbytery to moderate the Session during the time of service.
 - b. Due to the temporary nature of the call, Transitional Pastors called from another Presbytery in the Evangelical Presbyterian Church will ordinarily maintain membership in their home presbytery.
 - c. Upon approval of the Ministerial Committee, Transitional Pastors are introduced to the receiving presbytery and enrolled as corresponding members (voice but not vote).
 - d. If a Transitional Pastor is called from outside the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, the presbytery shall examine and transfer the pastor according to applicable provisions of this Book of Government.

⁷³ See Rules for Assembly section 10 (p. 168) and Act of Assembly 98-03 (p. 190)

⁷⁴ For special conditions under which an Associate Pastor may succeed a pastor, see G.10-4D

⁷⁵ An Assistant Pastor may not succeed a Pastor (see G.10-4E)

⁷⁶ See Rules for Assembly section 10 (p. 168) and Act of Assembly 98-03 (p. 190)

⁷⁷ G.21-1C

2. Stated Supply Pastor
 - a. A Stated Supply Pastor is invited by the Session to serve for a definite period of time, not less than one month and no more than twelve months. The term of service is renewable. Although this invitation is not a call,⁷⁸ the invitation to serve, authority to preach the Word, to administer sacraments, and to moderate Session must be approved by the Presbytery or by the Ministerial Committee, if authorized by the Presbytery.⁷⁹
 - b. Stated Supply Pastors from outside the Evangelical Presbytery Church are invited by the Session and shall be interviewed and approved by Presbytery or the Ministerial Committee, if authorized by the Presbytery.
 3. Occasional Supply Pastor
 - a. An Occasional Supply Pastor is invited to serve regularly on specified days. Only the Ministerial Committee must approve.
- B. Ordinarily, a person currently serving in a temporary pastoral relationship is not eligible to be called as Pastor of that church. Should a Search Committee desire to consider any person who has served in a temporary capacity since the pulpit most recently became vacant, it must secure approval by a three-fourths vote of the Session and a three-fourths vote of the Ministerial Committee in order to proceed.

⁷⁸ When an Associate Member serves in a temporary pastoral relationship, the TE is placed on the active roll (G.19-2B.1c). If retired, the TE remains retired but as an active member has both voice and vote in Presbytery and General Assembly.

⁷⁹ G.21-1C; G.21-2D.2f

10-8 Calls approved by the PresbyteryA. Source of calls

1. From a local church within the geographic bounds of the Presbytery, as modified by the inclusion or exclusion of churches according to the provision of G.5-7 and G.5-8.
2. From a denominational court or agency.
If some court or agency of the denomination issues a call to a Teaching Elder, the calling body shall issue a call that conforms with the Acts of the General Assembly and follows the form approved by an appropriate committee of the General Assembly.⁸¹ The approving Presbytery shall proceed in a similar fashion for approving a call to a local church, except the Commission to install may be omitted.
3. From outside the geographic and/or jurisdictional bounds⁸² of the Presbytery.
A Teaching Elder called by a church or agency outside the bounds of the Presbytery remains under the jurisdiction of the Presbytery.

B. Process for approving calls

1. From within the geographic and jurisdictional bounds of the Presbytery
 - a. Having determined that the person is suitable for the call, that the good of the whole Church shall be served, and that the person being called accepts the call, it shall inform the Minister/Teaching Elder/Candidate of its approval and proceed to place the call in the hands of said person.
 - b. A call may be placed in the hands of a Teaching Elder or Candidate only by the Presbytery in which that person is being called.
 - c. The Presbytery shall appoint a Commission according to the stipulations of G.21-1B.2 to proceed with ordination and/or installation.
 - d. The Teaching Elder is enrolled in the Presbytery upon Presbytery's approval of the examinations and call and upon signing the ministerial obligation (G.19-4B.4).
2. From a church or agency outside the bounds of Presbytery
 - a. If a Teaching Elder desires to accept a call outside the jurisdictional or geographic bounds of the approving Presbytery, the Teaching Elder shall present a call from

⁸⁰ G.21-1C; G.21-2D.2f

⁸¹ See Rules for Assembly section 10 (p. 168) and Act of Assembly 98-03 (p. 190)

⁸² Bounds: specific geographic boundaries as modified by the stipulations of G.5-7 and 5-8 in which the Presbytery has jurisdiction over its member churches and Teaching Elders

Jurisdiction: Churches, agencies, and Teaching Elders over which the Presbytery has immediate oversight that body to the Presbytery, indicating the nature of the work and the terms of the call. If the Presbytery approves the nature of the work as appropriate to the gospel ministry and requiring ordination, it may approve the call for a term of up to three years. After the expiration of that time, the Minister must receive further approval to continue.

- b. If the nature of this call impedes or prevents regular and/or required attendance at Presbytery meetings, the Teaching Elder may be granted the status of Associate Member.⁸³
- c. In the event that the call outside of bounds falls within the geographic boundaries of a Presbytery of which the Teaching Elder is not a member, the Teaching Elder shall obtain the approval of both Presbyteries.

C. Transfer

1. Teaching Elder transferring from another EPC Presbytery or other churchbody

The receiving Presbytery shall not enroll that Teaching Elder without an approved call unless the Minister is retired and being enrolled as an Associate Member.⁸⁴

2. Official communication regarding transfer

The dismissing church body shall be informed by the receiving Presbytery for the purpose of taking appropriate action. The Presbyteries shall deal directly with each other through their Stated Clerks in certifying both the call of the church and the credentials of the Minister, Teaching Elder or Candidate.

10-9 Call Disapproved by Presbytery

In the event a Teaching Elder accepts a call disapproved by Presbytery, that Teaching Elder shall be placed on inactive status.⁸⁵

10-10 The Calling of Ruling Elders and Deacons by a local church

When a local church desires to call Ruling Elders and Deacons, the following procedures shall ordinarily be followed:

- A. The congregation may nominate and elect its Ruling Elders and Deacons by any procedure it desires to establish.
- B. Should a Nominating Committee be used, the congregation will include among those elected to the committee at least two active Elders, one of whom shall be appointed by the Session as chairman. The Session shall call congregational meetings as needed for this purpose.⁸⁶

PREPARATION FOR OFFICE

11-1 Calling to office in the Evangelical Presbyterian Church places certain obligations on an ordinand. Those being ordained to office are required to make certain commitments in terms of faith and order and to give a good testimony of Jesus Christ. For that reason, certain preparations for office are required.

11-2 Preparation for ordained ministry as a Teaching Elder

Since the office of Teaching Elder is seen as the first office in the Church both for dignity and usefulness, special preparation is required.⁸⁷

- A. A person desiring to become a Teaching Elder shall first become a Candidate under the care of the Presbytery of which that person's church is a member. That person begins this process by seeking the endorsement of the Session of the local church where the person's membership has been held for at least six months. When the Session has approved the Candidate, application shall be made to the appropriate Committee of Presbytery.
- B. The Presbytery Committee charged with the oversight of Candidates shall make whatever tests of gifts and abilities, as well as of sincerity of purpose, it deems necessary. If the Candidate is approved, the Committee shall recommend to Presbytery the approval of candidacy.⁸⁸
- C. The Presbytery shall make public examination of the Candidate as to Christian experience and growth, the motive for seeking ordination, by a Presbytery of the EPC, and a statement regarding the person's call to the Ministry. If approved, the Presbytery shall proceed as follows.⁸⁹

The Candidate shall respond affirmatively to the following questions to be put by the Moderator of the Presbytery:

1. As you understand God's working in your heart and life, do you continue to believe yourself called to the office of Teaching Elder?
2. Do you now submit yourself to the care and supervision of this Presbytery as you prepare yourself for this office?
3. Do you renew your commitment as a Christian, in humble reliance upon the grace of the Holy Spirit, to live as becomes a follower of Jesus?

The Moderator, or someone appointed by the Moderator, shall offer a prayer of thanksgiving and a blessing for the Candidate.

A charge shall be given to the Candidate by someone appointed by the Moderator. The Moderator shall then declare the person received as a Candidate; the person's name shall be placed on the Candidate roll of the Presbytery, and welcomed in an appropriate manner.

- D. The Candidate continues to be a member of the local church and subject to the Session. But with regard to the Candidate's training for the ministry, the Candidate is under the oversight of the Presbytery. It is appropriate for the home church of the Candidate to have a service of recognition.

⁸⁷ 1 Timothy 5:17

⁸⁹ G.21-2D.1d

- E. The Presbytery shall assign a Teaching Elder in the Presbytery, ordinarily not the Candidate's Pastor, to serve as advisor to the Candidate. The advisor and the Candidate's Pastor shall submit regular reports to the appropriate committee on the progress of the Candidate.
- F. The Presbytery shall have some Committee to which the oversight of Candidates is assigned.⁹⁰ This Committee shall oversee the training of the Candidate, giving encouragement and pastoral attention, and making an annual report to the Presbytery of the progress of the Candidate.
- G. A Candidate shall pursue a course of study that leads to a Master of Divinity degree from an accredited seminary approved by the Presbytery, and such other standards as may be determined by Acts of the General Assembly. Academic work that is equivalent to a Master of Divinity degree may be completed by those means designed for Candidates under extraordinary status (G.11-2I).⁹¹
- H. Ordinarily, a Candidate must be under care for a minimum of one year prior to ordination. A Candidate, for reasons acceptable to the Presbytery, may request transfer to another Presbytery. The Candidate's membership must also be transferred to an EPC congregation within that Presbytery.
- I. A Presbytery, for reasons it judges adequate, may receive a Candidate under extraordinary circumstances for whom it may waive part or all of the total educational requirements for ordination. This action requires a two-thirds vote by the Presbytery. When such a Candidate is received, it is appropriate to assign courses of independent study or study under some appropriate person.⁹²
- J. A Candidate from another Reformed denomination who has been under care for at least one year in that denomination, has met EPC educational requirements for ordination, and is pursuing a call from an EPC congregation shall be examined in the manner prescribed in G.12-2. Any Candidates from outside the Reformed Tradition follow the procedures of G.11-2.⁹³

11-3 Preparation for Ruling Elders and Deacons

- A. Those who serve well must be prepared for such service, and it is the responsibility of the Session to provide adequate opportunity for those elected to office to prepare themselves for their ministry.
- B. The Session shall make provision for courses of instruction in the following matters: Church government, the Sacraments, the Faith of the Church, the Worship of the Church, the Discipline of the Church, the History of the Church, and an understanding of the office to which one is elected.

EXAMINATION FOR ORDINATION AND/OR INSTALLATION

12-1 Prior to approving a Candidate for ordination as a Teaching Elder or as a Ruling Elder or Deacon, it is important for the ordaining court to assure itself of the competency of the individual being ordained to serve. Therefore, certain examinations should be made.

12-2 The examination of a Candidate for ordination as a Teaching Elder

- A. The Candidate shall present evidence of competency in the original languages of Scripture, including transcripts of coursework taken, along with the required exegesis.⁹⁴
- B. The Candidate shall be examined in Christian experience of the saving grace of God in Jesus Christ and progress in spiritual growth.
- C. The Candidate shall be examined in writing⁹⁵ and orally in the following areas: Theology and Sacraments, English Bible, the Book of Order, the history of the Church and the Reformed tradition, and the nature of the office of Teaching Elder.
- D. The Candidate shall preach a sermon to the Presbytery to demonstrate the ability to expound the Word of God effectively.
- E. If the Presbytery has previously received a Candidate and has not required the stipulated work of college and/or seminary,⁹⁶ the requirements for language shall be omitted.⁹⁷ However, every other part of the examination shall be given. The examination must be approved by a two-thirds majority of the Presbytery.

12-3 Examination of Transferees

- A. Examination of an EPC Teaching Elder seeking to transfer into a Presbytery
EPC Teaching Elders shall be examined on views of the areas indicated in G.12-2 and they shall relate their experience of the saving grace of God in Jesus Christ and progress in spiritual growth.
- B. Examination of non-EPC ordained Ministers
 - 1. Examination of an ordained Minister from another Reformed denomination:⁹⁸
A Minister seeking to become a Teaching Elder in a Presbytery of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church from another denomination from within the Reformed family shall present credentials of education required by those seeking ordination in the EPC. The Minister shall be examined on views and beliefs and may be examined on knowledge.⁹⁹

2. Examination of Ministers from non-Reformed Traditions:

A minister presenting current and valid ordination credentials from any other ecclesiastical tradition shall be examined in the same manner as a candidate for ordination.¹⁰¹

- C. Presbytery shall not ordinarily receive a Minister seeking to transfer while discipline, inquiry, or charges are pending. Presbytery may, after careful review of the case, by three-fourths vote, declare pending charges insufficient for refusal of membership.

12-4 Exceptions to the Westminster Confession and Catechisms

The Candidate or transferring Teaching Elder shall provide a written statement of any exceptions to the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms of this Church, and the Presbytery shall act to allow or disallow the exceptions. The Presbytery shall not allow any exception to the “Essentials of Our Faith.” Following ordination, should the Teaching Elder develop exceptions to the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, he or she shall report those exceptions to the Ministerial Committee and the Presbytery shall act to allow or disallow these exceptions.¹⁰²

12-5 Persons lacking current ordination credentials previously ordained in another Reformed denomination with a pending call in the EPC, but who, for reasons other than disciplinary action, lack current ordination credentials, shall be examined by the Presbytery on views of those subjects set forth for ordination.¹⁰³ Those persons shall, upon approval, become immediately eligible for ordination and to receive a call approved by the Presbytery.12-6 The examination of a Candidate for Ruling Elder or Deacon

The Session shall confer with each person elected to office in the local church to determine if that person feels called to office and is willing to serve faithfully. The Session shall examine candidates for ordination to the office of Ruling Elder or Deacon on 1) personal experience of the saving grace of God in Jesus Christ and progress in spiritual growth, 2) theology and Sacraments of the Church, 3) the government, discipline, worship, and history of the Church, and 4) an understanding of the office to which one is elected.

12-7 The examination of a previously ordained Ruling Elder or Deacon

- A. Those previously ordained into the office to which one has been called shall be examined by the Session on views of those subjects set forth for ordination.¹⁰⁴ Each shall also give testimony of the personal experience of the saving grace of God in Jesus Christ and progress in spiritual growth.
- B. Those ordained to corresponding offices in other Reformed denominations shall be examined by the Session as one being ordained.¹⁰⁵ Upon successful examination, previous ordination shall be recognized. The act of ordination shall not be repeated.

THE ORDINATION AND/OR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

13-1 The Ordination and Installation of Teaching Elders, Ruling Elders, and Deacons¹⁰⁶

A. Teaching Elders

1. Ordinarily, the ordaining/installing Presbytery will appoint an administrative commission¹⁰⁷ to conduct a worship service at a date and time approved by the Court. A sermon suitable to the occasion shall be preached. The person presiding shall recount the conditions necessary for ordination and/or installation, the solemnity of the event, and its importance in the life of the Church.
2. Presbyteries may also directly ordain a Teaching Elder.

B. Ruling Elders and Deacons

Ordinarily, the Session will ordain Ruling Elders and Deacons at a regular or special service of worship. The person presiding, normally the Moderator of Session,¹⁰⁸ shall recount the conditions necessary for ordination and/or installation, the solemnity of the event, and its importance in the life of the Church.

13-2 Administration of vows and questions

A. Ordination vows

The person presiding shall administer the following ordination vows for those being ordained and for those coming into the Evangelical Presbyterian Church from some other denomination:

1. Do you reaffirm your faith in Jesus Christ as your own personal Lord and Savior?
2. Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, totally trustworthy, fully inspired by the Holy Spirit, the supreme, final, and the only infallible rule of faith and practice?
3. Do you sincerely receive and adopt the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Catechisms of this Church, as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures?
4. Do you promise that if at any time you find yourself out of accord with the system of doctrine as taught in the Scriptures and as contained in the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Catechisms of this Church you will, on your own initiative, make known to your Presbytery the change which has taken place in your views since the assumption of this ordination vow?
5. Do you affirm and adopt the “Essentials of Our Faith” without exception?
6. Do you subscribe to the government and discipline of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church?
7. Do you promise subjection to your fellow Presbyters in the Lord?¹⁰⁹

¹⁰⁶ A Handbook of Procedures, Service, and Forms, is currently under development

¹⁰⁷ G.21-1C

¹⁰⁸ G.18-2A

¹⁰⁹ For Deacons, the vow is “Do you promise subjection to your fellow Church Officers in the Lord?” (G.13-7B)

8. Have you been induced, as far as you know your own heart, to seek the office of the holy Ministry from love to God and a sincere desire to promote His glory in the gospel of His Son?
9. Do you promise to be zealous and faithful in promoting the truths of the gospel and the purity and peace of the Church, whatever persecution or opposition may arise unto you on that account?

B. Installation vows:

The person presiding shall administer the following installation vows for those being installed to office in an EPC congregation:

1. Will you seek to be faithful and diligent in the exercise of all your duties as a Christian and a Teaching Elder/Ruling Elder/Deacon, whether personal, or interpersonal, private or public; and to endeavor by the grace of God to adorn the profession of the gospel in your manner of life, and to walk with exemplary piety before the congregation of which God is making you overseer?
2. Are you now willing to accept the call of this church as Pastor/Associate Pastor/Ruling Elder/Deacon, and, relying upon God for strength, promise to discharge to it the duties required of that office?¹¹⁰

C. Questions to the congregation

When the person being ordained has responded affirmatively to these vows, the person presiding shall address the following questions to the congregation:

1. Are you, the members of this congregation ready to receive _____ as your (name of office to which the person is being ordained/installed)?
2. Do you promise to submit to _____ in matters of spiritual discipline, and to receive with humility and love the word of truth?
3. Do you promise to support _____ (name) with your prayers, to give encouragement and assistance in every way as _____ (name) seeks to instruct you in the things of the Lord and to lead you in the building of the Kingdom of God in this place?
4. Do you commit yourselves to fulfill the terms of the call you have extended and to make provision for _____ (name) needs that the name of Christ might be glorified?

13-3 The Act of Ordination

- A. Following the congregation's affirmation, those being ordained shall kneel and members of the ordaining court or Commission shall lay hands on the Ordinand(s).
- B. An appropriate prayer shall be offered and the Ordinand(s) shall thereby be set apart to the office of Teaching Elder/Ruling Elder/Deacon.
- C. The presiding person shall state: "By the authority of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church and the Presbytery of _____, I declare that _____ has been ordained to the office of (Teaching Elder/Ruling Elder/Deacon), and that he/she has been duly and properly installed as (Pastor/Associate Pastor/Assistant Pastor/Ruling Elder/Deacon) of this congregation, in accord with the Word of God and the laws of this Church. As such _____ (name) is entitled to be given support, encouragement, honor,

¹¹⁰ In the case of an Assistant Pastor, the phrase "Are you now willing to accept the call of the Session as Assistant Pastor..." is appropriate and obedience in the Lord. In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.”

- D. It is appropriate that a charge be given to the Ordinand(s) and to the congregation suitable for the occasion. Following the installation, it is appropriate that the members of the congregation or the Officers and their representatives demonstrate their reception of and commitment to the Ordinand(s) by coming forward and giving an appropriate greeting.
- E. The event shall be recorded in the minutes of the Commission (if appointed) and the ordaining/installing Court.

13-4 The installation of a Teaching Elder previously ordained in the Evangelical Presbyterian Church

A Teaching Elder previously ordained in the Evangelical Presbyterian Church shall be installed as the Pastor, Associate Pastor, or Assistant Pastor of a local church in the manner prescribed in G.13-1 and G.13-2 with the following exceptions:

- A. In place of the vows of ordination¹¹¹ the person presiding shall ask:
Do you now reaffirm the vows you took upon your ordination and do you recommit yourself to them in the discharge of your obligations?
- B. The person presiding shall then administer the vows of installation as prescribed in G.13-2B.
- C. The laying on of hands for ordination shall be omitted.
- D. The person presiding shall ask the questions to the congregation as prescribed in G.13-2C.

13-5 Ordination and/or installation of a Pastor in more than one congregation

When a Pastor is called to a multiple field, it is appropriate that the procedures for ordination and/or installation be conducted in each congregation, or a joint service may be held.

13-6 Ordination and installation of a Teaching Elder in a call outside an EPC congregation

- A. In the event a Teaching Elder is being ordained with a call approved by Presbytery that is outside an EPC congregation, agency, or church court,¹¹² the ordaining court may ordain the Teaching Elder directly or appoint an Administrative Commission to conduct the ordination.
- B. Following the vows for ordination prescribed in G.13-2A, the person presiding shall ask:
 1. Are you willing to take charge of the work to which you have been called, agreeable to your declaration when accepting the call?
 2. And do you, relying upon God for strength, promise to discharge it to the duties you have accepted?”
- C. The ordaining commission or court shall proceed with the act of ordination prescribed in G.13-3 as appropriate for the setting.

13-7 The ordination and installation of Ruling Elders and Deacons

- A. The person presiding shall administer the vows prescribed in G.13-2A for the affirmation of those being ordained and installed and for those who have been ordained previously in some other denomination and are being installed.

¹¹² G.10-8B.2

- B. For Deacons, the seventh vow of ordination (G.13-2A) shall be:
“Do you promise subjection to your fellow Church Officers in the Lord?”
- C. The person presiding shall then proceed with the vows of installation, the questions to the congregation, and the act of ordination prescribed in G.13-2B, G.13-2C, and G.13-3.

13-8 The installation of previously ordained Ruling Elders and Deacons

- A. The procedure for installing a Ruling Elder or Deacon who has been previously ordained will be the same as that for ordination except that the following question shall be substituted for vows 1 through 9 (G.13-2A):
“Do you now reaffirm the vows you took upon your ordination and do you recommit yourself to them in the discharge of your obligations?”
- B. The person presiding shall then administer the vows of installation as prescribed in G.13-2B.
- C. The laying on of hands for ordination shall be omitted.
- D. The person presiding shall ask the questions to the congregation as prescribed in G.13-2C.

CHAPTER 14
THE DISSOLUTION OF AN OFFICER'S RELATIONSHIP /
REMOVAL TO INACTIVE STATUS /
REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

14-1 The dissolution of a pastoral relationship

A. Authority to dissolve a pastoral relationship

Presbytery has the sole authority to dissolve a pastoral relationship. The Presbytery may authorize the Ministerial Committee to dissolve pastoral relationships and dismiss Ministers when both the congregation and the Pastor/Associate Pastor concur in the dissolution.¹¹³

B. Initiative to dissolve a pastoral relationship

Either the Teaching Elder or a Session may initiate a request for dissolution of the pastoral relationship. Either party shall first consult with the Ministerial Committee before making a request to the congregation. A congregational meeting shall be duly called¹¹⁴ and the congregation requested to concur with the Pastor/Associate Pastor or the Session in the request for dissolution of the pastoral relationship.

C. When a party declines to concur in dissolving a pastoral relationship

When any party declines to concur in the dissolution of a pastoral relation, the congregation shall appoint representatives to Presbytery to explain its action. The Presbytery, or an Administrative Commission appointed for this purpose, having consulted with the Pastor and duly appointed representatives, shall then be the sole judge of whether or not to dissolve the relationship.

D. Dissolution by reason of age

When a Teaching Elder serving in any capacity in the Church reaches the age of 70, that relationship shall be terminated. The Teaching Elder is obligated to notify the Presbytery six months prior to the 70th birthday.

1. Annual renewal of the pastoral relationship or call after age 70.

The Teaching Elder who is age 70 or older is eligible, at his or her initiative, to be reelected annually in the same relationship with the approval of the calling body, the Session, and the Presbytery. When such a call is renewed, no installation is necessary.

2. Receiving a new call past age 70.

Presbytery, on recommendation of the Ministerial Committee, by a 2/3 vote, may approve a new call for the Teaching Elder who is age 70 or older. That Teaching Elder is eligible to be re-elected in this new relationship yearly with the approval of the calling body and Presbytery.

3. Serving in temporary pastoral relationships after age 70.

A Teaching Elder who is past age 70 is eligible to serve in a temporary pastoral relationship¹¹⁵ for a period of up to one year as approved by the Presbytery. The

¹¹⁴ G.7

¹¹⁵ G.10-7

Presbytery may authorize the Ministerial Committee to serve as an Administrative Commission to establish such relationships.¹¹⁶

14-2 Dissolution of a Ruling Elder or Deacon relationship

A. At the officer's initiative.

A Ruling Elder or Deacon may have valid reasons for requesting that active service on a Session or Board of Deacons be dissolved. Should the Session concur after careful consideration, it may dissolve the active relationship and its action shall be reported to the congregation.

B. Other conditions under which the relationship shall be dissolved:

1. When the officer is placed on the inactive roll.
2. When membership is placed with another congregation of the EPC or with a non-EPC congregation.
3. When membership in or jurisdiction of the local church is renounced.
4. When the Ruling Elder or Deacon is elected to the office of Ruling Elder Emeritus or Deacon Emeritus. This shall be accomplished when, due to disability, age, or other sufficient cause, the Session, at a meeting of the congregation, is led to nominate the officer to the position of Emeritus. To be elected an officer Emeritus is a high honor and should not be bestowed indiscriminately.
5. When the officer is divested of office by due process according to the Book of Discipline.
6. When the active relationship is dissolved by an action of the Presbytery when the Presbytery deems it advisable for the welfare of the Church.

14-3 Removal of an officer to inactive membership status

A. Inactive Membership Status

When an officer is placed on inactive membership status, all rights and privileges granted by ordination are temporarily set aside, including the right to vote and participate in the meetings of the Church Courts.

B. Special provisions for removing Teaching Elders to Inactive Membership Status

1. Removal at the Teaching Elder's initiative
 - a. When a Teaching Elder accepts a call disapproved by Presbytery, Presbytery shall place the Teaching Elder on inactive status.¹¹⁷
 - b. A Teaching Elder may, for reasons deemed valid by the Presbytery, request to¹¹⁸ be placed on Inactive Membership Status. If the Presbytery concurs, the Teaching Elder shall be placed on such status. After at least one year, the Teaching Elder may request Presbytery to be restored to Active Membership Status. The Presbytery, after careful deliberation, may do so provided the Teaching Elder has a valid call that Presbytery approves, or provided the Teaching Elder is being transferred to another Presbytery in order to receive a call.

