

Church Information Form

The Ministerial Vocation Committee and the Office of the Stated Clerk of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church are responsible for denominational vocational services. As part of the process of “matching” ministers and congregations, the Office of the Stated Clerk provides resources and advice to both pastors and congregational search committees. To that end, we ask congregations and ministers to complete information forms as an introduction to each other, and a first step in the process of calling a minister for a congregation. For both the pastor and the congregation, this is an opportunity for self-study and evaluation of current ministry and goals. This calls for honesty, effort, and open communication.

This Church Information Form (CIF) presents the local congregation’s history, challenges, and goals. It is our hope that this will help facilitate the search process by assisting both the church in focusing on future directions and applicants in gaining some sense of the nature and uniqueness of this congregation.

We encourage churches to list their vacancies on the Ministry Staff Opportunities webpage at www.epc.org/mso. For more information or to send your posting, email info@epc.org.

Guidance for church-based human resources questions such as background checks, personnel policy manuals, and more is available at the Office of the General Assembly by contacting Marti Ratcliff at marti.ratcliff@epc.org or 407-930-4263.

16. How are elders and deacons initially trained and equipped for ministry?

The Pastor works with new Elders and Deacons, both in individual sessions and group training, as needed. The Pastor strives to determine where each individual may be in their personal faith development and walk with the Lord. He also conducts training sessions, as needed, to ensure the new leaders understand what their role is and how to carry out their many responsibilities.

He also provides on-going training at session and deacon meetings, as needed, on a variety of subjects, both biblical and denominational.

17. What is the Session's current practice regarding the ongoing discipleship of elders and deacons?

Session, in partnership with the Pastor, monitors the spiritual growth of both Elders and Deacons. Leaders are encouraged to actively participate in Bible study groups and take lead positions at many church activities. Observation of leaders as they interact with the congregation, Bible Study groups, and both Session and Deacon meetings provides insight into each persons ongoing development and needs. Strategies such as special training meetings and leadership retreats have also been used in the past.

18. In what ways does your church participate in ecumenical activities?

Our community has a monthly meeting with Pastors of many churches in Folsom. They are good about reaching out to any new Pastors and inviting them to join.

We join with other churches for special projects to give support to our local charities and ministries. We do food drives and backpack drives for the local food bank. We organize and lead other churches in the preparation and serving of the annual Thanksgiving dinner for Powerhouse Ministries. In addition, we join with other churches in their Christmas Around Town, which provides gifts for those who are in need in the community.

Mission: HELPING PEOPLE CONNECT WITH GOD

It's the heart of our church to put our faith into action by meeting the needs of the people in our community and around the world. Rather than simply tell people about the life-changing love of Jesus, we want to show them by the way we serve them. Our faith inspires our work and it's our prayer that our work lay the foundation for new relationships and life-changing conversations.

Vision: HOPE IS A HEALTHY, BIBLICALLY SOUND CHURCH THAT IS RELEVANT TO THE COMMUNITY.

We believe the Bible to be the inspired, authoritative Word of God. We believe in the One True God, The Sovereign, eternal Creator of all that exists, both seen and unseen. God is eternally existent in three persons, yet one God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We believe in the Deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in sinless life, in His miracles, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal return in power and glory. We believe that when a person exercises saving faith in Christ they pass, immediately, out of spiritual death into spiritual life. We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life.
