The Nominating Committee welcomes endorsements of well-qualified individuals for service on the committees of the Church.

Sessions and presbyteries may endorse and submit names for the consideration of the Committee. When recommending candidates, remember that the Committee can present only a limited number of nominees for consideration in any one year, and that it must present only those who are able and willing to render exceptional service. Names should be submitted only after careful evaluation of the candidate's applicable skills and ability to give the necessary time.

Although committee members are not representatives of the presbyteries in the sense of representing a constituency, all other things being equal, the Nominating Committee attempts to spread committee membership among the various presbyteries so that all sections of the Church may be involved.

The Committee requests that names be submitted no later than February 28 for consideration at this General Assembly. However, the Committee welcomes endorsements at any time during the year for consideration by the subsequent Assembly.

Please keep in mind that this form is to be used only by the Session or Presbytery. Individuals interested in serving on a committee should not submit their own names, but rather express their interest to the endorsing body for proper submission to the Nominating Committee.

The Nominating Committee keeps a three-year file of all names submitted; therefore, it is not necessary to resubmit names not used during this period.

Please fill in this form completely and carefully. If you need more space, use a blank sheet for additional information. Return completed forms to:

The Nominating Process

The permanent committees of the Assembly are listed below, along with the size of each, number of meetings per year, and a brief description of responsibilities. Membership on these committees is generally limited to ruling and teaching elders, with the exception of:

1. Next Generation Ministries Council, which may have up to 6 non-ordained members who are qualified in Christian Education and/or have expertise or experience in Next Generation ministries and who are active members of EPC churches.
2. World Outreach, which may have up to 2 non-ordained members with expertise or experience in world missions, and who are active members of EPC churches.
3. Benefit Resources, Inc., Board of Directors, which may have up to 6 non-ordained members with expertise or experience in benefits and retirement programs or corporate leadership.

Terms are normally for three years, and a person may serve two consecutive terms on the same committee followed by at least one year off. In accepting a nomination to committee membership, the nominee should clearly understand and be willing to accept the responsibility of active participation in the regular meetings of his or her committee.

Committees meet virtually by video or telephone conference, with select in-person meetings usually held at the Office of the General Assembly (OGA) in Orlando, Florida. Transportation, lodging, and meals for in-person meetings are coordinated through the OGA, with transportation, lodging, and most meals provided.

Ruling elders being nominated must be endorsed by their sessions, and ministers must be endorsed by their presbyteries. Such endorsement reflects official action of that body and is attested by the Clerk. The endorsement forms provided should be filled in as completely as possible and returned to the OGA by February 28 of each year. Forms for endorsed individuals are kept in the Nominating Committee's active file for three years. At its March meeting, the committee considers endorsed individuals for possible nomination for election to vacancies on the permanent committees.

EPC Permanent Committees, Boards, Commissions

Note: “Meetings per year” refer to onsite meetings. Agenda permitting, some of those may be via video conference. Many committees also schedule phone conferences during the year.