2. Removal at the Presbytery's initiative

When the Teaching Elder who is not retired has been without approved call for a period of one year, the Ministerial Committee shall confer with the Teaching Elder as to the Teaching Elder's continued sense of call and expectations for future ministry. The Committee will then recommend to the Presbytery whether the Teaching Elder should remain on Active Membership Status in the Presbytery or be placed on Inactive Membership Status. The Presbytery, at its discretion and after judicious consideration, may place the Minister on the Inactive Status Roll involuntarily provided the vote to do so is by a two-thirds majority.

3. Limit for Inactive Status

A limit of 5 years shall be placed on the time during which a Teaching Elder on Inactive Status who is not retired shall remain on the rolls of Presbytery. After five years, the Presbytery has the right to remove that minister from office without sanction.¹¹⁹

14-4 Removal from office

An officer of the church remains ordained to the office and remains obligated to fulfill the vows of ordination. However, there are certain conditions under which the officer may be removed:

- A. By judicial process as set forth in the Book of Discipline
- B. By removal from office without sanction

Presbytery may remove a Teaching Elder from office without judicial process (without sanction) for the following reasons:

1. The Teaching Elder no longer senses a call to ministry and requests removal from office.
2. The Teaching Elder, who does not meet the criteria for retirement,¹²⁰ exhibits compelling evidence of inability to serve the Church over a reasonable period of time.
3. The Teaching Elder has failed to inform Presbytery of a new residence or place of ministry and the Presbytery, after diligent effort, is unable to obtain current contact information after one year.
4. The Teaching Elder has been on the inactive roll for at least 5 years.¹²¹

C. By renouncing jurisdiction of the Church

Renunciation of jurisdiction shall have the effect of removing the officer from membership and ordained office in the Evangelical Presbyterian Church and terminating that person's exercise of office. Notice of renunciation shall be given in writing to the Clerk of the appropriate court and becomes effective upon receipt of the notice. In the event an individual orally renounces jurisdiction, this fact shall be confirmed by letter from the court acknowledging that renunciation. The letter shall be delivered in person or by form of mail requiring a written receipt. If the court receives no written response within ten days, the acknowledgement of renunciation of jurisdiction shall be deemed final.

RETIREMENT OF TEACHING ELDERS

15-1 The retirement of a Teaching Elder

A. Eligibility for retirement

A Teaching Elder may request to be placed on the Retired Roll of Presbytery due to age, infirmity, or other debilitating condition.

B. Recognition of retirement

If the Presbytery concurs, a service of appreciation and thanksgiving should be conducted, either at the meeting of Presbytery or at the place of service of the retiring Teaching Elder. Ordinarily, a Presbytery shall appoint a special commission to conduct this service¹²² and a record of it inserted in the minutes of the Presbytery.

C. Pastoral care of retired Teaching Elders

The Presbytery shall be responsible for making an annual review of its retired members to be sure of their welfare and to rectify any deficiencies. Such annual review shall be reported to the court and recorded in its minutes.

D. Upon reaching age 70

When a Teaching Elder reaches age 70, special conditions apply as prescribed in G.14-1D.

15-2 Status of Retired Teaching Elders

A. Active Status

A Teaching Elder who is retired according to the provision of G.15-1 remains on the active rolls of Presbytery. Membership may be transferred to another Presbytery.

B. Inactive Retired Status

A Retired Teaching Elder, who does not participate in the life of the Presbytery by attending at least one Stated Meeting during a calendar year, may be placed on Inactive Status¹²³ at the discretion of the Presbytery. After at least one year, the Retired Teaching Elder may request Presbytery to be restored to Active Status. The Presbytery shall make the determination based on the Teaching Elder's participation in the meetings of the Presbytery and need not require a specific call to be restored to Active Status. A Retired Teaching Elder on Inactive Status shall not be removed from the Presbytery rolls for that cause and is to be afforded the same pastoral care as Retired Teaching Elders on Active Status.

C. Associate Member Status

A retired Teaching Elder may be granted the status of Associate Member as defined in G.19-2B.1. A retired Minister may be received from another Presbytery or another Reformed denomination as an Associate Member.

15-3 Pastor Emeritus

When any Teaching Elder shall terminate a pastorate because of age or incapacity, and the congregation is moved by affection and gratitude to continue an association in an honorary relationship, it may, at a regularly called congregational meeting, elect the Teaching Elder as Pastor Emeritus, with or without honorarium, but with no pastoral authority or duty. This action shall be taken only after consultation with the Ministerial Committee of the Presbytery concerning the wisdom of this relationship for the peace of the church. This action will be subject to the approval of the Presbytery and shall take effect upon the approval of the Presbytery.

¹²³ G.14-3

CHAPTER 16

THE ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE OF THE CHURCH

16-1 Authority and responsibilities of the courts and their officers

Each court of the Church and its officers shall have certain authority for the efficient dispatch of its business and for the exercise of its responsibilities.

- A. The Moderator of a court has the necessary authority to keep order, to expedite business, to convene recess and adjourn meetings in conformity with rules of the court. In an emergency, with due notification to members of the court, the Moderator, in consultation with the Clerk of that court, may change the date, time and place of the meeting of the court. The Moderator is responsible for assuring that each meeting is opened and closed with prayer.
- B. A court has authority to bear witness against error or doctrine that is contrary to Christian faith, both in and out of the Church.
- C. A court has authority to establish rules for its own governance as long as they are in conformity with Scripture, the Constitution of the Church and the acts of the Church Courts.
- D. A court may apply discipline to its members or those under its charge in keeping with the regulations established in the Book of Discipline.
- E. A court or agency of the Church may issue calls to persons to serve in various capacities assigned to that court or agency. Such calls shall always be for a specific period of time not to exceed three years. Such calls shall ordinarily be renewable.
- F. A court has authority to organize itself to implement the responsibilities delivered to it in keeping with the provisions of the Constitution.

16-2 Jurisdiction of the organizational units and Courts of the Church

Each organizational unit of the Church has a definite sphere of authority.

- A. The Congregation has the particular rights reserved to it as defined in G.6.
- B. The Board of Deacons¹²⁴ shall have that area of responsibility hereafter assigned to it, or assigned by the Session. The authority of the Board of Deacons is limited to the designated portion of the worship and ministry of a local church.
- C. The Session¹²⁵ has jurisdiction over all that belongs to the worship and ministry of a local church except for those limitations prescribed in W.2-7B.
- D. The Presbytery¹²⁶ has jurisdiction over all that belongs to the worship and ministry of a group of churches within designated bounds.
- E. The General Assembly¹²⁷ has jurisdiction over all that belongs to the worship and ministry of the whole Church.

¹²⁴ See chapter 17

¹²⁵ See chapter 18

¹²⁶ See chapter 19

¹²⁷ See chapter 20

16-3 Jurisdictional relationships of organizational units

Because all courts of the Church have a mutual connection with one another, the act of each court should be considered representative of the whole Church. Therefore, no one court is separate and distinct from all the other courts. This mutuality and connection finds expression in the right of review and control in the ascending order of the courts. Actions and decisions of one court may be appealed to higher courts.¹²⁸

D. Authority and Responsibilities

1. Interpretations of the Book of Order

Questions concerning interpretation of the Book of Order coming to the General Assembly shall be referred by the Stated Clerk. The Stated Clerk may issue a provisional opinion that is binding until acted upon by the next General Assembly. The Stated Clerk, with the concurrence of the Permanent Judicial Commission, may assign these duties to a Chief Constitutional Officer.

The Permanent Judicial Commission, acting as a committee:

- a. Shall review all referrals and shall recommend to the Assembly its interpretation, along with reasons. The Assembly shall act as it deems wise.
- b. Shall review all provisional opinions and shall recommend to the Assembly that they be sustained, not sustained, or amended, along with reasons.

2. Amendments to the Constitution

- a. All proposals requesting amendment to the Constitution shall be communicated in writing to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly no later than 60 days¹⁸² prior to the convening of the next session of the General Assembly. The Stated Clerk shall refer all such proposed amendments to the Permanent Judicial Commission, which shall examine the proposed amendment for clarity and consistency of language and for compatibility with other provisions of the Constitution of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church.

¹⁸⁰ See also Rules for Assembly 10.1. J (p. 170)

* The approval of temporary pastoral relationships is limited to the authority provided for in G.10-7 (Footnote approved by the 37th General Assembly)

¹⁸¹ Amended ratified by the 35th General Assembly (2015) giving the Permanent Judicial Commission discretion to appoint a clerk from outside of its own membership

¹⁸² The provision for 60 days was ratified by the 33rd General Assembly (2013); if the end of the timeline falls on a weekend or holiday, the timeline shall be extended to midnight of the next business day following that weekend or holiday (see Act of Assembly 14-04, p. 179)

- b. The Permanent Judicial Commission shall report its findings to the General Assembly along with its recommendations, which may include an amended version of any proposed constitutional changes as well as advice to accept or decline the proposals referred to the Commission. The General Assembly shall not consider any amendment until there has been a report from the Permanent Judicial Commission.

3. Cases referred to the General Assembly in accordance with the Book of Discipline

- a. The Permanent Judicial Commission shall make a preliminary judgment to the General Assembly. That judgment shall be binding on parties involved until the General Assembly has sustained or rejected the recommendation of the Commission. Any dissenting opinion in the Commission shall be communicated in writing with the preliminary judgment to the General Assembly.
- b. In voting on the preliminary judgment, questions for clarification will be entertained; but the merits of the case are non-debatable. Without amendment, the General Assembly shall vote to sustain or not to sustain the judgment of the Commission, in which case the vote is final and becomes the decision of the General Assembly. If the judgment of the Permanent Judicial Commission is not sustained, the General Assembly shall determine whether the case shall be remanded to the Commission or committed to a new Judicial Commission.¹⁸³

4. Recommendations to the General Assembly

The Permanent Judicial Commission shall have the authority to make recommendations of its own to the General Assembly concerning wording, changes, amendments, additions, or other matters relating to the Constitution of the Church.

- 5. The Commission may appoint a Hearing Officer or Committee from its members to hear appeals under Chapter 13 or complaints under Chapter 14 of the Book of Discipline. The General Assembly Stated Clerk or his designee may serve as a resource person in any such proceeding. After any such hearing, the Hearing Officer / Committee will report his/its findings, with recommendations, if any, to the Commission, which will take whatever action it deems appropriate in accord with the provisions of Chapter 13, Chapter 14 of the Book of Discipline and/or Chapter 21-3 of the Book of Government.¹⁸⁴

REFERENCES TO A HIGHER COURT

- 22-1 A reference is a written representation and application made by a lower court to a higher court for advice or other action on a matter pending before the lower court, and is ordinarily to be made to the next higher court.
- 22-2 Among proper subjects for reference are matters that are new, delicate, or difficult; or on which the members of the lower court are very seriously divided; or which relate to questions involving the Constitution¹⁸⁵ and legal procedures respecting which the lower court feels the need of guidance.
- 22-3 In making a reference, the lower court may ask for advice only or for final disposition of the matter referred; and in particular, it may refer a judicial case with request for its trial and decision by the higher court.
- 22-4 A reference may be presented to the higher court by one or more representatives appointed by the lower court for this purpose. It should be accompanied with so much of the record as shall be necessary for proper understanding and consideration of the matter referred.
- A. In the case of a reference from the Session, the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery may, if necessary, issue a provisional opinion that is binding until acted upon by the next stated or called meeting of the Presbytery.
- B. In any cases of discipline or remediation, those cases shall be concluded under the version of the Book of Order in effect when the case originated.
- C. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above,¹⁸⁶ no higher Court that accepts a reference from a lower Court may render a decision that conflicts with any other provision of the Constitution of the EPC.¹⁸⁷
- 22-5 Although references are sometimes proper, in general it is better that every court should discharge the duty assigned it under the law of the Church.
- 22-6 A higher court is not required to accede to the request of the lower, but it should ordinarily give advice when so requested.
- 22-7 When a court makes a reference, it ought to have all the testimony and other documents duly prepared, produced and in perfect readiness so that the higher court may be able to fully consider and handle the case with as little difficulty or delay as possible.

¹⁸⁶ "Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above" means that even if something is written that is opposite in meaning to the provision, the provision will still apply

CHAPTER 23

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION AND CONFSSIONAL DOCUMENTS

- 23-1 Herein are set forth the procedures whereby the Constitution (Book of Government, Book of Discipline, Book of Worship, and the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms) may be amended.¹⁸⁸
- A. After approval by the General Assembly, in accordance with G.21-3D.2, the recommended change shall be sent to the Presbyteries
 - B. No changes may be made to the Book of Order including any of its parts composed of the Book of Government, the Book of Discipline, and the Book of Worship that would be contrary to the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms.
 - C. Approval by three-fourths of the Presbyteries is required.¹⁸⁹
 - D. Ratification by the subsequent General Assembly is required. If, however, by the subsequent General Assembly, an insufficient number of Presbyteries has voted, the General Assembly shall urge those Presbyteries to vote. If by the second Assembly following original enactment, an insufficient number of Presbyteries has approved the amendment, it shall be declared lost.
- 23-2 This provision for amending the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms may be amended only by the same method prescribed for changes to the Constitution and confessional documents.

¹⁸⁸ Amendments to the Constitution may be initiated by overture from a lower court (G.18-3L, G.19-4C.2), or by other means as permitted by the Rules for Assembly

¹⁸⁹ For explanation of presbytery voting in a year in which a presbytery has been established, see Act of Assembly 11-01 (p. 179)

CHAPTER 24

UNION WITH ANOTHER DENOMINATION OR ECCLESIASTICAL BODY

- 24-1 Union with another denomination. Union with another ecclesiastical body is possible under the terms set forth below.¹⁹⁰
- A. After approval by a vote of the General Assembly, the recommendation for union shall be sent to the Presbyteries.
 - B. Approval by three-fourths of the Presbyteries is required.
 - C. Ratification by the next General Assembly is required.
 - D. This provision can be amended only by the same method it prescribes for union.
- 24-2 Local churches of this Church may unite to form union churches with one or more local churches of other Reformed bodies, with the approval of the Presbytery. Presbyteries of this Church may act in concert with comparable judicatories of other Reformed bodies to organize union churches, or to reorganize a local church to become a union church. Such union churches shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 24-2 and 24-3 as applicable.
- 24-3 The following Plan of Union shall be adopted by the union church so formed:
- A. The following Plan of Union is adopted by the _____ Presbyterian Church of _____ and the _____ Church of _____, effective as of the date when each of the congregations has approved the plan by a two-thirds majority of those present at a regularly called congregational meeting with such notice and quorum as is required by the Constitution of each Church, and when the Presbytery (Classis) of jurisdiction of each Church has approved the particular union and this Plan of Union.
 - B. The purpose of this union is to provide for the worship of Almighty God and instruction in the Christian religion by a united congregation which will share the property, real and personal, of the uniting churches and provide for the services of a Minister or Ministers for the united church.
 - C. The united church shall be known as the _____ Church of _____.
 - D. The united church shall be subject to the Constitution of each Church involved as set forth in Sections 24-3R, 24-3S, 24-3U, and 24-3V.
 - E. The Session (Consistory) shall submit its records annually and whenever requested, to each judicatory of jurisdiction.
 - F. The membership of the united church shall consist of those who were members of the uniting churches, plus those received by the Session (Consistory) of the united church.
 - G. The Session (Consistory) of the united church shall report an equal share of the total membership to each judicatory of jurisdiction, and such membership shall be published in the Minutes (Acts and Proceedings) of the General Assembly, with a note to the effect that the report is that of a union church, and with an indication of the total actual membership. A similar report of church school members, baptisms, etc., and financial expenditures shall be made by the Session (Consistory) and noted by each General Assembly in its minutes.

- H. Initially the officers of the united church, Elders and Deacons, shall be those officers in active service of the uniting churches, who will undertake to perform their ordination responsibilities under the Constitution of each Church, as indicated in Sections 24-3D and 24-3R, 24-3S, 24-3U, and 24-3V
- I. At the first annual meeting subsequent to the effective date of the union, new classes of officers, to replace the officers noted in Section 24-2.H, shall be elected by the united congregation according to the constitutional procedure in force as a consequence of Section 24-3V.
- J. The pastoral relations of the Ministers of the uniting churches shall be dissolved automatically by the action of the Presbytery (Classis) of jurisdiction in approving this plan, but they may be eligible to be Ministers (Pastors or Associate Pastors) of the united church according to the approval of the Presbyteries (both the Classis and the Presbytery).
- K. The Minister or Ministers of the united church shall be full and responsible members of each judicatory of immediate jurisdiction and shall be subject to discipline as provided in Section 24-3S.
- L. The united church shall cause a corporation to be formed under the appropriate laws of the state, where permissible. That corporation shall include in its articles or charter the substance of Sections 24-3B, 24-3C, and 24-3D.
- M. All property of the uniting churches, real and personal, shall be transferred to the corporation formed in Section 24-3L. The new corporation shall be the legal successor of the corporations, if any, of the uniting churches, and it shall be bound to administer any trust property or monies received in accordance with the provisions of the original establishment of the trust. All liabilities of the uniting churches shall be liabilities of the united church. In any state where a church corporation is forbidden, the purposes of this paragraph shall be achieved in harmony with the law of that state.
- N. Trustees of the corporation (or the unincorporated body) shall be elected in harmony with civil law according to the constitutional provisions outlined in Section 24-3D, as interpreted by Section 24-3V.
- O. While recognizing the basic right of all givers to designate the cause or causes to which their own gifts shall go, the Session (Consistory) of the united church shall annually propose to the congregation a general mission or benevolence program which shall be divided equitably among the officially approved causes of each denomination. The proportions shall be as the Session (Consistory) shall decide in response to the requests of the higher judicatories.
- P. Per capita apportionments or assessments shall be paid to each Presbytery (Classis) of jurisdiction on the basis of the total confirmed (communicant) membership of the union church, equally divided among the denominations involved.
- Q. All members of the united church shall be under the discipline of the Session (Consistory) according to rules agreed upon in harmony with the Constitution of each denomination where they coincide, and in harmony with the mandatory provisions of the Constitution of one denomination where the others are permissive, and at the choice of the Session (Consistory) where they may be contradictory.
- R. Appeals or complaints against the actions of the Session (Consistory) shall be made to one judicatory only (Presbytery or Classis) at the choice of the members and all subsequent appeals or complaints shall be in the courts of the members' original choice, and decisions so finally made shall be binding on the Session (Consistory) and on themember.
- S. The Minister or Ministers shall be subject to the discipline of the Presbyteries (the Presbytery and the Classis) provided that when either shall begin an action, it shall invite a committee from the others to join the commissioner, prosecutor, or prosecuting committee in formulating and pressing the charges. In the event of appeal, the case shall be finally decided by the highest court to which the appeal is taken in the Church that commenced the action, and that decision shall be equally binding on the Presbyteries (both the Presbytery and the Classis).

- T. The Minister or Ministers shall participate in the denominational Pension Plan of one of the Churches. If a Minister is already participating in one plan, that Minister shall remain in that plan. If a Minister is not a member of any, that Minister shall choose among them.
- U. Complaints against the administrative acts of the Session (Consistory) may be taken under the constitutional provisions of only one denomination, according to the choice of the complainant, and once being complained to one judicatory, no other denomination shall accept jurisdiction in the same matter.
- V. Wherever the Constitutions of the denominations differ, the mandatory provisions of one shall apply in all cases when the others are permissive. Wherever there are conflicting mandatory provisions (except as provided in Section 24-3Q), the Session (Consistory) of the united church shall petition the judicatories of immediate jurisdiction to overture their respective highest courts to resolve the conflict either by authoritative interpretation or by constitutional amendment.
- W. A union church may be dissolved by a two-thirds vote of two congregational meetings, held not less than one year and not more than two years apart, subject to the concurrence of the Presbyteries (Classis) involved. In case of dissolution of a union church, all property of the united church, real and personal, shall be divided equally between the Presbyteries (the Presbytery and the Classis) of jurisdiction.
- X. No sooner than six months after its formation, a union church may elect to become a member solely of either Presbytery (Classis) of which it is a member. By a two-thirds vote at a congregational meeting called for that purpose, the congregation may elect to be a member solely of one Presbytery or the other. In such a case it is mandatory that the united church with all its property, real and personal, become a member solely of that Presbytery (Classis) of its election.

24-4 No provision in this chapter shall be construed as modifying or amending the Constitution of this Church in its application to any but union churches organized under this chapter, their members, officers, or Ministers.

LIMITATIONS IN PERPETUITY

25-1 Limitations in perpetuity

Certain rights are held in perpetuity by Christians, both individually and gathered in congregations. These rights must always be guaranteed by the Church.¹⁹¹

25-2 These rights include, but not by way of exclusion, the following:

- A. The Church may make no laws to bind the conscience with respect to the interpretation of Scripture. No person may be rejected for membership or ordination because of such matters of conscience unless that matter has been officially declared a heresy by the Church, or unless it obstructs the constitutional governance of the Church. However, those seeking ordination in the EPC, either initially or by transfer, voluntarily limit their free exercise of conscience to the lawful bounds of the Essentials of Our Faith, the Westminster Standards, and the Book of Order of the EPC.¹⁹²
- B. The Church may make no laws that infringe on the rights of the local church to elect its own officers, to own and control its own property under the laws of the state in which it is located, to determine its own benevolence and other budgetary objectives, and to determine its own internal life so long as it does not violate the Constitution of the Church.
- C. The Denomination may make no provision in the Book of Government to establish any trust, implied or expressed, on property, both real or personal, held by or for a local church in favor of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church. The voluntary establishment of a trust is not prohibited, but any trust, to be enforceable, must be the clear intent of the owner and follow the legal requirements for trusts in the state in which the property is located.¹⁹³
- D. This section (i.e., chapter) may be added to by the procedures set forth for amending the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms, but no deletions may be made.¹⁹⁴

PART TWO
*RATIFIED BY THE 36TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY (2016)*¹⁹⁵

CHAPTER 1
DISCIPLINE — ITS NATURE, SUBJECTS, AND PURPOSE

1-1 Definition of Church Discipline

There are two kinds of authority vested in the church; the responsibility of order and the authority of jurisdiction.¹⁹⁶ Both kinds of authority are given the church by the Lord Jesus Christ to instruct and guide her members and to promote her purity and welfare. Discipline is the exercise of the responsibility of order, particularly in regard to the reproof of the erring.¹⁹⁷ As the exercise of such authority may adversely affect the membership rights of an individual who has been accused of an offense, the authority requires the use of ecclesiastical judicial procedures.

The word “discipline,” when used in the Book of Discipline, chapters 1-11, shall therefore refer to the use of ecclesiastical judicial procedures.

1-2 Grounds for Discipline

Not everything displeasing to God is a ground for discipline. The offenses that require discipline and are subject to ecclesiastical judicial procedures are as follows:

1. Heresy
2. Immorality
3. Contempt

1-3 Church Members Who Are Also Employees

The employer/employee relationship is not within the scope of the Book of Discipline. Church members who are also employees of the church shall be subject to discipline as an employee under whatever procedures may be established by the church for employees. They may also be subject to discipline as a member under the Book of Discipline.

1-4 Persons Subject to Discipline

All active and inactive members of the church,¹⁹⁸ confirmed, baptized, and affiliate, are entitled and subject to the benefits of discipline.

All Teaching Elders are subject to discipline. Accordingly, no Teaching Elder should be shielded from discipline or lightly sanctioned on account of his office. Neither should serious charges be received against him¹⁹⁹ on slight grounds.

¹⁹⁵ The 36th General Assembly ratified extensive revisions of the 1997 Book of Discipline

¹⁹⁶ See G.3-2 and 3-3

¹⁹⁷ See G.3-2

¹⁹⁸ This includes Commissioned Pastors (G.9-11), who are under the original jurisdiction of the Session of the local church of which they are members

¹⁹⁹ When used herein, the masculine gender shall include the feminine and the singular number shall include the plural unless the context demands otherwise

1-5 Purpose of Discipline

The purpose of discipline is to maintain the honor of God, to restore the sinner, and to remove offense from the church. Teaching Elders must instruct the officers and congregation in the use of discipline and jointly practice it in the context of the congregation and courts of the church.

1-6 Basis of Discipline

As the revelation of God's holy will, Scriptural law is the basis of all discipline. Therefore, proper disciplinary principles, as set forth in the Scriptures, must be followed before any charge alleging a personal offense can be brought before a court of the church.

When a charge of personal offense is brought before any court of the church, the party bringing the charge must include a certified statement detailing how the principles outlined in Matthew 18:15 and Galatians 6:1 have been met.²⁰⁰

If anyone has evidence to suggest that a Teaching Elder may be guilty of a private offense, he should warn him in private. But if the offense persists, or becomes public, he should bring the case to the attention of some other Teaching Elder of the Presbytery.

1-7 Definition of "Church"

As used in this Book of Discipline, the word "church" shall refer to the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, including her General Assembly, Presbyteries (including mission churches), and local churches.

1-8 Definition of "Contempt"

Contempt is willful conduct done in deliberate disrespect of a court of the church, the constitutional documents of the church, or the officers of the church acting in their official capacities.

1-9 Definition of "Heresy"

Heresy is the expressed or implied denial, openly taught and obstinately maintained, of one or more of the essential doctrines of Christianity.

1-10 Definition of "Immorality"

Immorality is conduct inconsistent with the biblical standards for conduct, including but not limited to bickering, brawling, debauchery, drunkenness, gossiping,²⁰¹ hatred, idolatry, impurity, slander, and sexual immorality such as adultery, fornication, homosexual practice, and bestiality.

