

Facilitator, Central South Presbytery

Central South Presbytery is seeking a Ruling Elder or Teaching Elder to fill the part-time position of Facilitator. The Facilitator is responsible to communicate with each Teaching Elder, including the approximately 30 Teaching Elders that are retired or not under call to churches in the Presbytery, and to attend a meeting of each Session once each year, addressing how Presbytery may effectively respond to their needs and concerns.

The Facilitator is a member of Central South Presbytery's twelve-member Coordinating Council, which sets the agenda for each stated meeting of Presbytery and addresses issues as they arise between meetings. The Facilitator serves as a resource to Presbytery committees, interfacing as needed with committee chairpersons and network liaisons serving Ministerial Committee, Pastoral and Congregational Care Committee, Sessional Minutes Review Committee, World Outreach Network, Church Planting Network, Church Revitalization Network and Next Gen Network.

The Facilitator is one of four part-time paid positions of Presbytery, the others being Stated Clerk, Treasurer, and Ministerial Chair. Each of these positions is elected for a three-year term, with annual review of performance and compensation. The Facilitator position involves full-time equivalent averaging 1½ to 2 days per week, including considerable travel within Presbytery's geographic boundaries. Travel and other expenses are fully reimbursed. For a graphic delineation of Presbytery boundaries and a listing of the 32 churches and 5 church plants in Central South Presbytery, see <https://epconnect.org/presbyteries/> → Presbytery of the Central South.

Interested persons may address any questions or concerns by phone, email or letter to Robert Liddon, Chairman Coordinating Council, 3991 N. Galloway Drive, Memphis, Tennessee 38111 or robertliddon@gmail.com or (901) 359-4940.