1-11 Definition of "Jurisdiction"

Jurisdiction, as defined herein, is the authority of a court to render a decision in a case requiring discipline. This is the exercise of the responsibility of order. A court must have jurisdiction over both the individual accused and the subject matter of the charge before it can issue an indictment or render a decision. This definition is not to be confused with the authority of jurisdiction. The authority of jurisdiction is the power to rule and is a joint power to be exercised in church courts in regular gradation. The exercise of such power shall always reflect the essential unity of the church.²⁰² The exercise of the authority of jurisdiction provides the court with the authority to decide issues of government, administration, or law as it pertains to the rule of the church.

²⁰⁰ Use Form 1 (p. 108)

²⁰¹ The terms "bickering" and "gossiping" as used herein are intended to deal with those acts that are disruptive to the peace and unity of the church

In the case of actions by a church court raising issues, misunderstandings, and disputes, which are not personal offenses requiring discipline, but which raise issues that bear upon the authority of jurisdiction, one may seek review / file a complaint (petition, request for review by) in the court having original jurisdiction thereof. Such complaint, however, will not be subject to ecclesiastical judicial procedures unless the court determines that the conduct made the basis of the complaint is willful and done in deliberate disrespect of a court of the church, the constitutional documents of the church, or the officers of the church acting in their official capacities. If such determination is made, the court will then signify the use of ecclesiastical judicial procedures in all further proceedings and, upon judgment, an automatic appeal will be taken to the next higher court.

PASTORAL CARE

2-1 The Duty to Evangelize

In terms of its work, the first duty of the church is to evangelize by extending the Gospel both at home and abroad, leading others to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, and to provide for the nurture of that faith that all might grow in grace and in sanctification. Book of Government 4-3.²⁰³

2-2 The Spiritual Power of the Church

The power of the church is moral and spiritual, thus distinguishing the government of the church from civil government (Book of Government 3-1). This means that the church does not have civil authority over anyone.

2-3 Spiritual Nurture of Members

Among other duties, it is the duty of the church to provide for the nurture of its members (Book of Government 4-4A).

2-4 Retention of Authority over Church Property

While possessing no civil authority over any person, the church does retain authority over its property and ministries. In providing a secure and nurturing atmosphere for worship and spiritual growth, the church retains the right to exclude anyone from its property, services or ministries on such terms and conditions as it may desire. Thus, for example, a particular church may require certain standards before permitting adults to teach Sunday School, lead ministries, or otherwise participate in the life and ministry of the church.

²⁰³ This reference quotes from the Book of Government prior to the 2014 revision. The Book of Government (adopted June 2014) now reads in G.4-3: “It is the primary mission of the local church to evangelize, making disciples by extending the gospel both at home and abroad, leading others to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, providing for the nurture of that faith that all might worship the true God and grow in grace and in sanctification. It is to be remembered that good deeds in ministry and service to others, offering relief to those in need, is the fruit of the gospel. Without the clear evidence of such fruit, all else is brought into question. However, the Church must never confuse its primary mission of evangelism (the gospel) with the fruit of faith (good works).”

PROCESSES APPLICABLE TO ALL ECCLESIASTICAL JUDICIAL PROCEDURES

3-1 Ex parte Communications

- A. Once any ecclesiastical judicial procedure under this Book of Discipline is commenced, ex parte communications are prohibited.
- B. An ex parte communication is any form of communication to the presiding court or commission (Session, Presbytery, Judicial Commission, or Permanent Judicial Commission, including the Office of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly) by one party to a proceeding in the absence of the other parties to that proceeding that relates to the merits of the proceeding. It includes but is not limited to verbal, written, electronic, or any other form of communication.
- C. This prohibition against ex parte communication does not include questions on procedural matters that may be addressed to the Clerk of the court or commission. But otherwise the prohibition against ex parte communication on the merits of the proceeding applies to the Clerk of the court or commission.
- D. Therefore, the church courts, its officers, and judicial commissions shall act in accordance with the following:
 - 1. Any attempt at ex parte verbal communication shall be immediately interrupted by the member of the court to whom the communication is directed. The member of the court shall make a record of the attempted communication, place it in a separate file, and communicate to the other side the attempted ex parte communication. The record of the attempted communication shall include the name of the person(s) attempting to so communicate and the date of the attempted communication; under no circumstances shall the content of any ex parte communication be added to the case file of the subject ecclesiastical judicial proceeding;
 - 2. Any form of ex parte communication, including notes from a verbal communication, shall be placed in a separate file and communicated to the other parties and members of the presiding court or commission.
 - 3. If a party desires communication with a court or a judicial commission, that party shall request a conference call with the court or commission. The court or commission, or its designee, shall determine if the conference call is in order, and, if so, shall schedule the conference call. The party desiring communication shall be responsible for arranging the call and will bear the cost thereof.

3-2 Mediation

- A. At the sole discretion of a court or commission (Session, Presbytery or General Assembly), an ecclesiastical judicial procedure brought under this Book of Discipline may be assigned to a mediator(s). A matter so assigned for mediation may only proceed with the written consent of all necessary individuals as determined by the court or commission referring the matter to mediation.
- B. Upon the court's assignment of a church member(s) to serve as a mediator, he will not be eligible to serve as a member of the court should it prove necessary for the matter to be brought before the court or judicial commission.

- C. Prior to the commencement of mediation, the mediator(s) shall obtain the written agreement of all participants in the mediation to be bound by the following:
1. All discussions are to be considered confidential unless all parties and the mediator(s) agree otherwise.
 2. Any admissions made and settlement offers made will not be cited in any further proceeding concerning any other matter before the court should the matter not be resolved in mediation. No participant in the mediation will call a mediator(s) as a witness to the mediation in any subsequent hearing and/or in any other forum.

Any person who violates the terms of this agreement may be subject to sanction for rebellion under Book of Discipline 1-8.
 3. A mediator(s) may only report to the court or commission whether the matter has been settled, or not settled, or partially settled. If settled, the terms of any settlement will be disclosed to the court or judicial commission. However, no settlement can be entered into which conflicts shall conflict with any provision of the Constitution of the EPC. Any such settlement will be considered null and void ab initio (from the beginning). Written settlements are to be sealed and kept by the Clerk of the court separate from the court's or commission's regular minutes.
 4. No formal record of any settlement discussions will be made. This prohibition includes the use of any recording device or a stenographer.
 5. If any party to mediation desires to have legal counsel, the other party shall be afforded the same opportunity. The provisions of D.10-3 shall apply to all counsel.

CHAPTER 4

JURISDICTION

4-1 The Right of Private Judgment

Since “God alone is Lord of the conscience,” we consider the right of private judgment in religious matters to be universal and unalienable. Therefore, the church in disciplinary cases has jurisdiction only over her members (D.1-4).

4-2 Original Jurisdiction

In cases of original jurisdiction, the following rules apply:

A. The Session

The Session has original jurisdiction in every disciplinary case involving members of that local church.

B. The Presbytery

The Presbytery has original jurisdiction in every disciplinary case involving Teaching Elders of the Presbytery and jurisdiction over chapter 14 complaints regarding actions or decisions of sessions within its designated area (G.19-1).

C. The General Assembly

The General Assembly has original jurisdiction over chapter 14 complaints regarding actions or decisions of Presbyteries and judicial cases referred to it by a lower court (G.22-3)

D. Dissolved Churches

If a particular church is dissolved, the Presbytery shall assume jurisdiction with regard to any case of discipline begun by the Session but not concluded.

E. Transfer of Membership

A member of a local church or a Presbytery whose membership is being transferred shall remain under the jurisdiction of the first until received by the second.

4-3 Assumption of Jurisdiction

In the event a court shall be unable or unwilling to try a person or persons accused, the next higher court may assume jurisdiction after giving thirty days’ written notice to the lower court of its intention to assume jurisdiction.²⁰⁴

4-4 Failure to Act

When a court of original jurisdiction fails to act in a disciplinary case before it for a period of ninety days after initiation of the case, the next higher court may, on motion by any member of the church, assume jurisdiction. It may issue instructions to the lower court, or it may conclude the case itself.²⁰⁵

4-5²⁰⁶ Termination of Jurisdiction

Jurisdiction in judicial cases ends upon receipt of written notice of renunciation by the Clerk or

²⁰⁴ Use Form 13 (p. 124)

Stated Clerk of the court of original jurisdiction. In the event an individual orally renounces jurisdiction, this fact shall be confirmed by letter from the court acknowledging that renunciation. The letter shall be delivered in person or by form of mail requiring a written receipt. If the court receives no written response within ten days,²⁰⁷ the acknowledgement of renunciation of jurisdiction shall be deemed final. In such instances, a case already begun may be concluded only with the permission of the accused.

CHAPTER 5 OFFENSES

5-1 Offenses

As defined D.1-2,²⁰⁸ offenses which require discipline are three kinds: Heresy, Immorality, and Contempt for the established order of the church. Nothing ought to be considered by any court as an offense, or admitted as a matter of accusation, which cannot be proved to be such from Scripture. The Westminster Confession of Faith, with the Larger and Shorter Catechisms and the Book of Order consisting of the Book of Government, the Book of Discipline, and the Book of Worship, are the standards adopted by the church as expositions of the teachings of Scripture in relation to faith and practice.

5-2 Personal and General Offenses

A personal offense is an offense as defined in D.5-1 in a way of wrong done to some particular person or persons, including one's own self. A general offense is an offense as defined in D.5-1, but not directed against any particular person.

5-3 Private and Public Offenses

Private offenses are those known only to an individual or at most only to a few persons. Public offenses are those that are known to more than a few persons.

5-4 Preliminary Sanctions

When it is impracticable to commence an action against an accused church member, the Session may, if it thinks the edification of the church requires it, exclude the accused from the sacraments until the charges against him can be examined.

5-5 Out-of-Bounds Offenses

When an offense, alleged to have been committed at a distance, is not likely to otherwise become known to the court having jurisdiction, it shall be the duty of the court within whose bounds the facts occurred, after satisfying itself there is a strong presumption of guilt, to send notice to the court having jurisdiction, which shall at once proceed against the accused; or the whole case may be transferred for trial and imposition of sanctions, if any, to the coordinate court within whose bounds the offense is alleged to have been committed.

²⁰⁸ See also D.1-8, 1-9, and 1-10

CHAPTER 6

COMMENCING AN ECCLESIASTICAL JUDICIAL PROCEDURE INVOLVING DISCIPLINE

6-1 Commencement of Actions for Discipline

An action for discipline shall commence:

A. By a Person or Persons

When a person files a written charge with the Clerk of the court of appropriate jurisdiction.²⁰⁹

B. By the Court

When the court having jurisdiction determines that a charge is in order and there is a strong presumption of the guilt of the accused.

6-2 Limitation on Actions

An action for discipline must be commenced within three years²¹⁰ after the acts constituting the offense were committed, unless the acts were unknown and were not reasonably knowable by the offended person or court.

In the event that the offended person is under the age of 18, the action for discipline must be commenced before that person's twenty-first birthday.

6-3 Preliminary Investigation of a Charge by a Person or Persons

After an action is commenced by a person:

A. The court or commission shall commence a preliminary investigation in accordance with D.7-1.

B. After the preliminary investigation is concluded, the court or commission shall make a determination whether or not there is a strong presumption of the guilt of the accused.

6-4 Proceedings upon a Determination of a Strong Presumption of Guilt

In the event of a determination of a strong presumption of the guilt of the accused, the court or commission shall appoint a prosecutor, who shall prepare an indictment and proceed to trial in accordance with Chapters 7 through 10.

6-5 Trial

The court or commission shall conduct a trial in accordance with Chapters 9 and 10.

6-6 Decision

The court or commission shall render its decision in accordance with Chapter 11.

²⁰⁹ Use Form 1 (p. 108)

²¹⁰ If the end of the timeline falls on a weekend or holiday, the timeline shall be extended to midnight of the next business day following that weekend or holiday (see Act of Assembly 14-04, p. 179)

CHAPTER 7

PRE-HEARING PROCESS IN ECCLESIASTICAL JUDICIAL PROCEDURES INVOLVING DISCIPLINE

7-1 Investigation of a Charge

A. Care over the Church

It is the duty of all church courts to exercise care over those subject to their authority. They shall, with care and discretion, investigate reports concerning alleged offenses that require discipline. This duty is imperative when a person claiming to be aggrieved by an offense shall request an investigation in writing.

B. Written Charges

No investigation against an accused offender shall be commenced unless some person files a written charge with the Clerk of the court, or unless the court finds it necessary under Book of Discipline 1-5 and 1-6 for itself to undertake an investigation.

C.²¹¹ Judicial Investigative Committee

The court may appoint a judicial investigative committee to serve as a finder of fact, which shall report its findings to the court with its recommendations. The judicial investigative committee shall have no authority to act for the court other than as an investigative body.²¹²

7-2 Appointment of a Prosecutor

If an investigation should result in raising a strong presumption of guilt of the party accused, the court shall institute an ecclesiastical judicial procedure, and shall appoint a prosecutor to prepare an indictment and to prosecute the case. The prosecutor shall be a member of the court. In cases before the Session, however, he need not be a member of that court, but needs only to be a communing member of the church (as defined in D.1-7).

7-3 Selection of Prosecutor

Ordinarily, no offended person (or person knowing of an offense) shall become a prosecutor of personal offenses. A church court, however, may investigate personal offenses requiring discipline under D.6-1 when they become known to members of the court.²¹⁴

7-4 Parties in a Case

The original and only parties in a case of ecclesiastical judicial procedure are the accuser and the accused. The accuser is always the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, whose honor and purity are to be maintained. The prosecutor is always the representative of the church. On appeal the parties are known as appellant and appellee.

7-5 Private Reconciliation

When the prosecution is instituted by the court or commission the steps required by D.1-6 in the case of personal offenses are not necessary. There are many cases, however, in which it will be advisable to send a committee to converse in a private manner with the accused and endeavor to bring him to a sense of repentance, before instituting actual ecclesiastical judicial procedures. The committee may then make recommendations to the court or commission concerning further prosecution of the case.

7-6 Biased Accusations and Testimony

Great caution should be exercised by the court or commission in receiving accusations and testimony from any person:

- A. Who is known to hold a malignant spirit against the accused?
- B. Who is not of good character?
- C. Who is under sanction or who is the subject of an action for ecclesiastical judicial procedures?
- D. Who is deeply interested in any respect in the conviction of the accused, or?
- E. Who is known to be litigious, contentious, rash or highly imprudent?

7-7 Suspension of Official Functions

When an action for discipline has been commenced against a member of a court, any or all of his official functions may be suspended at the court's or commission's discretion, but this shall never be done in the way of sanction.²¹⁵

²¹⁵ Use Form 7 (p. 117)

CHAPTER 8

HEARINGS IN ECCLESIASTICAL JUDICIAL PROCEDURES INVOLVING DISCIPLINE

8-1 Warning to All

Every member of a court or commission engaged in an ecclesiastical judicial procedure shall bear in mind the command of Scripture: “Brothers, if someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore him gently. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted.” Galatians 6:1 (NIV).

8-2 Processing a Charge

A. Commencement

When ecclesiastical judicial procedures are commenced in accordance with D.6-1, nothing shall be done at the first meeting of the court thereafter, unless by consent of the parties, except:

1. To appoint a prosecutor in accordance with D.7-1 and D.7-3.
2. To order the indictment drawn and a copy, including names of witnesses then known to support it, served on the accused, in person or by means requiring a written receipt.
3. To set a date for trial.

B. Commissions

Ordinarily, the court shall decide at this time whether it shall try the case or refer the case for trial and decision to a judicial commission in accordance D.10-5 and G.21-1B. Commissioners shall be ordained Elders within the jurisdiction of the court involved.

C. Moderator Pro-Tem

With the consent of the Moderator, and if the court so desires, it may elect one of its members to serve as Moderator Pro-Tem for a particular case. The Moderator Pro-Tem shall exercise the duties of a Moderator as described in G.18-2 or G.19-3 with respect to the particular judicial case only.

8-3 Indictment

A. Heading of the Indictment²¹⁶

Every indictment shall begin: “In the name of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church,” and shall conclude, “against the peace, unity, and purity of the church, and the honor and majesty of the Lord Jesus Christ, as the King and Head thereof.”

B. Contents of the Indictment

The indictment shall clearly state the times, places and circumstances as to the actions alleged to require disciplinary sanctions, so that the accused may have adequate notice of the charges and the opportunity to make his defense.

8-4 Formal Summons

A. Issuance of Formal Summons²¹⁷

²¹⁶ Use Form 4 (p. 112)

²¹⁷ Use Form 5 (p. 113)

The Moderator or Clerk shall issue formal summons in the name of the court or commission to the accused and to such witnesses as either party shall nominate to appear on his behalf.

B. Contents

The formal summons shall identify the parties to the trial, shall state the time and place of the trial, and shall warn the parties and witnesses of the sanctions for refusal to obey a formal summons.

C. Service of Summons and Indictment

The Clerk of the court or commission shall deliver a copy of the summons and the indictment to the defendant in person or by form of delivery requiring a signed receipt. The Clerk shall further deliver a summons to necessary witnesses in person or by form of delivery requiring a signed receipt.

D. Witness and Exhibits List

Each of the parties shall provide the other with a list of expected witnesses and copies of all exhibits not later than 5 days before trial (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) by personal delivery or by means requiring a written receipt.²¹⁸

8-5 Refusal to Obey a Formal Summons

A. Accused Person

When an accused person shall refuse to obey a formal summons, he shall be served with a second formal summons.

B. Second Summons²¹⁹

A second formal summons shall be accompanied with a notice that if he does not appear at the time appointed (unless providentially hindered, which fact he must make known to the court), or that if he appears and refuses to plead, he shall be dealt with for his rebellion.

C. Sanctions for Failure to Appear

When an accused person, having been twice formally summoned in accord with D.8-5B shall fail to appear, the court or commission shall enter this fact upon its records, together with a copy of the indictment, and shall suspend the accused person from the sacraments for his rebellion in failing to appear.

In the event the accused person shall be an officer, the court or commission shall remove him from office and suspend or excommunicate him from the church.

In the event the accused person shall be a member but not an officer and the charge be one of a serious nature as described in D.1-2, the court may proceed to removal of the accused person from the membership and fellowship of the church.

D. Failure of a Witness to Appear

In the event a duly summoned officer or member of the church willfully fails to appear or refuses to testify, the court may treat the refusal of the witness to appear as rebellion, and may proceed to admonish, suspend, remove from office, and/or expel him from the membership and fellowship of the church without need for further action.

²¹⁸ Use Form 9 (p. 119)

8-6 Time Periods

The time which must elapse between the serving of the first formal summons on the accused person, and the meeting of the court at which he is to appear shall be at least ten days.²²⁰ The time allotted for his appearance on the subsequent summons shall be left to the discretion of the court, provided that it is quite sufficient for a reasonable and convenient compliance with the summons.

²²⁰ If the end of the timeline falls on a weekend or holiday, the timeline shall be extended to midnight of the next business day following that weekend or holiday (see Act of Assembly 14-04, p. 179)

CHAPTER 9 EVIDENCE

9-1 Competency of Witnesses

Competency means ability to testify. All persons, including the parties, who have sufficient intelligence to understand the obligation of an oath or affirmation, are competent witnesses.

9-2 Testimony of the Accused

The accused party may be allowed but not compelled to testify. No inference of guilt may be drawn from his failure to testify. The person or persons who filed the charges under D.6-1A shall be required to testify on the demand of the accused.

9-3 Families

Husbands and wives, parents and children, shall not be required to testify against each other.

9-4 Exclusion of Witnesses

Any witness to be examined, other than the accused or a member of the court, may be excluded from the examination of any other witness in the same case if any party objects.

9-5 Disqualification of Witnesses

A member of the court who has given testimony in a case becomes disqualified for sitting as a judge if either party objects.

9-6 Oath or Affirmation

The oath or affirmation to a witness shall be administered by the Moderator in the following or like terms: "Do you solemnly promise, in the presence of God, that you will declare the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, according to the best of your knowledge in the matter in which you are called to witness, as you shall answer it to the great Judge of the living and the dead?" If, however, at any time a witness should present himself before a court and for conscientious reasons prefers to swear or affirm in any other manner, he should be allowed to do so.

9-7 Examination of Witnesses²²¹

A. Examination and Cross-Examination

Witnesses shall be examined first by the party introducing them; then cross-examined by the opposite party, after which any party or member of the court may ask additional questions. No question shall be asked or answered except by permission of the Moderator subject to an appeal to the court or commission. The court or commission shall not permit cumulative or repetitive questions or questions which are frivolous or irrelevant to the charge at issue.

B.²²² Witness Inconvenience

When the alleged offense took place at a distance, and it is inconvenient for the witnesses to appear before the court having jurisdiction, that court may either appoint a judicial investigative committee or request the coordinate court contiguous to the place where the facts occurred to take the testimony for it.

²²¹ Utilize Form 9 (p. 119)

²²² Revised 6/04

Due notice of the time and place of the taking of testimony by the judicial investigative committee or the coordinate court shall be given to the opposite party. Testimony may be taken by questions asked to the witness with answers recorded in writing or recorded by electronic or other means. All parties shall have the right to examine the witness.

9-8 Credibility

Credibility means the degree of credit which may be given to the testimony of a witness. In assessing the credibility of a witness, the court may consider any matter that bears on the credibility of the witness, including, but not limited to, the witness's relationship to the parties or other witnesses, his interest in the result, his weakness of understanding, his demeanor while testifying, his character for honesty or truthfulness, and his belief in the existence of God and a future state of rewards and punishments.

9-9 The Record

A. Authentication

The records of a court or commission, or any part of them, whether original or transcribed, if regularly authenticated by the Moderator and Clerk, or by either of them, shall be deemed good and sufficient evidence in any other court. Authentication shall be in writing in the following or similar form:

I, _____, Clerk [or Moderator] of the _____ [name of court] do hereby certify that the foregoing are true, correct, and complete copies of the Record in the Case of _____ . Signed: _____ Date: _____

B. Testimony

The testimony taken by one court or commission and regularly authenticated shall be received by every other court as no less valid than if it had been taken by itself.

9-10 Burden of Proof

The testimony of more than one witness shall be necessary in order to prove an allegation of the indictment. However, if in addition to the testimony of one witness, other supporting evidence is proved, the allegation may be considered to be proved.

CHAPTER 10

THE TRIAL

10-1 Trial Proceedings

When a court or commission proceeds to trial of a case, the following order shall be observed:

A. The Charge to the Court or Commission

The Moderator (or Moderator Pro-Tem) shall exhort the members to remember and consider their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ and the solemn duty in which they are about to participate.

B. Indictment

The Moderator (or Moderator Pro Tem) shall read the indictment,²²³ and the accused shall be called upon to declare whether he is guilty or not. If the accused pleads guilty, the court or commission may deal with him according to its discretion. If he pleads not guilty the trial shall proceed. Accused parties may plead in writing when they cannot be personally present. Accused parties necessarily absent shall have counsel assigned to them.

C. Service of Summons

Before proceeding to trial, the court or commission shall ascertain that its summons has been duly served.²²⁴

D. Opening Statements

Each party shall be permitted to make a brief opening statement not longer than 15 minutes unless a longer time shall be granted by the court or commission. The prosecutor shall proceed, followed by the accused party or parties.

E. Testimony

The witnesses for the prosecution and then those for the accused shall be examined in accordance with Chapter 9.²²⁵

F. Exclusion of Prosecutor and the Accused Person

On all questions arising in the progress of a trial, the discussion shall first be between the prosecutor and the accused persons. When they have been heard, they may be required to withdraw from the court until the members deliberate upon and decide the question. The Moderator shall announce the court's or commission's decision upon return of prosecutor and accused parties to the courtroom.

G. Closing Argument

Each party shall be permitted to make a brief closing argument not longer than 15 minutes unless a longer time shall be granted by the court. The prosecutor shall proceed, followed by the accused party or parties. The prosecutor shall be permitted to close, but total amount of time allocated to each party shall be equal.

²²³ D.8-3

²²⁴ D.8-4

²²⁵ Use Form 9 (p. 119)

H. Deliberations

The roll shall be called, and the members may express their opinions in the case. The prosecutor and the accused persons may be required to withdraw from the court until the members deliberate upon and decide the question.

I. The Vote

The vote shall be by secret ballot, and all members of the court or commission shall vote “Guilty” or “Not Guilty” on each charge of the indictment. A verdict of guilty shall be rendered only upon a two-thirds majority of the votes cast. The Moderator (or Moderator Pro Tem) shall announce the court’s decision upon return of prosecutor and accused parties to the courtroom.²²⁶

J. Imposition of Sanctions

Before sanctions are determined, the prosecutor and accused person found guilty shall be given the opportunity to present evidence or argument bearing on the administration of sanctions only.

Thereupon, the court or commission shall proceed to a determination of sanctions pursuant to Chapter 11. The prosecutor and the accused persons may be required to withdraw from the court until the members deliberate upon and determine sanctions. Sanctions may be rendered upon a simple majority of the votes cast. The Moderator shall announce the court’s determination of sanctions, which shall be entered upon the records, upon return of prosecutor and accused parties to the courtroom.

K. Motion for New Trial

If after trial before any court, new testimony is discovered which the accused believes is important, he shall have the right to ask for a new trial. The court shall have the power to grant his request.

10-2 Challenges to the Court

Any party may, for cause hereinafter described, challenge the right of any member to sit in the trial of the case. The question shall be decided by other members of the court. A challenge for cause against a member of the court shall be granted when:

- A. Disclosure of Opinion: The member of the court expresses his opinion of the guilt of any party to any person not a member of the court before the conclusion of the trial.
- B. Absence: The member of the court shall absent himself from any sitting of the trial without the permission of the court, or satisfactory reasons rendered.
- C. Conflict of Interest: The member of the court appears to the court to be related to the parties or other witnesses, to have an interest in the result, or to have similar impediment or conflict of interest.

10-3 Professional or Learned CounselA. No Paid Counsel

No person serving as counsel shall be permitted to receive compensation for services rendered to any party. However, parties may reimburse counsel for their reasonable expenses.²²⁷

B. Professional or Learned Counsel

In the event any party shall be represented by a person who is a graduate of an accredited school of law, the other parties shall be likewise permitted to be represented by learned or professional counsel. However, learned or professional counsel must be a member of the church as defined in D.1-7. A member of the court serving as counsel in the case shall not be allowed to sit in judgment on the case.

10-4 The Record

A. The Record

The Clerk or other person designated by the court or commission shall, within thirty days after the trial, make and maintain as part of the permanent records of the court or commission, a complete record of the proceedings, including the charges, the indictment, the answer (if any), all the testimony, whether transcribed or prepared in summary form, and all such acts, orders, and decisions of the court or commission relating to the case including the written ballots evidencing the decision and the determination of sanctions. These documents shall constitute the Record of the Case and should ordinarily be maintained separately from the Minutes of the court or commission.

B. Expenses of the Record:

The court or commission shall make and maintain a transcript or record of the proceedings by written or electronic means. The parties shall be permitted to make copies (by transcript or electronic recording) of the whole proceedings at their own expense.

C. Appeals

When a case is appealed or removed to a higher court by complaint, the lower court shall transmit the Record of the Case to the higher court with the addition of the notice of appeal or complaint. The higher court shall render its decision based only on that which is contained in the Record. On the final decision of a case by a higher court the decision shall be communicated to all lower courts.

CHAPTER 11

DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS

11-1 Exhortation to Meekness

When any person shall be found guilty of an offense, the court shall proceed with all tenderness and shall deal with its offending brother or sister in the spirit of meekness. The members are exhorted to watch themselves, so that they may avoid temptation.

11-2 Disciplinary Sanctions

Disciplinary sanctions which may be administered by church courts or commissions are admonition, suspension, removal from church office, and excommunication. When a milder sanction fails to reclaim the offender, it may become the duty of the court to proceed to the administration of a more severe sanction.

If the court finds on trial that the matter complained of amounts to no more than such acts of infirmity as may be amended, so that little or nothing remains to hinder the person's ministry, it shall take all prudent measures to see that the infirmity is amended.

11-3 Definition of Admonition

Admonition is the formal reproof of an offender by a church court, warning of his guilt and danger, and encouraging him to be more careful and watchful in the future.

11-4 Definition of Suspension

Suspension is the temporary exclusion of church members from the sacraments and/or from other church ministries or activities.

With respect to church officers, suspension may include the exclusion of the officer from office and the sacraments. It may be either definite or indefinite as to its duration.

Suspension should generally be indefinite in its duration, continuing until the person suspended gives such evidence of repentance as may warrant its repeal. The good of the offender and/or the church may require that the offender be suspended for a definite length of time, even though he confesses his sin and gives evidence of repentance.

11-5 Definition of Removal from Office

Removal from office is the sanction by which the offender's ordination and election are set aside, and the offender is removed from all church offices without excommunication. Removal from office may or may not be accompanied by the administration of other sanctions.

11-6 Definition of Excommunication

Excommunication is the removal of an offender from the membership and fellowship of the church. Excommunication shall be administered only in cases of offenses aggravated by a continuing refusal to repent.

The purpose of this sanction is to reclaim the offender, to deliver the church from the disgrace and injury of his offense, and to motivate the church with fear by the example of his discipline.

11-7 Principles for the Administration of Sanctions^{230 231}

The administration of church sanctions shall be suited to the nature of the offense. For private offenses, sanctions should be administered in the presence of the court or commission alone, or in private by one or more members of the court or commission. In the case of public offenses, the degree of sanction and mode of administering it shall be within the discretion of the court or commission, acting in accordance with paragraphs below which deal with particular sanctions.

If the charge is one of serious immorality or heresy, and the accused person persists in his rebellion, the court or commission may proceed to inflict the highest sanction.

When a Teaching Elder is removed from office, his pastoral relationship shall be dissolved; but when he is suspended, it shall be left to the discretion of the Presbytery whether the sanction shall include the dissolution of the pastoral relationship.

When a Presbytery shall remove a Teaching Elder from his office without excommunication, it shall assign him to membership at some particular church subject to the approval of the Session of that particular church.

11-8 The Sanction of Admonition

The sanction of admonition may be administered in private by one or more members of the court if the offense is known only to a few and is not aggravated in character. If the offense is public, the admonition shall be administered by the Moderator or Chair in presence of the court and may also be announced in public should the court deem it appropriate.

11-9 Confession and RestorationA. Confession

When any person shall come forward and make his offense known to the court or commission, a full statement of the facts shall be recorded, and judgment rendered without judicial procedures.

When an officer, before judgment is entered, shall make a confession of a matter that is marked by outrageous or scandalous crime or vice, such as substance abuse, marital infidelity, embezzlement or the like, however penitent he may appear to the satisfaction of all, the court or commission shall without delay suspend²³² or remove him from his office.

B. Restoration

An officer suspended or removed from office for scandalous conduct shall not be restored, even on the deepest sorrow for his sin, until he has demonstrated an exemplary, humble, and edifying lifestyle for a considerable amount of time, which, in the case of removal from office, shall be for not less than one year. Any officer must present evidence that it is virtually certain that the conduct causing his suspension or removal from office will not occur again.

C. Restoration of a Teaching Elder

A Teaching Elder removed from office shall not be restored until it appears that the general sentiment of the church is strongly in his favor and demands his restoration. In that event restoration shall be pronounced only by the court imposing the sanction or with its consent.

When an application for restoration and a statement of support from the Session of the church to which the former Teaching Elder has been assigned is filed with the clerk of the presbytery, the application will be forwarded to the Ministerial Committee for its review and recommendation. Consideration of the application will proceed as follows:

²³¹ Use Form 12 (p. 123)

²³² Use Form 7 (p. 117)

1. Should the Ministerial Committee choose to recommend restoration to the Presbytery, the Presbytery shall consider the recommendation for restoration in executive session.
2. The Teaching Elder seeking restoration and the Ministerial Committee will be provided the opportunity to address the presbytery;
3. Upon hearing from the Teaching Elder seeking restoration he shall be excused;
4. A motion to restore or not restore may be brought before the presbytery only by its Ministerial Committee;
5. All votes concerning Teaching Elder restoration are to be by secret ballot; and,
6. A 4/5 affirmative vote shall be required for restoration to office.
7. Restoration may be pronounced only by the court imposing the sanction, or with its consent.

11-10 The Sanction of Suspension may be for a definite period of time or for an indefinite period of time.

The goal of suspension is to impress the offender of the evil of his sin, and, under God's blessing to lead him to repentance.

Definite suspension shall be administered in the presence of the court or commission alone or in open session of the court, as it may deem best, and public announcement thereof shall be at the court's or commission's discretion.²³³

11-11 Indefinite suspension

Indefinite suspension shall be administered in the presence of the court or commission alone or in open session of the court, as it may deem best, and public announcement thereof shall be at the court's or commission's discretion.²³⁴

When the court or commission has resolved to pass the sentence, the Moderator shall address the offending brother to the following purpose:

"Whereas you, _____ (here describe the person as a Teaching Elder, Ruling Elder, Deacon, or member of the Church) are convicted by sufficient proof (or are guilty by your own confession) of the sin of _____ (here insert the offense), we the Presbytery (or Church Session) of _____ in the name and by the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ, do now declare you suspended from the Sacraments of the Church (and from the exercise of your office), until you give satisfactory evidence of repentance."

To this shall be added such advice or admonition as may be judged necessary, and the whole shall be concluded with prayer to almighty God that He would follow this act of discipline with His blessing.

11-12 Removal from Office

The sanction of removal from office shall be administered by the Moderator or Chair in the words following:

"Whereas, _____, a Teaching Elder of this Presbytery (or a Ruling Elder or Deacon of this Church), has been proved by sufficient evidence to be guilty of the sin of

²³³ Use Form 7 (p. 117)

²³⁴ Ibid

_____, we, the Presbytery (or Church Session) of _____ do adjudge him disqualified for the office of Minister (or Ruling Elder or Deacon), and therefore we do hereby, in the name and by the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ, remove him from the office of Teaching Elder (or Ruling Elder or Deacon) the said _____, and do prohibit him from exercising any of the functions thereof.” If the sanction includes suspension or excommunication, the Moderator or Chair shall proceed to say: “We do, moreover, by the same authority, suspend the said _____ from the Sacraments, and cut him off from the membership and fellowship of the Church.”

The sentence of removal from office ought to be accompanied by solemnities similar to those already prescribed in the case of excommunication.

11-13 Excommunication

Excommunication may be administered according to one or other of the two modes laid down for indefinite suspension, or it may be inflicted in public as the court may decide. In administering this sanction, the Moderator of the court or Chair of the commission shall make a statement of the several steps which have been taken with respect to the offending person, and of the decision to cut him off from the membership and fellowship of the church. He shall then show from Matthew 18:15-18 and 1 Corinthians 5:1-5 the authority of the church to cast out unworthy members, and shall explain the nature, use, and consequences of this sanction. He shall then administer the sanction in the words following:

“Whereas _____, a member of this Church has been by sufficient proof convicted of the sin of _____, and after much admonition and prayer, obstinately refuses to hear the Church, and has manifested no evidence of repentance: Therefore, in the name and by the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ, we, the Session of the Church of _____ do pronounce him to be excluded from the Sacraments and cut off from the fellowship of the Church.”

CHAPTER 12

REMOVAL OF SANCTIONS

12-1 Court Should Pray for the Offender

After any person has been suspended from the sacraments, it is proper that the Elders of the church should frequently converse with him as well as pray with him and for him, that it would please God to give him repentance.

12-2 Restoration to the Sacraments

When the court shall be satisfied as to the reality of the repentance of a suspended offender, he shall be admitted to profess his repentance either in the presence of the court or commission alone or publicly, and be restored to the sacraments of the church, and to his office, if such be the judgment of the court or commission, which restoration shall be declared to the penitent in words of the following import:

“Whereas, you, _____, have been suspended from the Sacraments of the Church (and from the office of Teaching Elder, or Ruling Elder, or Deacon) but have now demonstrated such repentance as satisfies the church, we, the Session (or Presbytery) of _____, do hereby, in the name and by the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ, restore you from the said sentence of suspension, and restore you to the full communion of the Church (and the exercise of your said office, and all the functions thereof).”

After which there shall be prayer and thanksgiving.

12-3 Restoration of an Excommunicated Person

Subject to the provisions of D.12-7, when an excommunicated person shall be so moved with his excommunication that he is brought to repentance and he desires to be readmitted to the membership and fellowship of the church, he may request that the Session restore him.

The Session shall proceed to restore him if it finds sufficient evidence of his sincere repentance. This may be done in the presence of the court or commission or of the congregation as seems best to the Session.

On the day appointed for his restoration, the Moderator of the court or Chair of the commission shall call upon the excommunicated person and propose to him the following questions:

“Do you, from a deep sense of your great wickedness, freely confess your sins in thus rebelling against God and in refusing to hear His Church?” Answer, “I do.”

“Do you acknowledge that you have been in justice and mercy cut off from the communion of the church?” Answer, “I do.”

“Do you now voluntarily profess your sincere repentance and sorrow for your sin and rebellion: and do you humbly ask the forgiveness of God and His Church?” Answer, “I do.”

“Do you sincerely promise, through divine grace, to live in all humility of mind and carefulness to avoid sin, and to attempt to live a lifestyle that will glorify God our Savior?” Answer, “I do.”

Here the Moderator or Chair shall give the person being restored a suitable exhortation, encouraging and comforting him. Then he shall pronounce the sentence of restoration in the following words:

“Whereas you, _____, have been shut out from the membership and fellowship of the Church, but now have demonstrated such repentance as satisfies the Church; in the name and by the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ we, the Session of this Church, do declare you restored from the sentence of excommunication formerly pronounced against you, and we do restore you to the membership and fellowship of the Church, that you may be a partaker of all the benefits of the Lord Jesus to your eternal salvation.”

After which there shall be prayer and thanksgiving.

12-4 Restoration to Office

When an officer who has been removed from office makes public confession in a manner similar to that prescribed in the case of the restoration of an excommunicated person, he may be restored to office. His restoration to office shall be announced to him by the Moderator or Chair as follows:

“Whereas, you, _____, formerly a Teaching of this Presbytery (or a Ruling Elder or Deacon of this Church), have been removed from your office, but have now demonstrated such repentance as satisfies the Church; in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and by His authority, we, the Presbytery of _____ (or the Session of this Church) do declare you restored from the said sentence of removal from office formerly pronounced against you; and we do furthermore restore you to your office, and to the exercise of all the functions thereof, whenever you may be duly called.”

After this there shall be prayer and thanksgiving, and the members of the court or commission shall extend to him the right hand of fellowship.

12-5 Reelection Required for Exercise of Office

When a Ruling Elder or Deacon has been pardoned from the sanction of removal from office, he cannot be allowed to resume the exercise of his office in the church without reelection by the people.

12-6 Special Provisions for the Restoration of a Minister

In the restoration of a Teaching Elder who has been suspended or removed from office, it is the duty of the Presbytery to proceed with great caution. In conjunction with the Presbytery and the church to which he has been assigned, pursuant to D.11-7, Presbytery and the Session of that church should first admit him to the sacraments, if he has been suspended from them, and afterwards should grant him the privilege of preaching on probation for a time. The court shall oversee his lifestyle so as to test the sincerity of his repentance and the prospect of his usefulness. When the Presbytery is satisfied in these respects it shall restore him to his office. The case shall remain under judicial consideration until the sentence of restoration has been pronounced.

12-7 Transfer of Case to More Convenient Forum

When a person under sanction shall move to a place which is remote from the court by which he was sentenced, and shall desire to profess repentance and obtain restoration, the court may, if it deems it appropriate, transmit a certified copy of its proceedings to the Session (or Presbytery) where the person under sanction resides. The court of the person’s residence shall then assume jurisdiction over the case and proceed with it as though it had original jurisdiction.²³⁵

APPEALS

13-1 Definition

An appeal is a request made to a higher court to review a judgment made by a lower court by and through the use of ecclesiastical judicial procedures (cases of heresy, immorality, and/or contempt). An appeal cannot be made to any court other than the next higher court, unless the higher court directs and authorizes that the appeal be heard in another court or by a commission created for the express purpose of hearing the appeal and rendering a decision thereupon.

13-2 Standing to Appeal; Parties to Appeal

- A. Only an accused party, found guilty and sanctioned by a lower court, has standing to appeal the lower court's decision to a higher court.
- B. The party bringing the appeal shall be known as "Appellant." The party against whom the appeal is taken shall be known as "Appellee."

13-3 Newly Discovered Evidence

Newly discovered evidence is evidence that a party did not know, nor should have known, existed during the lower court proceedings.

If, in the prosecution of an appeal, newly discovered evidence is sought to be introduced, a party seeking its introduction must file a motion with notice to all other parties demonstrating justification for its introduction. Upon approval of the motion, the appellate court may remand the case to the lower court for a new trial; or may receive the evidence and proceed with the case.

13-4 Grounds for Appeal

The grounds for appeal are:

- A. Any misapplication of the EPC Constitution;
- B. Any irregularity in the proceedings of the lower court;
- C. Receiving improper evidence or declining to receive properevidence;
- D. Rendering a decision before all the testimony is reasonably heard;
- E. Manifestation of prejudice in the case; and
- F. Mistake or injustice in the judgment or sanction.

13-5 Notice of Appeal

Written notice of appeal shall be filed no later than thirty (30) days²³⁶ after the entry of judgment of the lower court. The filing of the Notice of Appeal with the Clerk of the appellate court places the appeal before that court. A copy of the Notice of Appeal also shall be filed with the lower court from which the appeal is taken.²³⁷

²³⁷ Use Form 14 (p. 125)

13-6 Statement of Grounds for Appeal

Written statement of grounds for appeal shall be filed no later than fifteen (15) days²³⁸ after the Notice of Appeal is filed. The statement must state the factual or constitutional bases forming the issues on appeal

13-7 Filing the Record

Within thirty (30) days²³⁹ after receipt of a Notice of Appeal, it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the lower court to prepare and file with the Clerk of the higher court the Record of the Case as defined in D.10-4.

13-8 Stay Pending Appeal

The filing of a Notice of Appeal does not stay the judgment of the lower court. If, however, the sanction is suspension, excommunication, or removal from office, the sanctioned party may, for sufficient reasons provided in writing, petition the higher court to stay the sanction until the case is finally decided. The higher court in its discretion may stay the sanction or later modify the stay. In the case that a stay is imposed or later modified, the higher court will notify the lower court. The lower court will confirm receipt of the stay and its compliance with it.

13-9 Procedures on Appeal

After a higher court has decided that an appeal is in order and should be considered, the following procedures shall be followed:

- A. The court shall read the complete Record of the Case as submitted by the lower court. The higher court shall provide the Record to the Appellant. Before sending the Record to the Appellant, the higher court may, at its discretion, redact the Record in order to protect confidential or sensitive information that is not relevant to the appeal.
- B. The Appellant shall file a written statement which sets forth the issues on appeal and the arguments in support thereof within thirty (30) days²⁴⁰ of the receipt of the Record of the Case by the higher court. In addition, a copy of the written statement shall be delivered to the appellee. Appellant shall also provide to the higher court a certificate of delivery of its written statement to the appellee.
- C. The Appellee may file a written response within fifteen (15) days²⁴¹ of the receipt by the higher court of the appellant's written statement. In addition, a copy of the written response shall be delivered to the Appellant. Appellee shall also provide to the higher court a certificate of delivery of its written response to the appellant.
- D. The Appellant may file a written reply to the appellee's written response within fifteen (15) days²⁴² of the receipt by the higher court of Appellee's written response, if any. In addition, a copy of the written reply shall be delivered to the appellee. Appellant shall also provide to the higher court a certificate of delivery of its written reply to the appellee.
- E. The Appellant or appellee may file a written request for oral argument, explaining why it is necessary and should be permitted. In response to such a request, or at its own discretion, the higher court may allow oral argument. If oral argument is allowed, the court will advise all parties of the date, time and place of oral argument, and the time allotted to each party.

²³⁹ Ibid

²⁴⁰ Ibid

²⁴¹ Ibid

²⁴² Ibid

In the alternative, the higher court may determine the issues on the appeal based solely on the Record of the Case, the written statements, responses, and replies.

- F. In every case in which oral argument is heard, a record of the oral argument shall be kept. The recording of the oral argument may be transcribed and the recording or copy of the transcription maintained by the Stated Clerk of the higher court. In the case of an appeal to the next higher court, a party may request a copy of the transcript. The cost of transcription shall be borne by the requesting party.
- G. The members of the higher court, in their deliberations, shall express their opinions, deliberate upon and vote on the issues raised.
- H. The vote shall be taken on each ground for appeal set forth in the statement filed pursuant to D.13-6 above in this form: "Shall this ground for appeal be sustained?"

13-10 Decision on Appeal

- A. The higher court may:²⁴³
 1. Confirm or reverse, in whole or in part, the judgment of the lower court; or
 2. Remand the case to the lower court for the purpose of amending the Record of the Case, should it appear incorrect or defective; or
 3. Remand the case to the lower court with instructions.
- B. If the higher court or commission deems it wise, it may also render a written opinion which shall become a part of the Record of the Case.
- C. Any and all persons, including members of the higher court who were involved with, have intimate knowledge of, or otherwise participated in the underlying judgment of the lower court, are precluded from involvement with the higher court in its determination of the issues on appeal.

13-11 Counsel

All parties shall have the right of counsel consistent with D.10-3.

13-12 Abandonment of Appeal

Absent extenuating circumstances made known to the higher court beforehand, the appellant shall be deemed to have abandoned his appeal if he does not comply with the procedures set forth above. In such cases, the judgment of the lower court will stand, unless the higher court determines that the subject matter of the appeal is so serious that the peace and purity of the church is at stake. In such a case, the higher court, in its discretion, may nonetheless decide the appeal.^{244 245}

13-13 Conduct of the Parties

If any party willfully fails to comply with these rules or demonstrates a litigious or otherwise unchristian attitude in the appeal process, he may be subject to appropriate discipline by the higher court.

13-14 Failure to File the Record

If the Clerk of a lower court neglects or willfully fails to file the Record of the Case, or any part of it, the Clerk may be subject to appropriate discipline by the higher court. Until the complete

If the lower court shall file a portion of the record by electronic means, the appellant shall have the right to prepare a written transcript of it at his own expense.

COMPLAINTS

14-1 Complaint Defined

A complaint is a written contention made to a higher court challenging some act or decision of a lower court that seeks a remedy.

14-2 Standing to File a Complaint

- A. It is the right of any member of the church in good standing to make complaint against any action of a lower court to whose jurisdiction he is subject. A complaint shall not be made to any court other than the next higher court, except with the consent of the next higher court.
- B. Notwithstanding the above, a member of the church shall not have standing to file a complaint under this chapter in the following circumstances:
 - 1. When an ecclesiastical judicial proceeding has been appealed pursuant to Chapter 13 of this Book of Discipline and the member is a party to that ecclesiastical judicial proceeding; or
 - 2. When the member is a Teaching or Ruling Elder who was present at the meeting at which the challenged action was taken, unless a prompt written dissent or protest to the decision by the lower court or commission made the basis of the complaint has been submitted.²⁴⁶

14-3 Initiation of Chapter 14 Case

A complaint initiates a case under this Chapter 14 against a court in the following manner:

- A. A complaint shall only be made when the action or decision of the court is alleged to be procedurally irregular and/or in clear violation of the EPC Constitution.
- B. A complaint shall set forth with particularity all of the facts and reasons why the action or decision of the court is being challenged. This includes reference to the specific provisions of the EPC Constitution, or any applicable bylaws or rules alleged to have been violated.

14-4 Designation of the Parties

The party filing the complaint shall be designated as the “Complainant.”²⁴⁷ The court shall be designated as the “Respondent,” even if the action or decision being challenged is the action or decision of a commission appointed by the court.

14-5 Filing a Complaint

- A. A complaint challenging an action or decision of a court or a commission appointed by the court shall be filed with the Clerk of the next higher court.²⁴⁸
 - 1. A complaint challenging an action or decision taken by a Session or by its duly appointed commission shall be commenced by filing a complaint with the Presbytery in which the church is located or is otherwise aligned.

²⁴⁶ See D.13

²⁴⁷ If multiple parties join together to file a complaint, the plural form, “Complainants,” is allowed

²⁴⁸ Use Form 17 (p. 128)

2. A complaint challenging an action or decision of the Presbytery, or by its duly appointed commission, shall be commenced by filing a complaint with the General Assembly.
- B. A copy of the complaint shall be served upon the lower court by providing its Clerk with a copy thereof at the same time that the complaint is filed with the Clerk of the next higher court.²⁴⁹

14-6 Time Period for Filing a Complaint

A complaint shall be filed with the next higher court no later than thirty (30) days²⁵⁰ after the date of the lower court action or decision made the basis of the complaint. Exceptions to this time period may be allowed in cases when:

- A. The Complainant legitimately had no knowledge of the lower court action or decision within the thirty (30) day period.^{251 252}
- B. The Complainant may otherwise petition the higher court to file an untimely complaint to avoid manifest injustice. The decision on such a petition is solely within the discretion of the higher court.

14-7 Stay Pending Hearing on the Complaint

- A. When a complaint is properly filed regarding a judgment made in a disciplinary action, rather than an appeal under D.13, notice of filing of the complaint shall have the effect of suspending the judgment of the lower court until the case has been finally decided in the higher court. If, however, the matter concerns the purity or peace of the church, the court may, either on its own motion or in response to an application filed by a party to the action and for sufficient reasons duly recorded, stay the action of the lower court until the case is finally decided.
- B. When a complaint is properly filed challenging the action or decision of a lower court in a non-disciplinary proceeding, notice of filing the complaint shall not automatically stay the action or decision of the lower court. However, the higher court, in which the complaint is filed, may, either on its own motion or in response to an application filed by a party to the action and for sufficient reasons duly recorded, stay the action of the lower court until the case is finally decided.

14-8 Court Procedures upon the Filing of a Complaint

- A. When a complaint is filed with the higher court, the court shall determine whether the complaint states grounds on which relief may be granted. If the court determines the complaint does not state grounds on which relief may be granted, it may either:
 1. Dismiss the complaint in its entirety;
 2. Strike portions thereof and proceed forward; or
 3. Order the Complainant to provide a more definite statement of the grounds on which relief may be granted.

²⁴⁹ See Form 17 for Proof of Service.

²⁵¹ Ibid

²⁵² This scenario could take place in actions or decisions of an administrative commission which does not routinely announce its actions to a congregation

- B. When a complaint is filed with the next higher court and it is determined by the court that the complaint states grounds on which relief may be granted, the higher court has the authority:
1. Where circumstances warrant, to void the whole or any part of the lower court action against which the complaint has been made or send the matter back to the lower court with instructions for further consideration or action.
 2. To direct the lower court to appoint one or more representatives to defend the complaint against it, and further direct the appointed representative to file an answer to the complaint no later than thirty (30) days²⁵³ from the order of the higher court. The lower court may request a one-time extension of fifteen (15) days²⁵⁴ to file its answer. The answer shall respond to each allegation of the complaint and shall set forth with specificity all defenses on which the lower courtrelies.

C. The Record of the Case

The lower court shall file the record of the case concurrently with its answer to the complaint pursuant to B.2 above. The Record of the Case shall consist of any and all documents in the lower court's possession relating to the complaint made against it. In every case a full record shall be made, and a copy of it shall be sent to the Complainant. If the Complainant, on motion duly filed, contends that the record is incomplete or incorrect, the Complainant may file a proposed supplement to the Record of the Case within fifteen (15) days²⁵⁵ of the filing of the Record of the Case.

D. Reviewing the Record

Upon receipt of the full and complete record of the case as determined by the higher court, the higher court shall then review the record in its entirety, except any part of it that may be omitted with the mutual consent of the parties and the higher court.

- E. The higher court may seek clarification of matters or direct questions to the Complainant and/or Respondent in writing.

F. Oral Argument and Notice of Hearing

The higher court may permit oral argument. If the higher court determines oral argument will be allowed, it shall provide all parties with reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing on the complaint. This notice may be provided in person or by other means establishing proof of service.

- G. If oral argument is allowed, either party may file a written summary of their argument with the higher court no later than fifteen (15) days²⁵⁶ before the date of the hearing. The Complainant shall have the right of opening and closing the argument.

- H. Deliberations of the Court: Upon conclusion of the arguments, the members of the higher court shall convene in private and each member shall be given an opportunity to express his opinions, deliberate upon, and vote on the question.

14-9 Voting upon a Complaint

A. Specification of the vote

In voting upon a complaint, the vote shall be either to sustain, to sustain in part, or not to sustain.

²⁵⁴ Ibid

²⁵⁵ Ibid

²⁵⁶ Ibid

B. Effect of a vote to sustain or not to sustain

A vote to sustain shall be to sustain each and all of the items or counts of the complaint. A vote not to sustain shall be to deny the relief sought by each count of the complaint. A vote to sustain in part shall be to sustain one or more specific items or counts of the complaint.

C. A majority vote of those members of the court present is required to sustain, not to sustain, or to sustain in part the counts of the complaint.D. Written opinion.

The court may issue a written opinion explaining its decision, which shall become part of the Record of the Case.

E. Right to Vote

No member of the lower court who participated in the action or decision made the basis of the complaint shall hear, deliberate upon, or vote on the allegations of the complaint being heard by the next higher court.

14-10 Counsel

All parties shall have the right of counsel as described in D.9-3.

14-11 Abandonment of Complaint

A Complainant shall be considered to have abandoned his complaint if he does not appear before the higher court in person or by counsel at the time set for the hearing. In such cases the act or decision of the lower court will stand, unless the complainant can provide the court with a satisfactory explanation for his failure to appear or the higher court, in its discretion, chooses to act upon the complaint in the interests of the Church.

14-12 Unchristian Attitude

If any party willfully fails to comply with these rules or demonstrates a litigious or otherwise unchristian attitude, he may be subject to appropriate discipline by the higher court.

14-13 Failure to File the Record

If a lower court shall neglect to file the Record of the Case or any part of it, to the harm of the complainant, it may receive a proper rebuke from the higher court. Thereupon, the act or decision upon which the complaint is based shall be suspended until the record is produced upon which the issue can be fairly heard.

If the lower court shall file a portion of the record by electronic means, the complainant shall have the right to prepare a written transcript of it at his own expense.

DISSENT AND PROTEST

15-1 Dissent

A dissent is a statement on the record by members of a minority objecting to what they believe to be an ill-advised or erroneous judgment. Any expression of dissent shall be accompanied by a statement of the reasons for dissent.²⁵⁷

15-2 Protest

A protest is a more solemn and formal statement on the record by members of a minority, strenuously objecting to what they believe to be an ill-advised or erroneous judgment. Any protest shall be accompanied by a statement of the reasons for protest.²⁵⁸

15-3 Record of Protest or Dissent

If a protest or dissent contains temperate language, and is respectful to the court, it shall be placed in the Record of the Case. The court may, if it believes it is necessary, respond to the protest or dissent. The matter shall be ended unless the persons protesting obtain permission to withdraw or amend their protest.

15-4 Right to Vote Required

None can join in a dissent or protest against a decision of any court except those who had a right to vote in the case.

PART THREE
THE BOOK OF WORSHIP
Ratified by the 35th General Assembly (2015)

CHAPTER 1
MAN'S CHIEF END

1-1 Man's chief and highest end is to glorify God and to enjoy Him forever.²⁵⁹

In giving glory to God, the Christian is to worship God as a private exercise of faith and as a part of the spiritual exercise of individual families. However, each person as a Christian becomes a part of the larger family of God, a community of faith called the Church. Within this family, all believers are called to share a corporate fellowship of praise, love, commitment, and service. This life together finds visible expression within the family and to the world through worship together.

1-2 Called to worship

Since natural understanding reveals that there is a God who is Lord and sovereign over all, that this God is holy, loving, good, merciful and forgiving, it is appropriate for God's own people to hold Him in awe, to praise Him, to pray to Him, to trust in Him, and to magnify Him. While Christians are bound to give God this worship as individuals and as families, it is especially incumbent upon them to join together in corporate worship. In such worship, God's love and power in giving the gift of salvation in Jesus Christ for the remission of sin is to be acknowledged and the dedication of life in service to Him is to be made.

1-3 Called to serve

The worship of God has, as its natural consequence, the response of commitment and service to Him. This finds expression as God's people gather to worship, then scatter into the world to serve Him. Such service includes witnessing to all peoples the marvelous deeds of Him who calls us out of darkness into His wonderful light. It includes, as a first duty, the proclamation of a grace that reaches out to forgive, to redeem, and to give new spiritual power to life for Him through Jesus Christ, and the infilling of the Holy Spirit. It includes a witness to the Word of God revealed in Scripture. It includes a witness to God's love and compassion by embodying that love in acts of ministry to the needs of others. Thus, the Church becomes God's instrument in the world for the fulfilling of His divine purposes for mankind.

1-4 The Church as a body of Christ

As the Church gathers in common worship and fellowship and then goes back into the world to live out its faith and commitment before men, it is acting as the Body of Christ. As a result, the individual Christian, the local church, and the Visible Church in the world, combine to serve the great Head of the Church, Jesus Christ, when it is engaged in its worship and work. To be in Christ means to be involved actively in the Body by building the inner spiritual life of the Church and by extending its ministry to the world. The goal for the Church and each member of it is to have every knee bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, both within the Church and in the whole world.

²⁵⁹ Westminster Shorter Catechism, answer to Question 1

PUBLIC WORSHIP OF GOD

2-1 The acceptable way of worshiping God corporately is established by God Himself. Proper corporate worship is defined and outlined in God's revealed will and is to be followed in giving glory to Him. Proper worship therefore finds its foundation in Holy Scripture. Only God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are to receive such worship.

A. Proper corporate worship shall include

1. The reverent and attentive reading of the Scriptures, the sound preaching, and conscientious hearing of the Word²⁶⁰
2. "Singing of psalms and hymns and spiritual songs"²⁶¹
3. The proper administration and receiving of the sacraments²⁶²
4. Prayer with thanksgiving²⁶³
5. The giving of tithes and offerings²⁶⁴

B. Proper corporate worship of God shall also include times of solemn prayer and fasting,²⁶⁵ as well as special days of praise and thanksgiving.²⁶⁶

C. All worship should at all times and in all places be performed in a holy and respectful manner. The corporate worship of God is not to be carelessly or willfully neglected or forsaken.²⁶⁷

2-2 The Lord's Day

It is appropriate that some amount of time be set aside for the worship of God. God has commanded in His Word that all men in every age keep one day in seven holy to Him as a Sabbath. From the beginning of the world up to the resurrection of Jesus, this Sabbath was the last day of the week. Since the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, it has been changed to the first day of the week and is to be continued until the end of the world as the Christian Sabbath. As a day for remembering and celebrating the resurrection of Christ, it is a continuing witness to God's power over sin and death.²⁶⁸

A. While Christians may worship God at any time and in any place, they especially worship God in places set aside for that purpose. This does not mean other places are less sacred, but it is a witness to the world when Christians gather together in visible demonstration that God is the Lord of all. For that reason, it is appropriate to gather for corporate worship in a place set aside for the special purpose of praising, glorifying and worshiping God.

B. It is the responsibility of all Christians to gather on the Lord's Day for worship that it might be kept holy unto the Lord. Christians should arrange their affairs and use their influence so that no one will be kept unnecessarily from worshiping God or observing the day in an appropriate manner.

2-3 Preparing and gathering for worship

No Christian should come to the Lord's Day unprepared. Hearts should be prepared that worshipers might be ready to hear and receive the Word of the Lord. Daily affairs should be taken care of beforehand and the day should be spent in rest, free from the cares and concerns of the ordinary works and words. Thoughts should not be concerned with worldly activities, but should focus on the things of the Lord. Plans should be made to participate in public and private worship. Works should be limited to the duties of necessity and mercy.

- A. As the people gather, they should do so in a quiet and reverent manner, remembering beforehand to pray for the Minister, for those who gather to worship, for those who are providentially hindered, and for themselves.
- B. All should be present at the appointed hour, unite in all the parts of the worship, and depart only when the benediction has been pronounced. The conduct of all should be reverent, and no unbecoming conduct should be practiced.

2-4 The order of corporate worship

The people of God have been set free from all forms of bondage, including bondage to rigid rules and regulations for worship. However, the people are to remember to do all things decently and in order that all may participate, and God may be glorified. For the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, this means no local church is required to follow any predetermined or rigid form of worship. However, it also means that worship should be conducted in such a way that persons are not hindered in their worship and that it not be an offense to God.

- A. The Pastor, while advised to consult with the Session, has the duty and responsibility to determine the order, sequence, elements, and proportion of the service that each shall have in public worship. In making those decisions about worship, the Pastor shall be reminded of guidance for worship given in Scripture, the Reformed heritage in which we stand, of the customs, circumstances, and particular needs of the congregation, as well as the admonitions and limitations set by the Book of Worship.²⁶⁹
- B. All who come to worship should actively participate. The worship should be so designed that there is common participation when all share in the various elements of praise to God. Participation by various members of the local church is encouraged to demonstrate that worship is a privilege of all and not relegated to a select few.
- C. Each time of worship should give expression to redemptive work of Christ. It is also appropriate to give special emphasis to certain times of the Church year that highlight specific elements of redemption.²⁷⁰
- D. It is always appropriate to join with other parts of the Church in the celebration of certain days, seasons, and other special occasions. However, participation should always be in conformity with Scripture and in keeping with the heritage of the Reformed faith. It is always appropriate for the Session to set special days for prayer and fasting, for thanksgiving and praise, for remembering our heritage, and for recognizing the civic duties and responsibilities of the people of God.

2-5 The Word of God in worship

²⁶⁹ W.2-7B

²⁷⁰ Such times, common to the Church Universal, will be included in the Manual of Services, Procedures, and Forms currently under development

Scriptures. Although the light of nature, and the works of creation and providence so manifest God in all His power and glory as to leave mankind without excuse, to know God and His will in a way sufficient for salvation necessitates God's self-revelation made in Holy Scripture. The Scriptures are for the sure establishment of the Church, as well as its comfort, and protects it from the corruption of the flesh, the malice of Satan and the world.

- A. Scripture is given by the inspiration of God and is to be the rule of faith and life for all Christians. The authority of the Scriptures, for which it ought to be believed and obeyed, does not depend upon any other than God Himself. The full persuasion and assurance of the infallible truth and divine authority of the Scriptures is the inner working of the Holy Spirit in the heart. All that is necessary to be known, believed, and observed for salvation is clearly evident in Scripture.²⁷¹
- B. The supreme Word of God is Jesus Christ, who for the salvation of mankind came and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth. He is pre-eminently revealed in the Scriptures and in order to truly know Him the Scriptures must be heard. Thus, the reading of the Scriptures becomes an essential part of worship.
- C. Reading of the Word should be done with a sense of awe and reverence. A prayer for illumination prior to reading is appropriate in which prayer is made for a sensitive and open heart to the leading and speaking of the Holy Spirit. Ordinarily the Scriptures in worship should be read by the Pastor, or some other appropriate person who has been invited to do so.
- D. The choice of passages and their length to be read from Scripture belongs to the Pastor. Since the whole counsel of God should be heard by the people, care should be exercised to read from both the Old and New Testaments. It is appropriate to use a lectionary in accomplishing this purpose.

2-6 Sound preaching of the Word

The ordinary worship of God always includes the sound preaching and conscientious hearing of the Word in obedience to God. Such preaching should always open the Word of God in such a way that the hearer can respond with clear understanding and simple faith. In dealing with matters in which there is a question about the true and full sense of any Scripture, the Preacher is to remember that the only infallible rule of interpretation of Scripture is Scripture itself.

- A. Because preaching is closely related to the reading of Scripture, it is appropriate for the sermon to follow closely the reading of the Word and to be based upon it.
- B. The sermon should be related to the congregation. It should address the real issues of that community of faith and should include practical application to life. It should be framed in such terms that all present can understand. Such preaching demands study, meditation, prayer, and time for adequate preparation. Above all, that which is preached should be exemplified in the life of the Preacher.
- C. Since the reading of Scriptures requires attentiveness and the sermon conscientious hearing, the worshipers have a duty also. As God speaks through the Word as it is read and preached, penetrating hearts,²⁷² giving guidance in the Christian life, building up in the faith,²⁷³ the worshiper has a solemn duty to be open and receptive to God's revelation. Even as the Preacher is to make proper preparation, so the worshiper is to be prepared in every way to hear and respond.

²⁷³ 2 Timothy 3:16

- D. While all of the elements of public worship are important and should not be neglected, no worship is complete without the reading and preaching of the Word. For this reason, the Pastor and Session should be careful to protect the pulpit in each local church that the Word be truly preached. No person should be permitted to preach to a local church without the invitation of the Pastor and the Session, or the Session if there is no Pastor.

2-7 Music in Worship

Singing of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with grace in the heart²⁷⁴ is a necessary and indispensable part of the corporate worship of the people of God. The whole congregation is the true choir singing praises and giving glory to God. For this reason, corporate singing is not to be neglected. Emphasis should be given to the content of the hymns that all might sing with understanding.

- A. Music is not an end in itself, but should serve the whole purpose of giving glory and praise to God. Where there is a choir auxiliary to the congregation, it should be remembered that it is representing the whole congregation before God and is not performing for the people. For this reason, it is appropriate for the choir to be composed of those from the local church as far as possible. Those who participate in a choir inevitably represent a special calling in the life of a congregation and should exhibit a gracious Christian life that brings honor to God. Participants in the choir should have such a character and conduct themselves in such a way that their lives will not be a barrier or hindrance to those who worship.
- B. The Pastor has final authority over all parts of the service, including the music. Where there is a music director or other such person working in music, that person shall always consult with the Pastor concerning the music or worship.²⁷⁵ If there is no Pastor, the Session has final authority over the service.²⁷⁶
- C. Care should be exercised in selecting music so that all may rejoice in the Lord, singing and making melody in their hearts. Lyrics should be appropriate and reflect Reformed theology.
- D. The use of various musical instruments in worship is appropriate unless disapproved by the Session. However, it is to be remembered that all music, including instruments, should be aids and not hindrances to or substitutes for congregational participation.
- E. As a community of praise, a congregation should ordinarily conclude its worship with congregational singing suitable for the occasion prior to the benediction.

2-8 Prayer in worship

The Pastor ordinarily has the duty to lead the people in prayer during times of worship, although others may be invited to do so. The one who leads the prayer does so on behalf of the people, representing them before God. In order for prayer to be accepted it must be made in the name of Jesus, by the help of the Holy Spirit, and be made in accordance with the will of God.²⁷⁷ It is to be made for things that are lawful for God's people and should be made with understanding, reverence, humility, fervor, faith, love, and perseverance. It should be made in a language that is common to all.

- A. In preparing to lead in prayer, the Pastor should give as careful attention to preparation for prayer as for preaching. The duty of voicing the prayers of the people is a solemn one and should be performed with the dignity befitting the occasion. The Pastor's own prayer life, the study of the great prayers of the Church, a close acquaintance with Scripture, the

²⁷⁴ Ephesians 5:19; Colossians 3:16

²⁷⁵ See W.2-4A

²⁷⁶ See G.18-3A

²⁷⁷ John 14:13-14, 16:23-24; Romans 8:26-27

reading of devotional classics, all combine to enhance effectiveness as the Pastor represents the people before God in prayer.

- B. The people are also to prepare themselves for worship and prayer. During those times when the Pastor is leading in prayer, their hearts should give assent to the thoughts that are voiced and their demeanor should be reverent.
- C. Those who lead in prayer need not be limited to fixed forms of prayer in worship and the Pastor shall determine the emphasis given to the various parts of prayer. However, in the public worship of God the prayers should include adoration, confession, thanksgiving, supplication, intercession and the communion of saints.
 1. Adoration is the offering glory and honor and praise to the holiness and majesty of God for His works of creation and providence, and for the fullness of His revelation in Jesus Christ.
 2. Confession is the voicing of sins common to all with opportunity for the people to confess silently private and individual sins and shortcomings, both of commission and omission.
 3. Assurance of Pardon is the appropriate response to confession. God's people can approach His throne of holiness because in Jesus they are assured of His grace and mercy. Those who believe in Jesus as Savior, who confess their sins, who are truly penitent and sorry for all their offenses, and who intend by God's gift of spiritual power through the Holy Spirit to turn from their evil ways, are assured of forgiveness. Therefore, it is the duty of the Pastor in joyous, affirming voice to declare unto such their forgiveness. It is then appropriate for the people of God to express their own joy and gratitude in the mercy of God by singing some hymn or response such as the Doxology or the Gloria Patri.
 4. Thanksgiving is the expression of gratitude to God for all His blessings, specific and general as well as temporal and spiritual. God's gracious providence should be remembered, and special thanksgiving should be made for His unspeakable gift in Jesus Christ.
 5. Supplication is the expression of the requests of the people, both corporate and personal, for those things needful for life, for spiritual growth, for help in trouble, for health in sickness, for the development of the fruit of the Spirit, and for all those blessings necessary for witness and service.
 6. Intercession is the expression of requests made in behalf of others, especially praying for the visible Church, the Kingdom of Christ on earth, for the civil government including the president, the congress, the judiciary, the governor, and all those in positions of authority. It shall include petition for widows and orphans and for all those who have need of God.
 7. Communion of Saints is comprised of prayers of gratitude for those who have witnessed a good confession and gone to be with the Lord. The prayer should remember the invisible Church whose members number those believers of all ages of all times. It is always appropriate for the prayers of the people of God to conclude with the Lord's Prayer.

2-9 The offerings of the people of God²⁷⁸

The acknowledgment that God is the Author of every good gift and that His people are but stewards of His grace should find expression in the offerings of the congregation. In returning to God a proper stewardship of His gifts, the congregation is to be reminded that they are also held accountable not only for a proper stewardship, but for the use of all they have and are. The giving of the people of God in response to His goodness and love should find expression in three principal areas.

A. The offering of self

Stewardship begins with offering of self to God, heart, mind, body, and soul.²⁷⁹ Each service may properly include a time for rededication or for commitment. It is always appropriate to present individuals with an opportunity for public response to the proclamation of the Gospel by public profession of faith or reaffirmation. Such public profession or reaffirmation should be followed by church membership according to the procedure established by the congregation.²⁸⁰

B. The offering of tithes and gifts

Each worship service should include a time when the community of believers may present their tithes and gifts to God. It is a visible expression of the commitment of believers to the extension of the Gospel, the work of ministry, and the support of the Church of Jesus Christ.²⁸¹

C. The offering of service to others:

Each service of worship should remind the worshipers of God's call to service in ministry to others and provide opportunity from time to time for commitment to special service. This may include the announcement of opportunities within the common life of the congregation to serve.

THE SACRAMENTS

3-1 In the gospel only two sacraments are ordained by Christ. They are Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

A. Administration of sacraments

Ordinarily, only a lawfully ordained Minister²⁸² may administer the sacraments, but such do not act in their own right, rather on behalf of Christ and His Church. In the absence of a lawfully ordained Minister, authority to administer the sacraments may be exercised by Ruling Elders with consent of the Session or by a Commissioned Pastor with consent of the Presbytery (G.9-11), or by a non-ordained global worker of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church examined and commissioned by the General Assembly (G.20-4A.5).²⁸³ This privilege should be exercised only in extraordinary circumstances in which a lawfully ordained Minister is not reasonably available.

B. Nature of sacraments

Sacraments are holy signs and seals of the Covenant of Grace, representing Christ and all His benefits. They confirm our relationship to Him and represent a visible difference between those who belong to the Church and the rest of the world. There is a spiritual or sacramental relationship in the sacraments between the sign (water and bread and wine) and what is signified. The power revealed in the sacraments does not reside in them or in the one administering them, but is in the work of the Holy Spirit and in the promise of God who gives benefits to those who worthily receive them. Thus, the sacraments are powerful and effective in the life of the recipient because of God's Word which instituted them. For this reason, the sacraments should not be neglected or omitted.²⁸⁴

3-2 The Sacrament of Baptism

Baptism is a sacrament of the New Testament, ordained by Jesus Christ. By the act of Baptism, a person becomes a part of the Visible Church, for it is a sign and a seal of the Covenant of Grace for believers and their children. As a sign it proclaims God's forgiveness and our redemption in Jesus Christ. As a seal, God marks us as adopted children of our heavenly Father. It indicates our engrafting into Christ, our rebirth, the remission of sins, and our ability by the power of the Spirit to walk in newness of life. This sacrament is to be continued by God's people until the end of the world.²⁸⁵

A. Candidates for Baptism

Those eligible to receive this sacrament are those who have professed their faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and have promised to be obedient to Him, along with the infants of one or both believing parents. Also, those who have legal responsibility for an infant have the right to present the child for Baptism.

B. Method of Baptism

²⁸² A lawfully ordained minister in good standing of a non-EPC church may be authorized to serve communion in an EPC church, with the concurrence of the Presbytery (Acts of Assembly 94-22 (p. 189) and 14-06 (p. 196) See also Westminster Confession of Faith 27-4 (EPC version in Modern English)

²⁸³ The clause regarding sacramental authority for certain global workers was ratified by the 36th General Assembly (2016); see also Act of Assembly 16-05 (p. 214) and Rules for Assembly X.10-1B.2 (p. 169)

²⁸⁴ See Westminster Confession of Faith, Chapter 27

²⁸⁵ See Westminster Confession of Faith, Chapter 28

In the sacrament of Baptism, water is to be used. Immersion or dipping the person into the water is not essential and Baptism is ordinarily administered by pouring or sprinkling.

C. Effectiveness of baptism

God's grace and salvation are not inseparably connected to this sacrament. Some who are baptized will be lost and some not baptized will be saved. Nevertheless, it is a great sin to make light of or to neglect this sacrament. A great benefit is lost when Baptism is neglected, for God promises to bless His people through this sacrament. The effectiveness of Baptism is not tied to the moment it is administered, yet God who keeps His promises confers His grace according to His own will and in His appointed time.

D. Administration of Baptism

The grace received through Baptism does not come from the tradition or form of administration, and since it is not dependent upon the devoutness or the intention of the person administering it, Baptism should be administered only once.

E. Time and place of administration

1. Since Baptism is the act by which a person is solemnly admitted into the visible Church, the regular administration of the sacrament should ordinarily be in the presence of the family of believers. At that time, the benefits and promises should be set forth. The people should be reminded of Baptism as a sign and seal of the Covenant of Grace, of our engrafting into Christ, and of the need to yield to God through Jesus Christ to walk in newness of life.
2. However, if circumstances justify administering the sacrament at a time and place other than public worship, the Teaching Elder²⁸⁶ may judge. In any event, at least one Ruling Elder should be present to represent the congregation and to assume on behalf of the congregation the commitment required by that congregation in the baptismal vows. No such private administration should convey the impression of baptismal regeneration or its necessity for salvation, and those present are to be reminded that Baptism is not inseparably connected with God's grace and salvation.
3. Ordinarily the Session shall authorize and approve Baptisms. In exceptional cases, when it is not possible to convene the Session for approval, a Pastor of the church may perform the Baptism without approval of the Session. If at all possible, a Ruling Elder should be present. That Pastor shall report the Baptism to the Session.
4. All Baptisms shall be recorded in the permanent record of the Session.

F. Baptism for Adults

When a person who was not baptized as an infant, desires to profess faith in Christ and be engrafted into His Body, being admitted into the visible Church, the sacrament of Baptism shall be received.

1. Proper instruction

Those persons desiring to be baptized shall receive necessary instruction concerning the meaning of the sacrament, the obligations of Church membership, the need to live by faith, to walk in holiness and righteousness, and to act in brotherly love toward those who have been baptized by the same Spirit into the same Body. The Session shall authorize the Baptism of the petitioner only when it is fully satisfied as to that person's full intention to be obedient to Christ and a profession of faith has been made.

²⁸⁶ In the Book of Worship the term "Teaching Elder" is used in contexts where the reference is to those ordained in the EPC. The term "Minister" is broader, designating those ordained in the EPC or in other ecclesiastical traditions. The term "a Pastor" designates any of the EPC Teaching Elders in a church, whether Pastor, Associate, or Assistant

2. Minister's duty

The Minister shall remind those present of the meaning of the sacrament as a sign and seal of engrafting, remission of sin, regeneration by the Spirit, adoption, and resurrection to everlasting life. All should be reminded to be thankful for their own Baptism with its benefits and privileges, to be humble because of sin and walking contrary to the grace given us, and to draw strength from the death and resurrection of Christ, into whom we were baptized.

3. Recipient's duty

Prior to Baptism, the recipient shall make affirmative response in professing faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, affirming intention to walk in newness of life as one of those who have given their names to Christ. The recipient shall further affirm faithfulness and support of the Church and of the local church.

4. Congregation's role

In receiving a person into its fellowship and in acknowledging that person to be a part of the covenant community, the congregation assumes responsibilities toward that person. As Christ commanded His Church to baptize and teach, the congregation shall affirm its duty and commitment to the recipient publicly. The following or like question shall be proposed to the congregation by the Minister: "Do you, the members of this congregation, and in the name of the visible Church of our Lord Jesus Christ, take responsibility for the continued Christian nurture of _____, promising to set a godly example by your own life, and to pray for _____ in this new life of faith?"

5. The administration of the sacrament

After asking God's blessings to attend the sacrament, the Minister shall then administer Baptism with water, either by pouring, sprinkling, or immersion and without other ceremony. The Minister shall use the following or likewords: "_____, on your profession of faith and promise of obedience to Jesus Christ, I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen." The sacrament is to be concluded by a prayer.

G. Baptism for children²⁸⁷

1. Role of the parents

One or both believing parents, or a believer(s) exercising the authority of a parent(s), are encouraged to present their children, prior to the time when children are able to make their own profession of faith, for the Sacrament of Baptism, which should not be unnecessarily delayed.²⁸⁸ Sacraments are holy signs and seals of the Covenant of Grace and in part confirm our position with and in Christ and demonstrate to the world the visible difference between it and those who belong to the Church.

2. Role of the Session

- a. It is the duty of the Session and Teaching Elders to offer instruction to the parents concerning the nature and meaning of the sacrament, the obligations assumed, and the role the congregation plays with the parents in the spiritual nurture and growth of the child.

²⁸⁷ While traditionally called "infant Baptism," the Book of Worship uses "child" or "children" to include both infants and those who are beyond their infancy and eligible for Baptism but not yet of age to give a credible profession of faith

²⁸⁸ Genesis 17:11, Colossians 3:11, Galatians 3:26-27, Acts 16:15, 33

- b. Ordinarily the Session shall authorize and approve the Baptism of infants and children of active members of the local church, except in such cases as the Minister may deem inexpedient. In that case the Minister shall report the Baptism to the Session. All Baptisms shall be recorded in the permanent record of the Session and the child's name inscribed on the baptized roll.²⁸⁹
 - c. The Session may authorize those on the inactive roll to present children for Baptism. It may also require evidence of the intent of the petitioner(s) to follow the vows to be taken by meeting the requirements for restoration to the active roll.
 - d. The Session may grant permission to believers who are not members to present infants for Baptism, provided such persons are members in good standing in some true branch of the visible Church. In such cases, the Church Session shall be careful to notify the governing body of the particular church in which those believers hold membership, of the Baptism of the infant.
 - e. It is the continuing obligation of the Session to watch over the children of the congregation, to provide for that spiritual nurture necessary to grow in grace, and to provide opportunities, such as a communicants' class, where the children of the congregation may come to profess their faith and be prepared to assume the obligations and privileges of full participation in the life of the congregation.
3. The role of the congregation with the parents
- The Baptism of a child requires a two-fold affirmation, one by the parents and one by the covenant community.
- a. The parents are to take vows indicating their commitment to bring the child up in the faith and in the loving discipline of the Lord.
 - b. The congregation commits itself to provide nurture, support, and a godly example in assuming with the parents the spiritual oversight of the child.
 - c. Parents and congregation together are to encourage growth in grace until the child, having become of age, claims Jesus Christ as personal Lord and Savior.
 - d. The Evangelical Presbyterian Church does not recognize godparents since the members of the local church assume with the parent's responsibility for the spiritual life of the child. However, it is permitted to have persons who might become the responsible parental authority for the child to assume the vows of obligation with the parents. In such a case, the persons participating with the parents should have the same qualifications for membership in the visible Church.
4. Administration of the Sacrament of Baptism
- a. The Minister shall remind the congregation:
 - 1) of the meaning and nature of Baptism, they should be reminded to remember the significance of their own Baptism,
 - 2) of the significance, benefits and privileges of their own Baptism,
 - 3) of their failures contrary to the grace of Baptism and for God's mercy and forgiveness
 - 4) to recommitment themselves to their endeavor to live by faith.
 - b. The parents or other responsible person shall assume the following or like vows of duty and obligation:

²⁸⁹ G.8-3A

- 1) Do you acknowledge _____'s need of the cleansing blood of Jesus Christ, and the renewing grace of the Holy Spirit?
 - 2) Do you claim God's covenant promises and benefits for _____ and by faith do you look to the Lord Jesus Christ for the salvation of your child as you do your own?
 - 3) Do you now unreservedly dedicate your child to God, and do you promise by relying on God's power and grace through the Holy Spirit to live an exemplary life before your child?
 - 4) Do you commit yourself to pray with and for your child, to teach your child the Scriptures and the great articles of our faith in Jesus Christ?
 - 5) Do you promise to use every means provided by God, including faithful participation in the life of the Church, to bring your child up in the loving discipline of the Lord?
- c. The congregation acts for the whole family of God and assumes responsibility for the child by answering the following or like questions:
- 1) Do you, the members of this congregation, acting for yourselves and in behalf of the whole Body of Christ, assume responsibility with these parents for the spiritual nurture of this child?
 - 2) Do you commit yourself to set a godly example before this child, to provide as far as you are able, all that is necessary to the end that this child may one day confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord?
- d. The Minister shall set apart the water from all common uses to this holy use and mystery and pray for a blessing upon the Sacrament. Then the Minister shall use the following or like formula without adding any other ceremony and shall baptize the child with water, saying: "_____, child of the covenant, I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen." The Sacrament is to be concluded by a prayer.

3-3 The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper was instituted by Jesus on the night of His betrayal. It is to be celebrated until the end of the world as a perpetual remembrance of what He did for mankind on the cross. The Lord's Supper is a seal of all those benefits of Calvary for believers, and signifies their spiritual growth and nourishment. It is a bond and pledge of the communion of believers with Jesus Christ and with each other as parts of the Church.

A. Nature of the Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is in no way a re-offering of Christ nor a sacrifice. It commemorates Christ's once for all offering of Himself, and in celebrating the sacrament the people offer praise to God for what has already been done.

B. Nature of the elements

While sometimes called by the name of what they represent, the body and blood of Christ, yet they retain the essential nature of bread and wine. While the elements are to be set apart for the use ordained by Christ, this sacramental use gives no special quality to the physical elements. In the Lord's Supper, Christ is uniquely and spiritually present and is discerned by the faith of the believer.²⁹⁰

C. Different names for the Lord's Supper

²⁹⁰ Westminster Confession of Faith 29-7

Historically Christians have used different names to describe the Lord's Supper. However, these names all signify the same sacrament. In addition to being called the Lord's Supper, it is called the Breaking of the Bread, Holy Communion, and the Eucharist (Thanksgiving).

D. The significance of the Lord's Supper

Those who receive the Lord's Supper spiritually feed upon Christ as the true bread, remembering and, by God's grace, renewing the covenantal benefits of Christ's death on their behalf.²⁹¹ In that sense, the sacrament conveys what it signifies when it is received by faith. Those who unworthily receive the sacrament do not receive what is signified. Rather, they are guilty of the body and blood of Jesus and condemn themselves. For this reason, the Session should be careful to refuse the Lord's Supper to those who are ignorant of its meaning or who are known to be ungodly.²⁹²

E. The frequency of the Lord's Supper

The Session is responsible for determining the frequency of celebration of the Lord's Supper. It is proper to observe it as often as each Lord's Day, but it should be observed at least quarterly. The Session should exercise care that the sacrament be not neglected.

F. The place of the Lords Supper

The Lord's Supper is a part of the worship of God's people. For that reason, it should be celebrated ordinarily as a part of a regular service of worship. The observance of the sacrament should always be in conjunction with the reading and preaching of the Word, with the prayers of the people accompanied with hymns of praise.

G. Special times of celebration:

1. With those who are ill.

The Session may authorize the Lord's Supper to be celebrated with those who are ill. At least one member of the Session should be present on such occasions. The Minister shall be careful to give some brief explanation of the meaning of the sacrament.

2. Times and places other than worship on the Lord's Day

The Session may authorize the celebration of the sacrament at a time and place other than the ordinary place of worship on the Lord's Day, provided that the Session is represented. In addition,

3. Courts of the Church

The Presbytery and General Assembly may authorize the celebration of the Lord's Supper at a meeting of the court or at some service or worship under the authority of the court.

H. Preparation for the Lord's Supper

The Session should give at least one week's notice prior to the celebration of the sacrament. It is always appropriate for the Session to provide instruction in the nature and meaning of the sacrament and to solemnly warn those who are not spiritually prepared. The people are to prepare themselves by the examination of their inner spiritual life, of their present relationship to Christ, to confess and repent of known sins, to forgive those who have offended them, to pray earnestly for the renewing grace of the Holy Spirit, and to draw near with a true heart in the full assurance of faith.²⁹³

²⁹¹ Genesis 17:7; Galatians 3:16-17

²⁹² 1 Corinthians 11:20-22, 27-31

²⁹³ 1 Corinthians 11:17-32

I. Invitation to partake

The Minister shall invite all true believers in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, including those from other congregations that are a part of the true Church to partake in the Lord's Supper. All should be reminded of the need to trust in Jesus Christ as Lord, to repent of sin, and to covenant once more to live as followers of Jesus. Those who are ignorant in their knowledge of Christ or who are living ungodly and unrepentant lives should be warned of the serious consequences for those who unworthily partake.

J. Baptized children may be admitted to the Lord's Supper provided they have appeared before the Session and professed their faith in a manner acceptable to the Session. At its discretion, the Session may admit such persons to full membership.²⁹⁴K. The elements

Adequate preparation should be made of the elements to be served. It is appropriate for a large piece of bread to be made ready for breaking by the Minister and a cup with pouring vessel for the pouring of the wine/juice during the commemoration. The bread and wine/juice may be placed on a table and covered with a fine white cloth, or they may be brought forward and placed on the table when the time of celebration comes.

L. Administration of the Lord's Supper:

1. The words of institution shall be read, either from the Gospels or from 1 Corinthians 11.
2. The bread and wine/juice shall be blessed and be set apart from ordinary use to this holy use and mystery.
3. The bread shall be broken before the people as a visible demonstration of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ upon the cross.

M. Distributing the elements

It is proper for the people to gather at the table, but ordinarily the Ruling Elders (or others appointed by the Session) shall distribute the elements to the worshipers. A court of the Church may appoint godly people to distribute the elements when there are no Ruling Elders available.

N. The conclusion of the Lord's Supper

Following a time for private prayer and self-examination the service may conclude with a hymn of praise and thanksgiving and the people dismissed with a benediction. Following the celebration of the Lord's Supper, as an act of gratitude to God and renewed love for others, it is always appropriate to receive a special offering for the poor or for some other worthy cause. Such offerings should be ordered only by the Session.

CHAPTER 4

THE WORSHIP OF GOD AT OTHER TIMES

4-1 Time of worship

The principal time of worship for the people of God is the Sabbath, or the Lord's Day,²⁹⁵ when the resurrection of Christ is celebrated and commemorated.²⁹⁶ However, the Session has the right and duty to assemble the people for worship on other days and at other times. The Session may order such assemblies at regular times or for the celebration of special events. At such special times of worship, the ordinary parts of worship²⁹⁷ will normally be observed, although the Session may call for special emphasis on matters of particular concern.

4-2 Days of prayer and fasting

The Lord Jesus Christ set the example for God's people in a time of fasting. Throughout the New Testament there is frequent indication that Christians in the early Church practiced fasting. Therefore, the Church will do well in its spiritual life if it follows this example. The Session should be diligent and sensitive to those times when such a special day is called for and should be eager to order such an event. Christians individually and in particular families should observe special days when fasting is practiced.

A. When called by the Session

When the Session calls a day of prayer and fasting, the purpose of the occasion should be announced, and adequate time given in order that members may prepare themselves. It is appropriate on such occasions for services of public worship to be conducted during the day set aside. All the members under the authority of the Session should make diligent effort to conscientiously participate in the day set aside.

B. Private or family observance of a day of prayer and fasting

It is entirely proper for individuals or for particular families to enter into a day of prayer and fasting. Christians should exercise such an option with some regularity as an offering to God and as a reminder of total dependency upon God for all one has and is.

C. When called by a higher court

It is proper and right for a Presbytery or for the General Assembly to call a day of prayer and fasting on behalf of some occasion it deems proper. In such event, the court shall call all the people within its jurisdiction to join in the special time of prayer and fasting.

4-3 Days of thanksgiving

A joyful and grateful heart is pleasing to the Lord and brings glory to Him. Because of God's infinite love, His providential care, and His continued working in the affairs of His people, it is appropriate to observe special times of praise and thanksgiving. During such times there shall be special services of worship, times of prayer, and the lifting of the hearts to God by all His people. Such occasions shall be ordered by the Session, by another court of the Church for those under its jurisdiction, and by individuals or families who have been especially blessed.

²⁹⁵ See Westminster Confession of Faith 21-7

²⁹⁶ See W.2-2

²⁹⁷ See W.2-1

4-4 Individual worship

It is incumbent upon each Christian to develop the practice of daily worship of God. Such a time should include prayer, reading of the Scriptures, examination of one's inner spiritual life, and serious meditation. The individual Christian should strive to improve knowledge of faith and of the Church by reading and studying the documents of the faith of the Church, by learning its government and worship, as well as its history.

4-5 Family Worship

Each individual family should worship together. Such times, done regularly and faithfully, should include the reading together of God's Word, times of prayer, times of sharing with one another God's working in individual hearts, and times of doing together the things of the Lord. It is always appropriate for a family to sing together in praise of God's goodness and mercy. Families ordinarily should worship together in the public worship of God in the local church.

CHAPTER 5

CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE

5-1 Marriage ordained by God

While marriage is not a sacrament of the Church, it is ordained of God and intended to last as long as the couple shall live.²⁹⁸ God has designed marriage to be between a man and a woman for the mutual help of husband and wife and for the development of their moral and spiritual character, and for the propagation of children who are to be reared in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

5-2 Who should marry?

A man and a woman who are able to give their consent may marry unless their blood relationship is forbidden by Scripture.²⁹⁹ The husband and wife should share a common Christian faith and a common intention to build a Christian home. Christians would be wise to seek as a husband or a wife those who share a common faith and heritage.

5-3 The remarriage of divorced persons

It is the divine intention that persons entering the marriage covenant become inseparably united, thus allowing for no dissolution save that caused by death of either husband or wife. However, the weaknesses of one or both partners may lead to gross and persistent denial of the marriage vows, yet only in cases of extreme, unrepentant, and irremediable unfaithfulness (physical or spiritual) should separation or divorce be considered. The remarriage of divorced persons may be sanctioned by the church, in keeping with the redemptive Gospel of Jesus Christ, when sufficient penitence for sin and failure is evident, and a firm posture of an endeavor after Christian marriage is manifested. Divorced persons should give prayerful thought to discover if God's vocation for them is to remain unmarried, since one failure in this realm raises serious questions as to the rightness and wisdom of undertaking another union. If the Minister has any questions about the readiness of divorced persons to remarry according to these principles, the Session should be consulted, and its concurrence sought.³⁰⁰

5-4 The church's role in Christian marriage

Marriage ordinarily should be performed in the place of common worship by an ordained Minister of the Church, and with the family of faith present. In approving the marriage, the Church affirms the divine institution of marriage and invokes God's blessings upon those who enter the relationship according to God's Word. As the Church hears the vows a couple make to one another, it should assure the couple of God's grace within their new relationship.

5-5 The Minister's role in Christian marriage

A. It is the duty of the Minister to consult with the man and the woman contemplating marriage. They should be given godly advice concerning the establishment of a Christian home, as well as instruction in the meaning of marriage in God's sight, and the biblical teachings of the roles, duties, and relationships within the home.³⁰¹ The Minister should give such other counsel which seems needful, wise, and helpful that the couple may be well prepared for their new estate in marriage.

²⁹⁸ Matthew 19:4-6

²⁹⁹ Leviticus 18:6-24

³⁰⁰ See also Westminster Confession Chapter 24 and EPC Position Paper on Human Sexuality

³⁰¹ Ephesians 5:21-33; Colossians 3:18-21

- B. Should the Minister be convinced that genuine faith is absent, that full responsibility for one another is missing, or that the blessings of God are not likely to rest upon such a relationship, the marriage ceremony should not be performed.
- C. It is the duty of the Minister to meet all civil requirements in performing and properly registering the marriage. In addition, the Minister shall report the marriage to the Session which shall record it in its permanent records. It is wise for a Minister to keep a personal record of marriages which includes the names, the dates, the place, and the civil body issuing the authority to marry.

5-6 The service of Christian marriage

- A. The marriage service is an act of worship. For that reason, it is under the direction of the Minister only and shall always be characterized by reverence throughout.
- B. Music should be appropriate to the occasion and the Session or the Minister may determine what music is acceptable. Appropriate hymns sung by all are always proper.
- C. The decorations and all appointments should not be ostentatious or so call attention to themselves as to distract the worshipers from their duty to God on such a solemn occasion.
- D. The service itself should be conducted with dignity and reverence, beginning with prayers for the new home being established and for the members of the new family.
- E. Vows shall be exchanged, appropriate Scriptures read, and a charge may be given which sets forth both the duties and privileges of marriage.
- F. The Minister shall conclude the ceremony by publicly declaring that the couple is now husband and wife and the benediction shall be pronounced.

5-7 The consecration of a civil marriage

Persons who have been married by a civil authority may desire to have that marriage consecrated by a service in the Church, performed by a Minister. It is proper to perform such services, provided all the conditions for a man and woman preparing for marriage are observed. A marriage should never be sanctioned that does not meet the criteria laid down herein.

CHAPTER 6

CHRISTIAN BURIAL OF THE DEAD

6-1 The body of a believer after death.

It is permissible for Christians to dispose of bodies by burial, cremation, or donation for scientific purposes.³⁰²

6-2 The funeral service.

- A. In a funeral service the remains of the deceased are present. It is a worship service that focuses upon God who has raised Jesus Christ from the dead and gives believers genuine hope of their own resurrection.³⁰³ It is a time for the reaffirmation of the Church's faith and a time for expressing joy in the assurance of eternal life.
- B. Ostentatious decorations and display of flowers should be avoided.
- C. The casket of the deceased should not be open during the service.
- D. Ordinarily a funeral or memorial service should be conducted in the place of common worship. As this is the place for Baptism and marriage, it is also the place where witness to faith in the resurrection is made.
- E. A Christian funeral service is entirely under the control of the Minister. It should include:
 - 1. The reading of appropriate passages of Scripture, from both the Old and New Testament
 - 2. An exposition of some passage of Scripture by the Minister
 - 3. Prayers of thanksgiving for the life of the deceased and prayers of intercession for the bereaved
 - 4. The singing of appropriate songs
 - 5. A reminder to all of death for every person judgment to come, along with a solemn reminder that each must repent and turn to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior to gain eternal life
- F. It is not appropriate to include a civic or fraternal rite in this service. If such is desired, it should be conducted at another time and place.

6-3 The memorial service

The memorial service should contain all the elements of a funeral service, but the remains of the deceased are not present.

6-4 Graveside service

A graveside service is an abbreviated funeral service at the place of burial, followed by committal either immediately or at a later time.

6-5 The committal

Ordinarily the committal should be reserved for the immediate family and close friends. It may be performed either before or after the worship service. It should consist of a few selected passages of Scripture, a brief prayer of thanksgiving for the life of the deceased, a committing of the body to its place of rest, and a committing of the soul to God, concluding all with a benediction.

³⁰² See Westminster Confession of Faith, chapter 32

³⁰³ 1 Corinthians 15:19; 2 Corinthians 1:22

CHAPTER 7

SERVICE TO GOD

7-1 Service as Worship

Our worship of God is not complete unless it is extended in loving service to others. Such ministries of compassion and concern for the wellbeing of others are not in themselves the gospel, they are the fruit of the gospel and may embody and convey the gospel in a real way. It is to be remembered that good deeds done for others that do not include the sharing of what God has done in Jesus Christ are inadequate and incomplete. However, to share the Good News and fail to show concern and compassion for others' needs is to present an incomplete gospel and may cause people to call in question the Good News itself. Faith and works are inseparably linked and are incomplete without one another.³⁰⁴

7-2 The Service of Evangelism

The primary mission of the Church is to share the gospel of salvation with all the nations of the world.³⁰⁵ This is the mission of every Christian, every local church, and the whole Church. Each court of the Church should encourage, train, and lead those under its jurisdiction in the service of evangelism.

7-3 The Service of Discipleship

Jesus commanded that Christians go into the world to make disciples,³⁰⁶ which involves teaching and training. This responsibility belongs to the home and each court of the Church. The basic study material is always the Bible, along with the confessional documents of the Church.

A. Discipleship in the home

It is the obligation of Christian parents to bring their children up in the nurture and instruction in the Lord.³⁰⁷ When parents present children for Baptism, they take a vow to that end.³⁰⁸ Diligence should be exercised in fulfilling this obligation.

B. Discipleship in the local church

It is the obligation of a Session to offer a program of education and nurture to the believers. This includes adequate educational facilities, properly trained teachers, and materials that reflect the history, heritage, faith, and practice of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church. Such teachers should be active members of the congregation and approved by the Session. The Session may secure personnel to oversee the educational program under the supervision of the Pastor. Each Session should seek opportunities to establish discipleship ministries in places that are destitute of the gospel and training in the faith.

C. Discipleship and Other Courts

The Presbytery and General Assembly are obligated to support and assist the Session in every way possible. This may include offering training for teachers, producing materials and educational aids, and other support functions that ensure more effective nurture.

³⁰⁴ Matthew 25:40; Romans 10:14-15; Ephesians 2:8-10; 1 John 3:16-19

³⁰⁵ See G.4-3

³⁰⁶ Matthew 28:18-20

³⁰⁷ Proverbs 22:6; Ephesians 6:4

³⁰⁸ See W.3-2G

D. Discipleship and Formal Education

Teaching the things of God may include education within the context of the Christian faith. All the courts of the Church should examine ways in which this may be accomplished, including Christian schools, colleges, or seminaries.

7-4 The Service of Giving

The giving of God's people is an acknowledgement that He is the author of every good and perfect gift and that they are but stewards of His grace. God's people are reminded that they are held accountable not only for a proper stewardship of God's gifts in terms of tithes and offerings, but for the proper use of all they have and are. The service of giving finds expression in giving of self, of tithes and gifts, and of service to others.³⁰⁹

A. The giving of self

The Christian is one who offers his heart and life totally to God. This self-giving is never complete, for each person must continue to offer self to re-surrender and recommitment.

B. The giving of tithes and gifts

Nowhere does the Bible mention less than a tithe as a proper stewardship for the Christian. The Evangelical Presbyterian Church believes in the tithe and teaches it as the minimum requirement for the believer. Gifts to the Lord are those contributions made over and above the tithe. Such giving should be done generously, regularly, systematically, and proportionally.³¹⁰

C. The giving of service to others

The teaching of Christ is that in service and ministry to others, God's people are honoring and serving Him.³¹¹ Therefore, it is incumbent upon believers to serve others and to minister to their needs.

1. The individual believer

- a. Scriptures teach that God calls every person to some vocation and whatever that task, the individual is to serve as unto the Lord.³¹² For that reason, each Christian in daily tasks is to seek to serve God as a good steward. In work, leisure time, with family, friends, and neighbors, the Christian is to seek to show love and compassion and to exhibit before the world what it means to belong to Jesus Christ.
- b. The Christian should also seek places for service in the local church,³¹³ in agencies and ministries of the community or church which minister to the needs of people, and in the ministries of the higher courts of the Church

2. The local church

The local church is to serve others as a witness to the world of God's love for all people. Each Session must judge how best to exemplify this love to its own community and situation.³¹⁴

3. The Presbytery and General Assembly

The higher courts should seek ways to give expression to the loving concern of God for the conditions of people. Thus, these courts are to give opportunity for those under their jurisdiction to express God's love in ways the courts deem fitting and beneficial.

³⁰⁹ See W.2-9

³¹¹ Matthew 25:40

³¹² 1 Corinthians 15:58

³¹³ 1 Corinthians 12:7

³¹⁴ For other responsibilities of the Session see G.18-3

In expressing such concerns, these courts shall be careful that they do not subvert or make secondary the primary mission of the Church to evangelize the world.³¹⁵

7-5 The Service of Compassion

The New Testament describes the concern and compassion of Christ for the conditions of people. The Church shall emulate its Head by showing special concern for the sick, the sorrowing, the hungry, and the poor. The Session shall be responsible for establishing these ministries within the congregation, and into the community. The service of compassion to those in adversity shall include such places as hospitals, retirement homes, convalescent homes, children's homes, prisons, and other public institutions. The higher courts of the Church shall seek to show compassion in these areas, including the establishment of institutions, both at home and abroad, for the care of various needs.

Such a Preliminary Position Paper may be adopted by one Assembly and modified or changed at any succeeding Assembly.

CONFESSONAL MATTERS

- 81-01 “The Essentials of Our Faith” is adopted. Its purpose shall be to give a clear concise statement of the fundamentals of Christian faith as embodied in the Westminster Confession and professed by the Evangelical Presbyterian Church. (Minutes, 1-12, 1-17, Appendix III) Act 93-17 (p. 182) further clarifies the purpose of The Essentials.
- 84-01 The General Assembly shall print the Summertown edition of the Westminster Confession of Faith (published by Attic Press) with introduction and appropriate table of contents, appendices #1 and #2, and shall exclude the Declaratory Statement. (Minutes, 4-23)
- 85-15 The Westminster Confession of Faith (EPC edition) shall include as a prefatory statement “The Essentials of Our Faith.” (Minutes, 5-28)
- 87-03 The Assembly endorses the addition of the Westminster Confession of Faith, the “Essentials of Our Faith,” and the Shorter Catechism to separate sections in the loose-leaf Book of Order. (Minutes, 7-36) The 28th Assembly authorized publication of constitutional documents in a 2- volume spiral bound format; Act 08-03 (p. 230).
- 88-19 The Assembly adopts as resource for its congregations “The Chicago Statement on Biblical Inerrancy.” (Minutes, 8-56; text of statement pp. 70-73 of 8th Assembly Minutes)
- 88-20 The Assembly endorses for distribution to its churches The Children’s Catechism: A New Modern Version, published by Summertown Texts, Signal Mountain, Tennessee (1988). (Minutes, 8-55)
- 88-29 The Assembly concurs with the Committee on Theology, which was given the task of studying the relationship between “The Essentials” and the Westminster Confession of Faith. This referral came out of a motion to the 7th General Assembly to make “The Essentials” a part of our Constitution.

The Committee concurs with the Stated Clerk that “The Essentials” should not be made a part of our Constitution and given that authority. This document now carries the authority of an Act of the Assembly (See Act 81-01, p.181).

In order to further understand the relationship between “The Essentials” and the Westminster Confession of Faith, it is important to remember our historical context. As Presbyterians, we hold the Westminster Confession of Faith to be our standard of doctrine as it is found in Scripture. This standard is held not only in the intellect but also in the heart. The Westminster Confession of Faith is a positive statement of what we believe Scripture teaches.

“The Essentials” is a distillation of the Westminster Confession of Faith and is helpful in stating what we believe. The two are not in contradiction but are in harmony with one another as an expression of Reformed doctrine.

Courts of the EPC should encourage their members to continue studying our Confession in the light of the Word of God that we may grow theologically and spiritually together, unto the stature of the fullness of Christ. (Minutes, 8-60)

³¹⁷ References in Acts of Assembly to “National Leadership Team” begin with actions of the 37th General Assembly (2017)

- 89-01 Baptisms at some court of the church other than the session shall be done only by a Pastor and at least one Ruling Elder from the same particular church (Book of Worship 3-2E) and shall conform to the stipulations of the Book of Worship on baptism. As members of the EPC, members of the court may participate in the responses to the questions proposed to a congregation. Further, it may not be done unless:
1. One of the parents is a member in good standing of a particular church, which is a true branch of the visible Church and to which notification of the baptism is made in accordance with W.3-2G.1.
 2. Or, if the only presenting parent is a member of the presbytery and therefore does not belong to a particular church, that person shall stipulate prior to the baptism in what particular church the baptized person shall be enrolled. It is not within the jurisdiction of a presbytery or the General Assembly to authorize baptisms since that is a duty of a Session. However, a baptism may be performed at such a court provided the above considerations are met. (Minutes, 9-52)
- 92-06 The Assembly encourages the use of the Westminster Confession of Faith Commentary (Summertown Texts) in EPC churches. (Minutes, 12-27)
- 93-08 The Assembly adopts the “Pastoral Letter on Children and the Lord’s Supper” as guidance to the churches on the subject of young children and their participation in the sacrament of communion, and that Roger Beckwith’s article (Westminster Theological Journal 38:2, Fall, 1975) “Age of Admission to the Lord’s Supper,” should accompany this letter. (Minutes, 13-26). The conclusion of the Pastoral Letter reads:
- Though a local Session is not required to admit young children to participate in the sacrament of the Lord’s Super, it may permit them if the following criteria are met:
1. The child has been administered the sacrament of Christian baptism.
 2. The child presents a credible profession of faith as determined initially by his or her parents, and determined ultimately by the Session of the church.
 3. The child is able to evidence to the Session a basic understanding of the nature of the sacrament as it is set forth in the Scriptures and in the Constitution of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church.
- The Session must continue to exercise diligence in its covenant responsibilities toward those children who are admitted to the Lord’s Supper. The Session may or may not choose to admit the child into active membership at that time.
- 93-17 The Assembly sustains the opinion of the Permanent Judicial Commission concerning the purpose of the “Essentials of Our Faith”:
- The purpose of the “Essentials of Our Faith” is to provide an explicit and concise expression of the essentials of the Christian faith, but also leave room for Christians to disagree on non-essentials. It is never to be used as an explicit standard for a minimal core of beliefs for candidates, ordination, or ministerial exams. It is not to duplicate the Westminster Confession of Faith, or to be construed as a substitute for the WCF. Because it is not part of the Constitution, it is never to be used as such. Theoretically, a person could affirm the “Essentials”, as all knowledgeable Christians would do, but disagree with the WCF. Such a person would be unacceptable as a Teaching or Ruling Elder in the EPC, being out of accord with its Constitution. On the other hand, a person cannot affirm the WCF and disbelieve any part of the “Essentials”. The “Essentials” are to be subscribed to in addition to the full WCF (G.13-2A.4). (Minutes, 13-38) The 16th General Assembly (1996) voted to delete the last sentence of this Act #93-17 (p. 182). (Minutes, 16-26)
- 97-11 The Assembly adopts the ruling of the Permanent Judicial Commission that the current form of the fourth ordination vow is the result of an unauthorized typographical alteration and that the words “essentials of the faith” should be printed in small case and plain letters. Future editions of the Book of Government are to be printed to conform to this correction. (Minutes, 17-26)

- 97-12 The Assembly instructs the permanent Committee on Theology to undertake a comprehensive study of the relationship that now exists and that should exist between the “Essentials of Our Faith” and the Westminster Confession of Faith to include, but not be limited to, an examination of the relevance of each to the Constitution of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, the vows of ordination for pastors and elders, relations with other denominations and the teaching and edification of lay persons. (Minutes, 17-29)
- 98-02 That Assembly adopts a report entitled, “Response of the Permanent Theology Committee to the 17th General Assembly Instructions Regarding ‘The Essentials’ and the Westminster Confession.” (Minutes, 18-25)
- 99-07 The Assembly strongly exhorts churches to diligently train officers and ordain in the essential tenets of the Reformed faith and recommends that sessions and presbyteries familiarize themselves with the “Response of the Permanent Theology Committee to the 17th General Assembly Instructions Regarding ‘The Essentials’ and the Westminster Confession” and use such works as R.C. Sproul’s Essential Truths of the Christian Faith (Tyndale House, 1998 paper). (Minutes, 19-27)
- 02-01 The Assembly adopts a “Pastoral Letter on Open Theism” (the openness of God). (Minutes, 22-28)
- 02-02 The Assembly commends the paper, “What It Means to Receive and Adopt the Westminster Confession of Faith” by S. Donald Fortson III for use in the churches as a resource in understanding this subject. (Minutes, 22-28)
- 06-07 The Assembly approves the response of the permanent Theology Committee to a request for a review of the theology and practice of paedocommunion. (Minutes, 26-37; Minutes of the 26th General Assembly, Documents section)
- 07-06 The Assembly receives the “Comparison of the Three Forms of Unity and the Westminster Standards” report of the Theology Committee. (Minutes, 27-42)
- 12-08 The Assembly adopts the opinion of the Stated Clerk regarding “contempt” and/or “immorality” as defined in Book of Discipline 1-8 and 1-10 and the use of social media to promote opposition to church leadership and encourages churches and presbyteries to adopt a similar policy (Minutes, 32-56)
- 14-02 The Assembly approves a statement in response to a perceived contradiction between the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Book of Worship regarding serving Communion to those not present at the public worship service:
 “The contradiction between Westminster Confession of Faith 29-3 and Book of Worship 3-3G is a perceived one only. WCF 29-3 rejects the practice of the Roman Catholic Church and the practice of ‘private communion’ by the aristocracy. These were significant problems facing the English church in the mid-seventeenth century. W.3-3, written in the twentieth century, does not address these seventeenth century problems. It speaks to the provision of the sacrament to those who, due to illness, are not able to participate in the church’s celebration of the sacrament. W.3-3 enables the Church Session to provide this ministry with appropriate oversight.” (Minutes 34-40)
- 14-07 The Assembly approves a statement regarding the New City Catechism saying that with an exception and some concerns, the New City Catechism is generally consistent with the system of doctrine taught in the Westminster Confession of Faith.” (Minutes 34-56)
- 15-03 The Assembly authorizes editorial correction of typographical errors in Book of Government 24-3 which mistakenly refer to non-existent subsections of G.24-2, and that these corrections should appear in the 2015-16 Edition of the Book of Order. (Minutes 35-34)
- 15-13 The Assembly adopts the finding of the Permanent Theology Committee: When a Presbytery grants an exception to the Westminster Confession of Faith 21-8 (Sabbath observance), it is acting well within the bounds of the EPC Book of Worship 2-2. Such an exception is consistent with our Book of Worship and does not make it difficult for Teaching Elders to take a vow to submit to the government and discipline of the EPC with integrity. (Minutes 35-55)

- 16-24 The Assembly approves an editorial correction of an inadvertent omission of the word “to” in G.14-3B.1b. (Minutes 36-61)

- 86-04 The Presbytery of the East shall be divided into two presbyteries: East and Allegheny. The Presbytery of the Allegheny shall have as its eastern boundary a line running from and including Rochester, New York, to Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, and I-81. The southern boundary shall include the state of West Virginia except for the eastern panhandle. Western boundary shall include eastern Ohio from I-77 eastward including the city of Cleveland. Presbytery of the East shall include the rest of New York, the eastern part of Pennsylvania, the New England states, all of New Jersey, Maryland, and Delaware. Also, the eastern panhandle of West Virginia, the District of Columbia, and the Washington, D.C. metropolitan areas of Virginia that include the counties of Loudoun, Prince William, Arlington, Fairfax, and the cities of Alexandria and Fairfax. (Minutes, 6-51)
- 86-05 First EPC, Anna, Illinois, is placed within the bounds of the Presbytery of the Central South. Boundaries of the presbytery would then include all of the state of Illinois south of I-70. (Minutes, 6-51)
- 86-13 The Assembly instructs the stated clerks of presbyteries to request every congregation to recommend Ruling Elders willing and qualified to serve on specific permanent committees. Further, to instruct the Stated Clerk of General Assembly to produce a brief description of duties and responsibilities for each permanent committee along with upcoming vacancies. Clerks of presbyteries are requested to submit a combined list of available Ruling Elders from member congregations, along with their qualifications, experience, and a brief biographical sketch. Copies of pertinent documents are to be transmitted to each member of the Nominating Committee prior to its meeting. (Minutes, 6-70) Cf. Rules, §10, for description of permanent Nominating Committee.

- 90-11 The Presbytery of Florida is established, encompassing the state of Florida. The boundaries of the Presbytery of the Southeast are adjusted accordingly. (Minutes, 10-36)
- 91-05 A commission can be created only by an appointing court to serve as a commission for a limited time as specified by presbytery. No committee of presbytery shall have continuing authority to serve as a commission except as specifically authorized by G.21-2D.2e, f and G.21-3). No committee has the authority to create commissions. The rationale is that a committee is not a court of the church. (Minutes, 11-35)
- 91-06 The Presbytery of the Central South is divided into two presbyteries:
- 1. Central South: Northern boundary extends from I-65 at (but excluding) Louisville, along the Ohio River to the confluence of the Wabash and Ohio Rivers, westward along Highway 13 to Murphysboro, Illinois, then due west to the Mississippi River. Then is extended from the Mississippi River due west of Murphysboro south to the Arkansas state line. Across the northern state line of Arkansas westward to the western state line. South on the Arkansas state line to the junction of the present boundary at the Texas state line. Boundaries of the continuing Presbytery of the Central South would remain as presently established.
 - 2. Mid-America: Southern boundary follows I-40 from and including Oklahoma City to the Arkansas state line. Northward on the Arkansas state line to the junction of the Missouri-Arkansas state line, then eastward to the Mississippi River. North along the Mississippi River to the point due west of Murphysboro, Illinois, and due east to Murphysboro along Highway 13 to the confluence of the Ohio and Wabash Rivers. (Minutes, 12-29)

- 92-11 Presbyteries are encouraged to establish World Outreach Committees to accelerate the foreign missions endeavor throughout the denomination. (Minutes, 12-42)
- 93-05 The Assembly adopts “Position Statement on Presbytery Development.” A new Position Statement on Presbytery Development was adopted by the 32nd General Assembly, superseding Act 93-05. See Act 12-05 (p. 193).

Position Statement on Presbytery Development

The purpose of this position statement is to be a guide to the General Assembly in making decisions concerning the establishment of new presbyteries or the realignment of current boundaries.

The church as the body of Christ is composed of all those persons who profess Jesus as their Lord and Savior, together with their children. The church on earth is not limited to particular forms of government or denominational structures; nevertheless, the government of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church shall be Presbyterian in form. Such is government by Elders meeting in church courts in regular gradation. The Evangelical Presbyterian Church believes the perfecting of the visible church is best established where the scriptural doctrine of government by Elders gathered in church courts is practiced.

The courts of the church shall be the Session, the Presbytery, and the General Assembly. Presbytery shall be composed of all Ministers belonging to it, and two Ruling Elders for each Minister drawn from the particular churches within its bounds. The Presbytery has jurisdiction over all that belongs to the worship and ministry of a group of churches within the designated bounds. In its spiritual oversight, the mission of the Presbytery shall be:

1. The nurture and care of persons called to the office of Minister, and oversight of all transactions pursuant to call.
2. The provision of spiritual discipline according to the Book of Discipline.
3. The oversight of church Sessions through annual review.
4. The maintenance of peace and unity within the congregations.
5. The establishment and development of churches.
6. The encouragement of evangelism, renewal and ministries of compassion within the congregations and Presbytery.
7. The active participation in the life of the General Assembly.
8. The organization of the Presbytery for maximum advancement of the Gospel and the Kingdom.
9. The provision of resources to member congregations promoting effective evangelism, education, stewardship, officer training and the like.

In pursuit of its mission, the question naturally arises as to what constitutes a viable Presbytery. Viability may be defined as “the ability with maximum efficiency to achieve a stated mission.” The basic components of a viable Presbytery within the Evangelical Presbyterian Church shall be understood as the following:

1. LEADERSHIP: A Presbytery must have adequate personnel resources to support the local church as well as Presbytery’s committees and commissions.
2. FINANCIAL RESOURCES: Sufficient resources must be available to support the mission and life of a Presbytery. A minimum budget of $100,000 (‘93-dollar basis) per year is necessary.
3. COMMITMENT: Leadership and resources are of little value if the solid commitment of Teaching and Ruling Elders of each church to the connectional form of government is absent.
4. DEMOGRAPHICS: The minimum requirements for a Presbytery need to be: a large church (1000+ members); twelve organized churches; a composite membership base of 2500.
5. OFFICE OF THE STATED CLERK: The Stated Clerk shall be provided with office equipment and necessary support staff to carry out the duties of the office as defined in the Presbytery bylaws.

6. GEOGRAPHIC PROXIMITY: Presbytery boundaries should be established to keep travel distances between churches to a reasonable minimum. (Minutes, 13-25)
- 93-06 Assembly approves dissolution of the Presbytery of the Allegheny, realigning the state of West Virginia with the Presbytery of the Mid-Atlantic, the states of New York and Pennsylvania to the Presbytery of the East, and the state of Ohio to the Presbytery of the Midwest. (Minutes, 13-25)
- 93-07 Assembly approves dissolution of the Presbytery of the Far West, realigning the states of California and Arizona with the Presbytery of the West. (Minutes, 13-25)
- 93-16 Presbyteries are encouraged to consider having a Women's Ministries Committee, and to devise an effective means of coordinating the input of that committee with the other committees of the Presbytery. (Minutes, 13-35)
- 94-12 The Assembly approves redrawing the boundaries of the Presbyteries of the Mid-America and Central South, so as to move the extreme southeastern portion of Missouri (including the "boot heel" counties of Cape Girardeau, Bollinger, Wayne, Carter, and Oregon) from the Presbytery of Mid-America to the Presbytery of the Central South. (Minutes, 14-25)
- 94-22 A lawfully ordained minister in good standing of a non-EPC church may be authorized to serve communion in an EPC church, with the concurrence of the Presbytery. (PJC opinion, Minutes, 14-36)
- The 34th General Assembly extended this provision to include authorization to administer baptism (Act 14-06, p. 195).*
- 94-23 While a Session is encouraged in the spirit of church unity to receive information from a Presbytery committee resulting from a committee inquiry, the Session cannot be forced to hear information from a Presbytery committee. (PJC opinion, Minutes, 14-36)
- 94-24 In cases where a Session has been deposed, an Administrative Commission of Presbytery shall be authorized to provide pastoral assistance to the congregation, but shall not otherwise act, even temporarily, with sessional powers defined in G.18-3 with the following exceptions:
1. To call and conduct a congregational meeting (Book of Government chapter 7) within 30 days
 2. To train, if necessary, those elected as required in G.11-3
 3. To examine those elected, as required by G.12-6, 12-7
 4. To promptly and in a manner consistent with Book of Government chapters 12 and 13 install those favorably examined
- Every effort shall be made to preserve the church's right to elect its own officers. (PJC opinion, Minutes, 14-36)
- 94-28 Presbytery minutes shall be maintained in English in addition to any other language the court wishes to maintain, and this edition shall be rendered in a timely fashion. (Minutes, 14-38)
The 15th General Assembly reaffirmed this action. (Minutes, 15-39)
- 95-10 Boundaries of the Presbyteries of the Mid-Atlantic and Southeast are realigned to move five churches formerly in Mid-Atlantic into Southeast. These churches are Community Bible Church (Highlands, N.C.), Plumtree (Plumtree, N.C.), Grace and Cornerstone (both of Franklin, N.C.) and Harvest Church (Asheville, N.C.). (Minutes, 15-28) COA clarified geographic boundaries encompassing the above to be that portion of North Carolina west of State Routes 221 and 194.
- 97-08 The boundaries of St. Andrews Presbytery (Argentina) are extended to include the Entre Rios and Santa Fe provinces. (Minutes, 17-25)
- 97-09 The Proposed Partnership Agreement between the St. Andrews Presbytery and the General Assembly (October 28-29, 1996) is ratified. (Minutes, 17-25)

- 98-03 The Assembly instructs all Presbyteries to use the forms included as attachments to the EPC Procedure Manual for Ministerial and Candidates Committee (Third Edition) both as a check list of proper procedure and as a convenient way of recording that required actions have been taken. (Minutes, 18-30)
- 98-04 The Assembly instructs all Presbyteries to review the style of their minutes to ensure that a basic understanding of the actions taken by the Presbytery can be obtained from the body of the minutes, per se, without reference to any attachments. (Minutes, 18-30) The 32nd General Assembly modified the way terms of call may be recorded in the minutes (Act 12-11, p. 194).
- 98-05 The Assembly instructs all Presbyteries to supply the Presbytery Review Committee with certified copies of the pages of their Minutes subject to review as they appear in the official minute books of the Presbytery at least five weeks prior to the meeting date of the next General Assembly. (Minutes, 18-30)
- 98-15 The Assembly approves the following addition to the Procedure Manual for Ministerial and Candidates Committees:
- Presbyteries shall perform a background investigation on all individuals seeking candidacy or membership in their Presbytery. This investigation of public records shall include at least a verification of social security number, criminal history and motor vehicle driving history. Also, as part of the reception process, references must be checked. (Minutes, 18-41)
- 99-13 The Assembly redraws the common boundaries of the Presbyteries of the Mid-America and Midwest so that the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin are moved from Midwest to Mid-America. (Minutes, 19-46)
- 00-11 The Assembly adopts additional guidelines for Presbytery Minutes:
1. Standardization of numbering sections and subsections;
 2. Standardization of attendance reporting;
 3. Checklists to be used by Presbyteries to ensure required actions have been taken and properly reported;
 4. Standardization of reporting corrections to minutes made in response to exceptions issued by the General Assembly. (Minutes, 20-46)
- 02-03 The Assembly amends the boundaries of the Presbytery of the West to include Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nevada, Oregon, Alaska, and Hawaii. (Minutes, 22-27)
- 02-04 The Assembly forwarded the following advice and observations to the Presbyteries:
1. Commissions are representative of the Presbytery and give an opportunity for particular churches to appreciate the fact that they are part of a larger church. Even though the constitutional minimum for commissions is five people from two churches, presbyteries should give due consideration in forming commissions to make them more broadly representative.
 2. Most presbyteries are struggling with poor attendance, especially of Ruling Elders. Teaching Elders and Ruling Elders alike are urged to more diligently exercise their ordination vows and be active in the larger church family.
 3. In a number of cases, housing allowances approved in terms of call seem to be far above the accepted IRS standard cap of fair rental value (furnished) plus utilities. Pastors, Sessions, and presbyteries are urged to be diligent in conforming to established regulations.
 4. Presbyteries are urged to be diligent to ensure that constitutional requirements are met in terms of call for Assistant and Associate Pastors. In particular, G.10-5, 10-6 require that terms of call stipulate the particular areas of responsibilities for Assistant and Associate Pastors and a definite period of time for a term of service for Assistants.
 5. In exercising their discretionary authority (e.g., waiving the ordinary requirement of one year under care for a candidate), presbyteries should indicate the grounds for doing so in their minutes.

6. Presbyteries are reminded that a change in call from Assistant to Associate Pastor is a significant change. It is the congregation that calls, not the Session. An installation service is required and appropriate when such a change occurs.
 7. The Procedure Manual for Ministerial and Candidates Committees contains a number of checklists and templates for minutes to ensure that constitutional steps are followed and reported. Presbyteries are strongly urged to utilize those resources. (Minutes, 22-27)
- 02-05 The Assembly adopts a Permanent Judicial Commission ruling that the term “governing body” when used in the Book of Order to refer to bodies within the EPC is always intended to refer to 1) a court of the church, or 2) a commission or evangelist duly authorized to act on the Court’s behalf. (Minutes, 22-27)
- 02-06 The Assembly instructs each Presbytery World Outreach Committee to review the World Outreach Master Plan and consider setting policy/goals in accordance with it and with Vision 21. (Minutes, 22-27)
- 02-07 The Assembly adopts a Permanent Judicial Commission ruling that a presbytery must evaluate the transferee’s educational credentials, including the requirements pertaining to biblical languages and either 1) require “appropriate courses in the original languages” and an exegesis paper assigned by the presbytery; or 2) exempt the transferee from such requirement by a two-thirds vote. (Minutes, 22-24)
- 03-04 The Assembly forwards the following advice to all presbyteries:
1. When a minister or candidate states no exceptions to the Westminster standards, presbytery minutes must state that fact so that the record reflects that presbytery has fulfilled its constitutional responsibility.
 2. It appears in many cases presbytery moderators may be making motions of a routine nature or making motions arising from presbytery council reports. Presbyteries should be advised that the moderator should yield the chair in order to make a motion or should entertain a motion from the floor.
 3. In general, number of notations to presbytery minutes would be reduced and the quality of minutes would be improved by adopting the practice of using readers to review provisional minutes before Stated Clerks submit them to presbytery.
 4. Presbyteries should take note of those visiting teaching and ruling elders from other presbyteries or General Assembly and enroll them as corresponding members with the privilege of the floor. (Minutes, 23-26)
- 04-05 The Assembly dismisses the St. Andrews Presbytery and grants it recognition as a national Reformed and Presbyterian body according to the Articles of Dismissal and Agreement (see Documents section of Minutes of the 24th General Assembly). (Minutes, 24-29) The 29th Assembly approved a subsequent 5-year “Articles of Agreement.” See Act 09-03 (p. 212).
- 04-08 Assembly adjusts the shared boundary between Presbyteries of the Mid-Atlantic and Southeast so that the Asheville N.C. area counties of Buncombe, Henderson, and McDowell are included in the bounds of Mid-Atlantic. (Minutes, 24-39)
- 05-08 The Assembly advises all presbyteries:
1. To fulfill their responsibility to commend members to another congregation when dissolving a church (G.5-9).
 2. To be clear in their use of terminology in Minutes when receiving and dismissing ministers. Presbyteries dismiss to and receive from other presbyteries or ecclesiastical bodies. “Transfer” is the term for the completed transaction. If one party has not completed the transaction, then the Minutes should reflect that the action is pending, and subsequent minutes reflect that the action has been completed.
 3. That ratio correction is a constitutional requirement (G..9-2A.4b) and should be spread in the Minutes.
 4. That Minutes submitted for review should be copied from the numbered pages of the presbytery’s bound book (Act 98-05, p. 189).

5. That presbyteries have authority to approve out of bounds calls (G.10-8B.2, last paragraph), but not to determine terms of call for those situations. Presbyteries are reminded to use the “Call to a Validated Ministry Outside the Bounds of Presbytery” form.
 6. To reserve the term “laying on of hands” for the service of ordination.
 7. To review clarity of terminology regarding ministerial status (G.19-2). There are three presbytery rolls: active, inactive, and retired. Within the active roll there are some who have the status of “without call.” There is no “without call” roll. Within the retired roll there are those who have an inactive status. (Minutes, 25-44)
- 06-08 The Assembly instructs all presbyteries to:
1. Evaluate their practice of appointing advisors for candidates, to see that the provision of (G.11-2E) is being followed, namely, that a candidate’s advisor should ordinarily not be the candidate’s pastor.
 2. Remember that their first priority is to encourage evangelism and renewal within their bounds (G.4-3; 19-4A.1) and to reflect in their Minutes how this priority is being realized.
 3. Work toward full compliance with Acts of Assembly 81-04 (p. 196), 81-06 (p. 196), and 88-08 (p. 199) regarding mandatory participation of EPC ministers in the denominational Medical Plan.
 4. To exercise caution when a church desires to call a person as pastor before candidacy requirements have been met, especially when installing the person almost immediately as a ruling elder, remembering the Scriptural admonition not to be hasty in the laying on of hands. (1 Tim. 5:22) (Minutes, 26-40)
- 07-09 The Assembly approves financial reporting guidelines for presbytery minutes. (Minutes, 26- 40, and Minutes of the 26th General Assembly, pp. 273-274).
- 06-10 The Assembly amends the boundaries of the Presbyteries of the Central South and Mid-America so that the entire state of Arkansas is included in the boundaries of Central South. (Minutes, 26-47)
- 07-01 The Assembly approves a five-year structure for receiving churches and pastors transitionally. (Minutes, 27-26). The 31st Assembly (2011) extended the specific provision for receiving churches and pastors transitionally in geographic presbyteries until Dec. 31, 2013 Act 11-09 (p. 192). The 33rd General Assembly extended the provision to Dec. 31, 2014 (Act 13-07, p. 195). The 34th General Assembly (2014) extended the provision to Dec. 31, 2019 (Act 14-13, p. 195).
- 07-08 The Assembly issues the following advice to all presbyteries:
1. The requirement for minutes to “reflect an annual review of sessional records” (Rules for Assembly 9-12 G.10, p. 166) is best served when Minutes clearly note the names of churches whose session’s minutes have been reviewed.
 2. Presbyteries are reminded that the Book of Government provides for no office of “Senior Pastor.” While particular churches commonly use that title, official documents of church courts should use the constitutional term “pastor.”
 3. When recording their vote on descending overtures, minutes should include a brief summary of the overtures for the sake of the historical record. Normally such a summary is provided in the official ballot from the General Assembly.
 4. Presbyteries are reminded that financial reporting guidelines, developed in consultation with presbytery clerks, were approved by the 26th General Assembly (2006). The Presbytery Review Committee will look for those guidelines being implemented beginning with fall 2007 presbytery meetings.
 5. Other than commissions related to celebratory activities (e.g., ordination and installation), presbytery Stated Clerks should not be part of commissions, but rather be a resource to those commissions. (Minutes, 27-47)

- 08-13 The Assembly advises all presbyteries:
1. To be reminded to follow (G.11-2E), normally appointing an advisor other than the candidate's pastor.
 2. That Moderators and/or Stated Clerks should not be appointed to commissions other than those with ceremonial functions.
 3. To clarify who moderates a church Session following the dissolution of a pastoral relationship or in other situations when the pastor is unable to moderate (G.18-2A)
 4. To include a section on "Correspondence" in their minutes with dates on which official correspondence is received and sent. (Minutes, 28-51)
- 09-05 The Assembly advises all presbyteries:
1. When receiving churches and ministers, presbytery minutes should indicate the dismissing body.
 2. Presbytery minutes should reflect the requirements of (G.21-1A.2), namely, that minutes of commissions are not approved by presbytery. Commissions report their actions, and their actions are recorded in the presbytery minutes. Minutes of Commissions should be kept separately. (Minutes, 29-60)
- 10-01 The Assembly adopts the opinion of the Stated Clerk concerning presbyteries providing in its minutes anonymity to an accused party in a disciplinary case. (Minutes, 30-39)
- 10-02 The Assembly adopts the opinion of the Stated Clerk regarding standards for Bylaws of representative bodies to establish a quorum and conduct business in a meeting with both real and virtual presence of commissioners. (Minutes, 30-39)
- 10-03 The Assembly extends the boundaries of the Presbytery of Florida to include the Bahamas (Minutes, 30-48)
- 10-11 The Committee on Administration, acting as an Administrative Commission according to the action of the 30th General Assembly, divides the Presbytery of the Mid-America to create a Presbytery of Rivers and Lakes encompassing the current territory in the states of Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, and Wisconsin, and a continuing Presbytery of the Mid-America, encompassing the current territory in Missouri, Kansas, and Oklahoma, effective January 29, 2011.
- 11-03 The Assembly divides the Presbyteries of the Midwest, East, and Mid-Atlantic and creates the Presbytery of the Alleghenies with the following boundaries:
- The western portion of the State of New York from the Monroe and Wayne county line on Lake Ontario going south following county lines until the Allegany and Steuben county line at the Pennsylvania border,
- The western portion of the State of Pennsylvania starting from the Potter and Tioga county lines on the New York border going south following county lines until the Bedford and Fulton county lines at the Maryland state border,
- The western two counties of the State of Maryland of Garrett and Allegany,
- In the State of West Virginia all counties north of and including the following: Cabell, Putnam, Jackson, Roane, Calhoun, Braxton, Lewis, Upshur, Barbour, Tucker, Grant, Hardy and Hampshire.
- The eastern portion of the State of Ohio following a line north along county lines from the Adams and Scioto county line on the Ohio River to the Sandusky and Erie county line on Lake Erie. (Minutes, 31-27)
- 11-04 The Assembly divides the Presbytery of the West and creates the Presbytery of the Pacific, consisting of the states of California, Oregon, Washington, Alaska, Hawaii, and Nevada and the portion of Idaho west of US Highway 93. (Minutes, 31-27)
- 11-09 The Assembly approves extending the 2007 provision for receiving churches and pastors transitionally in geographic EPC presbyteries until Dec. 31, 2013.

1. Transitional membership allows existing presbyteries and transitional member churches and pastors the time and opportunity to fully assess the mutual expectations doctrinally, missionally, legislatively and financially before committing to full membership.
 2. All churches and pastors entering EPC presbyteries as transitional members must:
 - a. Acknowledge the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms to be their sole subordinate confessional standard;
 - b. Affirm the EPC “Essentials of Our Faith” without exception;
 - c. Submit to the EPC Book of Order.
 3. All transitional church ministers and staff members shall be regarded as eligible for EPC benefits programs subject to the limitations and exclusions of the retirement and medical plan documents
 4. All transitional member congregations will be asked to participate in the Per Member Asking to the best of their ability.
 5. Because the particular church has ownership of its own property in the EPC, no judicatory of the EPC assumes any liability or responsibility for resolution of local property disputes arising from efforts to be dismissed from other bodies.
 6. When received from transitional to full membership, teaching and ruling elders must meet existing requirements for subscription to the Westminster Confession and Catechisms. Examinations in such cases will be based on views and beliefs as provided for in G.12-6, 12-7. It may be helpful to note that ministers with current Reformed credentials are examined similarly to transfers – on views and beliefs – and re-ordination is not required. Ministers and elders of transitional member churches will have existing presbytery members and resources made available to them to assist in preparation for meeting these subscription standards.
 7. As transitional members of presbytery, pastors and ruling elder commissioners to presbytery will have voice without vote. (Minutes, 31-42)
- 11-10 The Assembly extends the 2007 provision for ministers to be received transitionally to members of the New Wineskins EPC Transitional Presbytery who are without call on June 19, 2012. They may be received as transitional members without call in EPC presbyteries in which they reside. Upon receiving a call, they will be examined and received according to the normal process of G.12-3B). Pastors may remain in this status for no longer than 12 months. (Minutes, 31-43)
- 12-05 The Assembly adopts a new “Position Statement on Presbytery Development”, superseding the statement of the 13th General Assembly (Act 93-05, p. 187). (Minutes, 32-44 and “Documents” section)

The purpose of this position statement is to guide the General Assembly and presbyteries in making decisions concerning the establishment of new presbyteries or the realignment of existing boundaries.

The church as the body of Christ is composed of all those persons who profess Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, together with their children. The church on earth is not limited to particular forms of government or denominations; nevertheless, the Evangelical Presbyterian Church believes the perfecting of the visible church is best achieved through the scriptural doctrine of government by a plurality of Elders constituting church courts of regular gradation.

The purpose of the Church is to bring glory to God in obedience to the will of Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church, by faithfully ruling over all of whom He has made it overseer and by faithfully extending His rule to as many and as far as His Spirit enables it. As a regional manifestation of the visible Church, a Presbytery must be earnestly committed to the reign of Christ through both biblical mission and biblical governance. As stewards of the Kingdom of God, church courts must neither “bury the talents” of what has been entrusted to them by not fulfilling its mandate (Matthew 25:18) nor fail to exercise the keys of the kingdom (Matthew 16:19) by sacrificing governance for mission. Christ's will both to extend and govern his kingdom are one and the same. While sometimes coming in tension with one another, the church's mission and its governance are not in conflict, but complementary.

A Presbytery is to organize itself as it prayerfully deems best to fulfill this purpose, subject to the Scriptures and the Constitution of the church. The specific duties included in this are described in Book of Government 19-4. In full recognition that the Spirit moves according to God's good pleasure, a Presbytery should provide ways to recognize and encourage, not impede, the active work of God the Spirit. Therefore, a Presbytery should encourage, promote, and facilitate the formation of ministry networks within, throughout and across its boundaries. The particular way in which a Presbytery organizes itself is to take special care not to hinder the mission of God but rather to foster cooperation with and faithfulness to it.

The mission of a Presbytery is to organize itself as it deems best for the propagation of the Gospel, the advancement of the Kingdom, and the edification of the people by fulfilling its duties according to Book of Government 19-4.

In order to be faithful to and effective in its mission a Presbytery must be self-sustaining, self-governing, and self-perpetuating.

In order to be faithful to its mission, a Presbytery must be viable. It must have sufficient human and financial resources to carry out its work. The extent of the resources needed will vary, depending on the geographic scale of its boundaries, the experience and gifts of its members, and the level of commitment of its churches. Factors to be considered:

1. Total church membership.
2. Total financial resources of churches within its bounds.
3. Financial support for or pledges of support for its work.
4. Geographic scale and cost and mode of travel within its bounds.
5. Presence of experienced and capable potential leadership.
6. Other clear indications of commitment by churches within its bounds.
7. While the presence of one or more large churches may be desirable, sufficient commitment by medium-sized and small churches can provide a sufficiently strong foundation for an effective Presbytery.

The Assembly must satisfy itself regarding the viability of proposed or existing presbyteries, including through the means of the Committee on Administration, the Presbytery Review Committee, and any other committees or commissions formed for this purpose.

Changes in presbytery boundaries may be initiated by the presbyteries or the Committee on Administration. Proposed changes in presbytery boundaries must include an assessment of the impact of such change on the presbyteries affected.

A recommendation to create a new presbytery must include a viability assessment of the resulting presbyteries in terms of the criteria described above including proposed officers pro tem.

12-11 The Assembly adopts a policy regarding approval and recording of ministers' terms of call, superseding the actions of the 18th and 31st General Assemblies (Acts 98-04, p. 189 and 11-08, p. 204). (Minutes, 32-56)

1. The initial terms of call shall be approved in public by both congregations and presbyteries, using the forms found in the Book of Order and Procedure Manual for Ministerial and Candidates Committees.
2. Changes in terms of call must be noted and voted upon by presbyteries on recommendation from the Ministerial Committee. The changes may be noted as either a dollar amount, or percentage amount, with only the change, not the new total, noted.

3. Background or supporting material regarding terms of call shall be made available to the Presbytery Review Committee through the Stated Clerk upon the Committee's request.

(Minutes, 22-24)
- 03-07 The Assembly approves the addition of a new section 1 under “Temporary Pastoral Offices” to the Procedure Manual for Ministerial and Candidates Committees (p. 14, Fourth Edition):
1. Calling a Minister who has served in a temporary pastoral relationship
A minister should not be serving in a temporary pastoral relationship with the intent of becoming the pastor of the church. To do so diminishes the minister’s ability to accomplish the tasks necessary in the interim period as defined by the Assembly’s “Guidelines for Intentional Interim Pastoral Ministry” (p. 23). The Book of Order (G.10-7) prohibits any minister being called as pastor of the church while actively serving in a temporary relationship. If the church desires to consider calling the minister as pastor, the temporary relationship should be ended, and an appropriate length of time be allowed for serious consideration of the call (normally a minimum of two months). (Minutes, 23-39)
[The 24th Assembly ratified an amendment to G11-8 (reference to pre-2014 Book of Government) stipulating a procedure by which a pastor who has served in a temporary capacity may be considered as pastor of that church, a provision continued in Book of Government 10-7B (current edition).

03-08 The Assembly approves the addition of a new section 15 under “Process of Candidacy and Ordination” to the Procedure Manual for Ministerial and Candidates Committees (p. 30, Fourth Edition):

15. Reinstatement of Candidacy

A person’s candidacy may be reinstated through the following procedure:

1. If the person seeking reinstatement is a member of an EPC church other than the original sponsoring church, the person should be a member for a time sufficient for the Session to give a credible endorsement. The person’s previous EPC membership may be considered adequate to fulfill the requirements of G.11-2A by the Presbytery for purposes of reinstatement.
2. The Session of the church at which the former candidate is currently a member, having satisfied itself that the potential candidate shows evidence of a call to ministry and a commitment to pursue that call, endorses the member according to the procedures outlined above.

Argentine Declaration

Whereas we, the participants in the Argentine Consultation, thank God that in His providence our denomination, the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, has become a redemptive instrument for the Presbytery of St. Andrews, whereby an awareness of purpose and mission, within Reformed doctrine, has revitalized the life of its member churches. We further trust that this process in the years ahead will be one of mutual blessing and resound to the glory of God.

The participants of the Consultation make the following declaration:

1. The Argentine Consultation reaffirms the principle of connectionalism as expressed within the EPC. It further reaffirms that the Church is best established where the scriptural doctrine of government by elders gathered in church courts is practiced.
2. The Consultation upholds the necessity to put this principle into practice in every aspect with reference to the St. Andrews Presbytery, emphasizing the principle of reciprocity.
3. The Consultation further states its vision for Argentina as follows:
 - A. To develop a self-governing evangelical Presbyterian church;
 - B. To establish a church displaying the following characteristics:

 3. Memberships in ecumenical agencies that proclaim the Word of God, promote the unity of the Body of Christ, and share resources for effective ministries.

The Geneva Statement

Being persuaded from Scripture that all Christians are united together as one body in Christ, we acknowledge our responsibility to God and one another to labor together in the work of Christ so as to promote the peace, purity, and unity of the church, and the advancement of Christ's Kingdom in the world.

We share a common understanding of the Scriptures as expressed in the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms, for laboring together in ministry. Recognizing that some differences exist between us in our understanding of certain issues concerning God's will for His church, we also recognize that that which we hold in common far outweighs that which differentiates us. It is understood that our common labors shall not compromise the consciences of either church. The integrity of each church concerning its standards and policies must be maintained and respected.

We therefore pledge ourselves to labor together in love to advance the work of Christ in both our common and separate ministries, seeking to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

We promise that if ever we should offend one another in our common labors, we shall do everything possible to resolve the matter and to maintain cooperation. We commit ourselves to labor in support of our church courts, faithfully reporting our activities to the appropriate board or agency, and our respective committees concerning interchurch relations.

We further believe that such practical fraternity, apart from any quest for organizational union will be pleasing to God and promote the advancement of the gospel in the world. For these reasons we commit ourselves to this Agreement of Cooperation that is to be attached to the joint statement previously adopted by our churches.

- 92-02 The Assembly approved an annual exchange of fraternal delegates to the meetings of the EPC and Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, rather than the present alternating year exchange. (Minutes, 12-21) See Act 85-10 (p. 214). The 28th Assembly returned the exchange of delegates to an every-other-year basis. See Act 08-05 (p. 214).
- 92-16 The Assembly responds to questions raised by the North American Presbyterian and Reformed Council (NAPARC) concerning our stance on charismatic gifts by referring them to the Position Paper on the Holy Spirit, along with the following interpretive statements:
1. The Evangelical Presbyterian Church holds that baptism in or with the Holy Spirit is to be identified with regeneration and adoption;
 2. Evangelical Presbyterian Church views the gifts of the Holy Spirit as these are specified in such passages as 1 Corinthians 12, Romans 12, Ephesians 4, and 1 Peter 4 as valid for the church at the present time.
 3. The Position Paper on the Holy Spirit distinguishes between the Word of God on the one hand, and the gifts of the Spirit, including the gift of prophecy, on the other. Whatever the exercise the gift of prophecy may involve, it is plain that its exercise is subject to the Holy Scriptures and to the local session.
 4. Clearly the implication of the Position Paper on the Holy Spirit is that because preeminence is ascribed to the Holy Scriptures, one would have to draw a very sharp distinction between the Bible (the Word of God) and any other form of revelation mentioned in the New Testament. (Minutes, 12-44)

The relationship will include exchange programs for youth, leadership, and music ministry, theological education programs, joint missionary projects, and church planting. (Minutes, 20-20; Communication 00-14)
- 05-10 The Assembly sustains a provisional opinion of the Stated Clerk clarifying what constitutes a “denomination from within the Reformed family” (G.12-3B). Such denominations 1) legally and/or ecclesiastically share a common government, 2) are theologically, historically, and/or fraternally identified with the Continental or British Reformed traditions, 3) profess one of the historic Reformed confessions and/or other standards whose doctrine is consistent with these in content as well as scope, and 4) could be part of the World Alliance of Reformed Churches (WARC), the North American Presbyterian and Reformed Council (NAPARC), the Reformed Ecumenical Synod (REC), or the World Reformed Fellowship. (WRF). (Minutes, 25-53) [Note: Subsequently, WARC and REC merged to form the World Communion of Reformed Churches]

(Minutes, 32-56 and “Documents” section)

The administration and operation of the General Assembly ought to be supported entirely by per member giving.

Aside from Assembly operations, the programs and activities of the Assembly in such areas as world missions, new church development, etc., are to be supported by the benevolence offerings of the various congregations as follows:

1. Each committee shall make a request to the Assembly through the Administration Committee for specific project funding in the succeeding year.
2. Upon the Assembly’s approval, this shall become the Benevolence Askings of the denomination.
3. Local congregations may give to this objective in the following manner:
 - A. Undesignated giving to all objectives which gifts shall be applied according to the percentage of the budget for each program.
 - B. Designated giving to a specific program. All designated giving shall go to the program for which it was given. However, when the full budget of a program is reached, while designated giving shall continue to go to that program, undesignated giving shall then be distributed to other programs proportionately until 100% of budget for each program is reached. Once each program has reached 100% of benevolence, undesignated gifts shall then be distributed according to the percentage of budget as was done previously.

The Administration Committee shall present to the Assembly a recommended calendar of all events for the coming year. Such calendar shall include specific seasons, times of emphasis, times for prayer, and education of the congregations for the various benevolence objectives of the General Assembly. The asking of special offerings shall be left to the discretion of local sessions.

To move toward the support of the administration and operation of the Office of the General Assembly entirely by per member giving, for 1984 the per member giving shall be set at $8 and based on the current membership as of December 31, and in 1985, with the approval of the General Assembly, shall be set at a figure to cover that cost.

As staff is added to boards, agencies, and other offices of the Assembly, such staff shall be funded out of the General Assembly Administration Budget. The purpose of this policy is to unify staff operations and equipment use as much as possible and to maintain parity of salaries and benefits.

As soon as practical, through the Administration Committee, the budget for the following year and a preliminary budget for the year after that shall be presented to the General Assembly each year.

All financial appeals by any committee, agency, or persons must be submitted to the Administration Committee for prior approval. (Minutes, 3-53)

Assembly Office shall provide to each session and congregation information on the approved benevolences along with the suggested per member goal by September 1 following the meeting of the General Assembly, along with the suggested per member contribution for the Assembly’s Administration Budget.
- Each session and congregation is assured that such per member goal is not an assessment but only a suggestion, and that contributions to approved Assembly benevolences be designated for specific causes and those contributions shall be used only for such designated causes.
- The Assembly urges each congregation to notify the Assembly Office no later than February of each year of its intended giving goal for that year to approved Assembly benevolences, with the understanding that the local church’s goal is not a pledge but only a goal towards which the church will strive. (Minutes, 7-55)

- 90-12 The Assembly approves and endorses the following eight principles regarding the propriety of lending money at interest:
1. It is always right and honoring to God that the church make gifts and/or interest-free loans to mission congregations situated in severely disadvantaged areas, and to congregations in need of special assistance.
 2. The Old Testament prohibition of usury had in view Israel as a national entity, a commonwealth, a body politic unique in its position in redemptive history, a prohibition which therefore cannot be directly applied to the New Testament church. Here we take the general position clearly set forth in The Westminster Confession of Faith (Chapter XIX, “Of the Law

- of God” paragraph iv); “To them [i.e., Israel] also as a body politic, he gave sundry judicial laws, which expired together with the state of that people, not obliging any other, now further than the general equity thereof may require.”
3. The prohibition of usury, or the lending of money at interest, though never absolute (for example, interest could be charged when loans were made to non-Israelites) was designed by God for the commonwealth of Israel, and intended to govern its life in the period prior to the coming of Christ and the fulfilling of the law by him (Matthew 5:17-18). The principle of love that underlay that prohibition continues to be relevant to the lives of believers and to the life of the church. We believe, however, that the laws themselves are no longer directly applicable “further than the general equity thereof may require.”
 4. The preservation of the value of the principal by means of the charging of interest, given administrative costs and the prevalence of inflation, and even some increasing of the principal itself for the good of Christ’s Kingdom, cannot be said to be a violation of biblical teaching for the reasons set forth in the preceding statements.
 5. Underlying the Old Testament teaching on interest and its New Testament implications is always the great truth that relations among believers in the area of finance, the lending of money, and the charging of interest, as in all others, are to be governed by the requirements of love, equity, and justice.
 6. Given the principles enunciated in this paper, we believe that in administering the funds available for loans to congregations, the Evangelical Presbyterian Church must take into consideration the diverse nature of those congregations applying for assistance. It is clear, for example, that some congregations are in a much more favorable position to repay loans with interest than is the case with others. What may be applicable in one set of circumstances may not be at all applicable in another.
 7. It is clear from the Scriptures (1 Timothy 6:10) and from Christian history that churches, as individuals, are not immune to the temptations of avarice. Those responsible for the administration of funds belonging to the Evangelical Presbyterian Church will remember the importance of proceeding with caution in this area and profit from the example of biblical teaching as well as from the broader history of the church.
 8. It is our conviction that a loan with interest ought not to be extended to a person, or persons, lacking collateral or the ability to repay the sum borrowed. Further, in our view a clear distinction must be made between a mission or ministry supported by the church through gifts given without any expectation of repayment, and support extended to church extension projects or congregations seeking to purchase property and construct a building. It is entirely proper to grant assistance to new or existing congregations by means of a loan to which interest is attached and which is to be repaid on a mutually agreeable schedule. (Minutes, 10-36).

The administration and strategic initiatives of the General Assembly ought to be supported by the per member giving of EPC churches. Aside from General Assembly administration strategic initiatives, additional programs and activities of the Assembly are to be supported by the special project offerings of EPC churches as follows:

1. Each Committee shall make a request to the Assembly through the Administration Committee for specific project funding in the succeeding year.
2. Upon the Assembly's approval, this shall become the Special Project Askings of the denomination.
3. Local congregations may give to this objective in the following manner:
 - A. Undesignated giving to all projects which gifts shall be applied according to the percentage of the budget for each program.
 - B. Designated giving to a specific project. All designated giving shall go to the project for which it was given. However, when the full budget of a project is reached, while designated giving shall continue to go to that program, undesignated giving shall then be distributed to other programs proportionately until 100% of budget for each program is reached. Once each program has reached 100% of benevolence, undesignated gifts shall then be distributed according to the percentage of budget as was done previously.

The National Leadership Team shall present to the Assembly a recommended calendar of all events for the coming year. Such calendar shall include specific seasons, times of emphasis, times for prayer, and education of the congregations for the various Special Projects of the General Assembly. The asking of special offerings shall be left to the discretion of local sessions.

As staff is added to boards, agencies, and other offices of the Assembly, such staff shall be funded out of the General Assembly Administration Budget. The purpose of this policy is to unify staff operations and equipment use as much as possible and to maintain parity of salaries and benefits.

- A Pastoral Letter is intended to shine the light of God’s word broadly on a general area of concern to the Church. Requiring the approval of only one General Assembly, it is not as definitive as a Position Paper that requires the approval of two General Assemblies including a minimum of one-year circulation among the presbyteries. The primary purpose of a Pastoral Letter is to guide churches within the EPC rather than to identify our positions to the world. (Minutes, 17-30)
- 97-14 The Assembly instructs the permanent Committee on Theology to study the broad issue of the church’s engagement with culture including but not limited to the following issues:
- As a denomination, the EPC desires to be a body of believers that stands our country, to work as agents of salt and light its transformation. Through engagement with our society, we seek to make a visible difference in the quality of its life—spiritually, socially, culturally, and economically.*
- We do not want to be a denomination that merely stands against our society, to denounce and scorn it. That is a fortress mentality that only condemns and castigates our society its wickedness. Instead we want to interact with our society as servants, peacemakers, and healers.*

We do not want to be a denomination of our society, only reflecting and confirming its practices and thought forms. Through a proactive proclamation of the saving grace of the gospel and a practical demonstration of the wholesome and holy lifestyle to which God calls His people, we confront thought forms and lifestyles that stand contrary to God's revealed Word.

We do not want to be a denomination that simply stands above our society, only using it for own personal gain, then escaping it by retreating for our Sunday holy huddles. Rather, we desire to be a people in the world but not of it. (Minutes, 17-30)

- 97-16 The Assembly recommends to all church sessions that an oral or written report be regularly received from a representative of that church's women's ministry. The rationale for this is two-fold:

A Position Paper is intended to enable the Evangelical Presbyterian Church to make a definitive statement to itself, the Christian community and the world. It is not intended to be an exhaustive theological statement nor a complete exegetical biblical study on a particular issue. A Position Paper must be adopted by one Assembly as a Preliminary Paper, subject to revision and discussion, and must be adopted or withdrawn by the act of another Assembly. While stating the definitive position of the mind of the General Assembly, a Position Paper does not have the status of a Constitutional document nor is it to be regarded as binding on the conscience of churches or individuals. (Minutes, 25-37)

- 09-01 The Assembly adopts a definition of “Missional Church” and “Missional Denomination:”
Our denomination wants to clarify for its member churches who we are and what we do as the United States and many other nations become mission fields that are larger, more spiritually diverse and more antagonistic to the Gospel than ever before. The term “missional” has become common and therefore highly nuanced. We desire to define missional in a simple and specific way so that each EPC church can commit to a unified, obedient pursuit of the expansion of the Kingdom of God.
1. A missional church grasps that God is a missionary God and that “it is not so much that God has a mission for His church in the world, but that God has a Church for His mission in the world.”*
 2. A missional church believes that the mission of God is rooted unalterably in the Bible, God’s infallible Word. Therefore, a missional church believes that the essence of God’s mission is to extend the reign of God and is summed up in the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
 3. A missional church is a visible community of authentic disciples of Jesus Christ who gather for celebration, prayer and teaching and then disperse locally and globally as His missionaries to love and serve people. In so doing, a missional church both pursues and welcomes sinners as they are drawn into a saving relationship with Jesus Christ. The greater purpose in all of this is that the earth will be filled with the worship of God.
 4. A missional church believes that it is more than just a collection of individuals, but that it is a community called together by God both to love Him and serve Him.
 5. A missional church is concerned with more than maintaining programs for existing members; it is called to mobilize its people both individually and as a community to daily self-sacrifice for the hurting world around them. A missional church is both inwardly strong and outwardly focused.
 6. A missional church perceives that the essence of these things is the essence of its existence. Therefore, a missional church will constantly seek to reevaluate itself as to whether or not its emphasis, organization, and activity effectively position the church to partner with God in His mission.
 7. A missional denomination:
 - A. Believes ministry begins with the local church
 - B. Is made up of local congregations committed to being missional
 - C. Believes that the Presbyteries and General Assembly, being expressions of the larger church, have an important role to play in identifying, equipping and supporting leaders and churches. They are a key link in the principle of mutual accountability toward missional ministry and biblical standards.
 - D. Constantly examines whether its polity, structures and programs are supporting or inhibiting that missional commitment. (Minutes, 29-32)
